R. Christensen, 2006-01-01 The process of founding new enterprises and making them grow and prosper is a far more convoluted undertaking than it was just a few decades ago This book explores the complexity faced by today's entrepreneurs Institutional boundaries evolutionary perspectives and the intricacies of management are the central themes in this study of entrepreneurs and SMEs in a world marked by major transitions While mainstream research enhances our understanding of the dynamics of the entrepreneurial process this book progresses the research yet further It examines another fundamental role of research in entrepreneurship our understanding of future organizational and managerial forms evolving from the globalization process Issues addressed include growth patterns among enterprises initiated by science and technology based entrepreneurs the actions and motives driving radical entrepreneurs the role of experience versus formal education in entrepreneurship the role of endogenous growth processes managerial complexity in new knowledge based enterprises the role of collaboration for innovation in new business ventures The contributors aim to further encourage dialogue and reflections triggered by the growing emphasis on entrepreneurship in policy agendas and business communities all over Europe As such this book will prove stimulating reading for researchers students academics consultants and advisers involved in entrepreneurship business and management

Entrepreneurial Learning Richard Harrison, Claire M. Leitch, 2008-01-31 This book addresses the burgeoning interest in organizational learning and entrepreneurship bringing together for the first time a collection of new papers dealing explicitly with entrepreneurial learning Where past books have examined learning in a corporate context Harrison and Leitch focus instead on the learning process within entrepreneurship and the small business Areas covered include a review of the concept of entrepreneurial learning and the relationship between entrepreneurial learning and the wider literatures on management and organizational learning a review and development of a number of conceptual models of the process of learning in entrepreneurial contexts an illustration of the applications of concept of entrepreneurial learning in a range of contexts an international perspective on entrepreneurial learning

The Networked Firm in a Global World Eirik Vatne, Michael Taylor, 2018-01-18 This title was first published in 2000 Illustrated by a wide range of international case studies this volume elaborates extends and critiques one of the key models of local growth which emphasizes learning networking and embeddedness in relation to the role of small and medium sized firms SMEs In doing so it provides a comprehensive understanding of the changing role of SMEs in an era of globalization

Critical Management Research in Eastern Europe M. Kelemen, M. Kostera, 2002-10-23 The process of transition in Eastern European countries is one in which ideas of the past and present both local and Western meet and conflict Presenting a wealth of new ethnographic and interview based research Critical Management Research in Eastern Europe argues that the reform process in Central and Eastern Europe has been dominated by the traditional Western view of management practice However this approach overlooks the fact that certain managerial and organizational practices developed in Central and Eastern Europe may still be appropriate and indeed effective within this particular setting The book brings together authors from both East and West Europe to evaluate how the two systems can best be harmonized which is particularly important in the context of EU enlargement
