Cultural Psychotherapy Martin La Roche, 2013 Written by a leading expert in the field of culturally competent psychotherapeutic practice this book presents an integrated psychotherapeutic framework designed to help students and practitioners understand investigate and treat clients from diverse cultural backgrounds La Roche introduces a logical theoretical model that takes into account the influence of sociopolitical economic and cultural processes within the psychotherapeutic process Using a three phased psychotherapeutic model with specific clinical recommendations and suggestions for each phase the book explores complex clinical cases that illustrate in detail each phase Unique in its approach to and definition of the concept of cultural diversity Cultural Psychotherapy expands the traditional ethnicity race model to a model that examines individuals and groups according to a broader set of variables In other words the key to enhancing our understanding of our clients is to take into account the rich and dynamic context in which their lives develop and evolve

Main Issues in Mental Health and Race Dele Olajide, David Ndegwa, 2019-06-04 This title was first published in 2003 This work arose out of the editors concerns at the British preoccupation with an alleged epidemic of schizophrenia in people of African descent Black people in contact with psychiatric services are commonly classed as schizophrenic or normal and do not seem to attract any of the diagnoses or interventions which their white counterparts do The editors asked contributors to carry out a critical broad based review of a particular area using the technology that has been developed for conducting systematic literature reviews The areas explored were selected by the editors from their own understanding of disciplines which might have something to contribute They were largely disciplines which have an interest in beliefs feelings emotions thought politics language and decision making In some areas there was little material available from literature searches so the reviewers used their own understanding of the subject matter rather than existing literature to write critical essays

Psychopathology James E Maddux, Barbara A Winstead, James E. Maddux, Barbara A. Winstead, 2019-07-11 Psychopathology Fifth Edition is the most up to date text about the etiology and treatment of the most important psychological disorders The chapters are written by leading experts in the field of psychopathology who provide up to date information on theory research and clinical practice The book is unique in its strong emphasis on critical thinking about psychopathology as represented by chapters on such topics as culture race gender class clinical judgment and decision making and alternatives to traditional categorical approaches to understanding psychopathology The contributors have incorporated information about and from the World Health Organization's International Classification of Diseases along with information about and from the DSM 5 As with the previous editions this book remains a true textbook in psychopathology Unlike the many weighty volumes that are intended as reference books Psychopathology Fifth Edition has been designed specifically to serve as a textbook on psychopathology for graduate students in clinical and counseling psychology programs and related programs such as social work It will also serve as an extremely useful reference source for practitioners and researchers

Ethnopsychiatry Atwood D. Gaines, 1992-08-17 This book outlines a new ethnopsychiatry one that considers popular or folk ethnomedicines and professional psychiatric systems in the same discourse effacing the traditional distinction between psychiatry and ethnopsychiatry The essays in this volume are from a diverse interdisciplinary group representing history psychology sociology and medicine as well as anthropology The author view both ethnomedical practices and illness as local cultural constructions They consider ideologies and institutions from both professional and popular ethnopsychiatric systems in America Western Europe South Africa the Caribbean Japan and India The book demonstrates that professional and popular psychiatric medicines lie along the same local cultural continua that professional scientific psychiatries and less formalized systems of local popular psychology are epistemological relatives aspects of common cultural discourses on normality and abnormality The essays reject the notion of a universal uniform reality of psychopathology beyond cultural boundaries but the data strongly support the cultural and historically constructed nature of ethnopsychiatry in its illness ideologies and institutions Contributors to this volume include Amy V Blue Thomas Csordas Ellen Dwyer Paul E Farmer M D Atwood D Gaines Helena Jia Hershel Janis Jenkins Pearl Katz Thomas Maretzki Naoki Nomura Charles Nuckolls Kathryn Oths Lorna Amarasingham Rhodes and Leslie Swartz
