Rethinking The Boundaries Of Strategy

Al Bhimani, Michael Bromwich

Rethinking The Boundaries Of Strategy:

Rethinking the Boundaries of Strategy Joyce Swanson Falkenberg, 1996 Rethinking the Boundaries of Strategy successfully integrates the resource based perspective with conventional conceptions of strategy This success should stimulate both resource based perspective critics and supporters The supporters will learn that the resource based perspective is not a substitute for conventional strategy and critics will learn that it is indeed a significant enhancement to conventional strategic thinking The book is a compilation of the best papers from the Nordic Conference on Rethinking the Boundaries of Strategy that was sponsored by the Norwegian Research Centre in Organization and Management

Management Accounting Al Bhimani, Michael Bromwich, 2009-09-16 Management Accounting is part of the celebrations to mark CIMA's 90th anniversary in 2009 It looks at the development of cost and management accounting from the founding of the Institute to today It considers a number of immediate challenges to management accountants and surveys a range of issues and challenges that will likely affect management accounting thought and practice in the future The authors examine the possibilities for accountants to widen their focus and become more familiar with the enterprise technology determining their organisations cost structures and with the effects of multiple production in various locations such as economies or diseconomies of scale Such change may require the alteration of traditional cost models used by accountants to become more nuanced The book suggests how this may be accomplished and highlights the need for management accountants to work as part of management teams throughout the organisation as business partners rather than remain grounded in specialist information provision roles Alnoor Bhimani is Professor of Management Accounting at the London School of Economics He is also a Certified Management Accountant as well as an author of 15 books and over 100 articles Michael Bromwich was CIMA's Professor of Accounting and Financial Management at the London School of Economics and Political Science 1985 to 2006 now Emeritus He is a Past President of CIMA 1987-88 and currently serves on CIMA's Technical Committee A unique survey of 90 years of CIMA research Analyses the research to determine future challenges for management accounting and business practices Charts the history of management accountancy and business practice over nearly 100 years
