Vanatta, 2025-06-24 The strange and contested evolution of the management of banking risk Banks in America are private institutions with private shareholders boards of directors profit motives customers and competitors And yet the public plays a key role in deciding what risks are taken as well as how when and to what end Public private negotiations over financial governance has evolved into an essential ecosystem of banking risk management In Private Finance Public Power Peter Conti Brown and Sean Vanatta offer a new history of finance and public policy in the United States by examining the idiosyncratic way the nation manages financial risk across the public private divide Covering two centuries from the founding of the Republic to the early 1980s Conti Brown and Vanatta describe the often contested sometimes chaotic engagement of bankers politicians bureaucrats and others in the overlapping spaces of the public private system of bank supervision Conti Brown and Vanatta trace the different supervisory frameworks that evolved over time from the imposition of private liability on bank shareholders to the development of the central bank to the creation of federal deposit insurance Negotiations took place at federal and state levels but over time the federal government assumed most of the responsibility for managing financial risk Moreover federal supervisory officials began to undertake more varied tasks including monitoring racial discrimination and managing financial concentration Conti Brown and Vanatta introduce a diverse cast of characters bankers politicians bureaucrats and others and show how they navigated two hundred years of financial panics scandals and crises to build the system that structures modern America's banking system The Routledge Handbook of Reenactment Studies Vanessa Agnew, Jonathan Lamb, Juliane Tomann, 2019-10-22 The Routledge Handbook of Reenactment Studies provides the first overview of significant concepts within reenactment studies The volume includes a co-authored critical introduction and a comprehensive compilation of key term entries contributed by leading reenactment scholars from Europe North America and Australia Well into the future this wide ranging reference work will inform and shape the thinking of researchers teachers and students of history and heritage and memory studies as well as cultural studies film theater and performance studies dance art history museum studies literary criticism musicology and anthropology The Johns Hopkins University Studies in Historical and Political Science, 1920 Iohns Hopkins university studies in historical and political science under the direction of the departments of history, political economy, and political science .1920 Reconsidering American Civil-military Relations Lionel Beehner, Risa Brooks, Daniel Maurer (Major), 2021

Congress. House. Committee on Education and the Workforce. Subcommittee on Health, Employment, Labor, and Pensions.2011 The Journal of the Assembly During the ... Session of the Legislature of the State of California California. Legislature. Assembly, 1957 Journal of the Assembly, Legislature of the State of California California. Legislature. Assembly, 1958 Mediterranean Diasporas Maurizio Isabella, Konstantina Zanou, 2015-11-19 Mediterranean Diasporas looks at the relationship between displacement and the circulation of ideas within and from the Mediterranean basin in the long 19th century In bringing together leading historians working on Southern Europe the Balkans and the Ottoman Empire for the first time it builds bridges across national historiographies raises a number of comparative questions and unveils unexplored intellectual connections and ideological formulations. The book shows that in the so called age of nationalism the idea of the nation state was by no means dominant as displaced intellectuals and migrant communities developed notions of double national affiliations imperial patriotism and liberal imperialism By adopting the Mediterranean as a framework of analysis the collection offers a fresh contribution to the growing field of transnational and global intellectual history revising the genealogy of 19th century nationalism and liberalism and reveals new perspectives on the intellectual dynamics of the age of revolutions Comparative Recognition and Enforcement Drossos Stamboulakis, 2022-11-24 This book provides the first detailed analysis of recognition and enforcement of foreign judgments and awards in civil and commercial matters from a transnational perspective This perspective facilitates greater understanding of the present state of recognition and enforcement and offers insight into the establishment and operation of key modern instruments This book represents a timely contribution as instruments harmonising and promoting recognition and enforcement are increasingly being considered and implemented internationally Many countries have recently reiterated their commitment to improving access to justice and have indicated an intention to sign one or both of the treaties designed to harmonise and promote recognition and enforcement of civil and commercial judgments internationally the 2005 Choice of Court Convention or the 2019 Judgments Convention This book is an essential resource for policymakers scholars and intergovernmental organisations to understand the nature and origin of recognition and enforcement approaches as well as their application interpretation and future directions Respecting Persons in Theory and Practice Jan Narveson,2002 Respecting Persons in Theory and Practice is a collection of essays of the moral and political philosophy of Jan Narveson The essays in this collection share a consistent theme running through much of Narveson s moral and political philosophy namely that politics and morals stem from the interests of individual people and have no antecedent authority over us Rather the source of such authority lies in the way people are related to one another and most especially in the exigencies of cooperation Humans have plenty of problems Narveson argues but we are perhaps unique among animals in that our worst enemies often enough are other humans The rules of morals and the devices of politics in the view Narveson holds deal with these problems by identifying the potential for gain from cooperation and loss from the reverse The essays express a collective antipathy for the ways in which modern political and moral philosophy has ridden roughshod over sane and efficient social restrictions leaving us with a social scene devoted mainly to satisfying the cravings for power of the politically ambitious Politics Narveson argues with distress has subverted morals The essays in this collection in various ways and as applied to various aspects of the scene detail these charges arguing that the ultimate and true point of politics and morals is to enable us to make our lives better according to our varied senses of what that might mean
