Sinophone Studies Across Disciplines Howard Chiang, Shu-mei Shih, 2024-09-17 Sinophone studies the study of Sinitic language cultures and communities around the world has become increasingly interdisciplinary over the past decade Today it spans not only literary studies and cinema studies but also history anthropology musicology linguistics art history and dance More and more it is in conversation with fields such as postcolonial studies settler colonial studies migration studies ethnic studies queer studies and area studies This reader presents the latest and most cutting edge work in Sinophone studies bringing together both senior and emerging scholars to highlight the interdisciplinary reach and significance of this vital field It argues that Sinophone studies has developed a distinctive conceptualization of power at the convergence of different intellectual traditions offering new approaches to questions of plurality hierarchy oppression and resistance In so doing this book shows Sinophone studies has provided valuable conceptual tools for the study of minoritized and racialized communities in diverse global settings Essays also consider how the rise of China has affected Sinophone communities and the idea of Chineseness around the world among other timely topics Showcasing cross fertilization and diversification that traverse and transcend conventional scholarly boundaries Sinophone Studies Across Disciplines gives readers an unparalleled survey of the past present and future of this inherently interdisciplinary field

Circulating Cultures Amanda Harris, 2014-12-18 Circulating Cultures is an edited book about the transformation of cultural materials through the Australian landscape The book explores cultural circulation exchange and transit through events such as the geographical movement of song series across the Kimberley and

Arnhem Land the transformation of Australian Aboriginal dance in the hands of an American choreographer and the indigenisation of symbolic meanings in heavy metal music Circulating Cultures crosses disciplinary boundaries with contributions from historians musicologists linguists and dance historians to depict shifts of cultural materials through time place and interventions from people It looks at the way Indigenous and non Indigenous performing arts have changed through intercultural influence and collaboration

Choreography Invisible Anna Pakes, 2020 Dance is often considered an ephemeral art one that disappears nearly as soon as it materializes leaving no physical object behind While most cultural works are tangible like books in print and framed artworks on display the practice of dance remains more elusive Dance involves people trying to embody some abstract unwritten thing that exists before and survives beyond their particular acts of dancing But what exactly is that thing For that matter what is a dance And do dances continue to exist when not performed Anna Pakes seeks to answer these questions and more in this exciting new volume which investigates what sort of thing dance really is Focusing on Western theater dance Choreography Invisible The Disappearing Work of Dance explores the metaphysics of dance and choreographic works The volume traces the different ways dances have been conceptualized across time through such lenses as the cultural theory of Derrida the philosophy of Rancière and Baudouin and contemporary dance theory It examines how dances have survived through time and what it means for a dance work to be forgotten and lost In her exploration of the amorphous and fleeting nature of dance as a cultural object Pakes ultimately transforms the way we understand the very nature of art

Honest Bodies Hannah Kosstrin, 2017-07-24 Honest Bodies Revolutionary Modernism in the Dances of Anna Sokolow illustrates the ways in which Sokolow's choreography circulated American modernism among Jewish and communist channels of the international Left from the 1930s 1960s in the United States Mexico and Israel Drawing upon extensive archival materials interviews and theories from dance Jewish and gender studies this book illuminates Sokolow's statements for workers rights anti racism and the human condition through her choreography for social change alongside her dancing and teaching for Martha Graham Tracing a catalog of dances with her companies Dance Unit La Paloma Azul Lyric Theatre and Anna Sokolow Dance Company along with presenters and companies the Negro Cultural Committee New York State Committee for the Communist Party Federal Theatre Project Nuevo Grupo Mexicano de Clásicas y Modernas and Inbal Dance Theater this book highlights Sokolow's work in conjunction with developments in ethnic definitions diaspora and nationalism in the US Mexico and Israel

The Female Tradition in Physical Education David Kirk, Patricia Vertinsky, 2016-02-12 The Female Tradition in Physical Education re-examines a key question in the history of modern education why did the remarkably successful leaders of female physical education who pioneered the development of the subject in late nineteenth and early twentieth century England Canada Australia and New Zealand lose control in the years following the Second World War Despite the later resurgence of second wave feminism they never regained a voice with the result that male leadership was able to shift the curriculum in ways that neglected the needs and interests of girls and young women Drawing on new sources and a range of historiographical approaches and touching on related fields such as therapeutic exercise and dance the book examines the development of physical education for girls in a number of countries to offer an alternative explanation to the dominant narrative of the demise of the female tradition Providing an important contextualization for the state of contemporary female physical education this is fascinating reading for anybody with an interest in the development of sport and physical education women s and gender history and physical culture more generally The Routledge Dance Studies Reader Alexandra Carter, Janet O'Shea, 2010 Represents the range and diversity of writings on dance from the mid to late 20th century providing contemporary perspectives on ballet modern dance postmodern movement performance jazz and ethnic dance Fifty Contemporary Choreographers Martha Bremser, Lorna Sanders, 2011-03-15 A unique and authoritative guide to the lives and work of prominent living contemporary choreographers Representing a wide range of dance genres each entry locates the individual in the context of modern dance theatre and explores their impact Those studied include Jerome Bel Richard Alston Doug Varone William Forsythe Phillippe Decoufle Jawole Willa Jo Zollar Ohad Naharin Itzik Gallili Twyla Tharp Wim Vandekeybus With a new updated introduction by Deborah Jowitt and further reading and references throughout this text is an invaluable resource for all students and critics of dance and all those interested in the fascinating world of choreography
