Politics of Classroom Life Nobuo K. Shimahara, 2014-04-08 The growing economic competition among the world's industrialized and developing nations has spurred comparisons and examinations of national school systems An important aspect of any school system is school and classroom management which is an indicator of the ultimate goals that a nation has for its future workers In this volume international scholars examine the daily life of elementary school classrooms in six nations with complex economies an international presence and salient minority and immigrant populations These original essays analyze contemporary classroom management practices and policies as well as their historical and theoretical frameworks

Rethinking the Frankfurt School Jeffrey T. Nealon, Caren Irr, 2012-02-01 A reexamination of key Frankfurt School thinkers Benjamin Adorno Horkheimer Marcuse in the light of contemporary theory and cultural studies across the disciplines Rethinking the Frankfurt School asks what consequences such a rethinking might have for study of the Frankfurt School on its own terms Ironically contemporary theorists find themselves turning back toward the Frankfurt School precisely for the reasons it was once scorned for a notion of subjects whose desires are less liberated and multiplied than they are produced and regulated by a far reaching very nearly totalizing global culture industry Indeed as new questions concerning globalization and economic redistribution emerge while analyses of identity politics and subjective transgression become less central to contemporary theory and cultural studies the future of the Frankfurt School looks as promising and productive as its past has proven to be
