from elder fraud Long-Term Care in Transition David Barton Smith, 2000-09-30 Long Term Care in Transition is a carefully documented case study of the changes that took place in the regulation of nursing homes in New York between 1975 and 1980. It covers the history of the regulatory offensive in New York and strategies of control and their effectiveness touching on such subjects as professional standards, rate setting, reimbursement, criminal prosecution, and consumers. Invaluable reading for health care professionals involved in the management of nursing homes, it concludes with some of the lessons learned from this experience for the health sector as a whole. While regulations have changed since 1980, David B. Smith has written a new preface which puts the study in perspective. Book jacket Ethics, Law, and Aging Review, Volume 11 Marshall B. Kapp, 2005-09-01 We are now engaged in a movement that de-emphasizes the reliance on institutional forms of long term care for disabled persons needing ongoing daily living assistance and converges on the use of non-institutional service providers and residential settings. In this latest edition of Ethics, Law, and Aging Review, Kapp and ten expert contributors help us examine the forces and potential for changing the long term care industry both positively and negatively and address this paradigm shift from the impersonal public psychiatric institutions of the 1960s and 1970s to the present day assisted living environments that have been fueled by economic, social, political, and legal forces. Most importantly, this volume identifies obstacles to change and enlightens service providers, advocates, and key policy makers to the pitfalls that can largely interfere with positive outcomes as a result of long term care deinstitutionalization. Topics explored include Community based alternatives for older adults with serious mental illness, failing consumer directed alternatives to nursing homes, Ethics of Medicare privatization.
