Long The Riverrun Selected Essays:

A Long the Riverrun Richard Ellmann, 1989 A splendid group of 18 previously uncollected literary and biographical essays by the distinguished author of Oscar Wilde The Dramatic Works of Samuel Beckett Charles A. Carpenter, 2011-10-13 A selectively comprehensive bibliography of the vast literature about Samuel Beckett's dramatic works arranged for the efficient and convenient use of scholars on all levels Yeats's Worlds David Pierce, 1995-01-01

Damned to Fame James Knowlson, 2004 Damned to Fame is the brilliant and insightful portrait of Nobel Prize winning author Samuel Beckett mysterious and reclusive master of twentieth century literature Professor James Knowlson Beckett's chosen biographer and a leading authority on Beckett vividly re-creates Beckett's life from his birth in a rural suburb of Dublin in 1906 to his death in Paris in 1989 revealing the real man behind the literary giant Scrupulously researched and filled with previously unknown information garnered from interviews with the author and his friends family and contemporaries Knowlson's unparalleled work is the definitive Beckett biography of our time Samuel Beckett Laura Salisbury, 2012-04-04 Reads Beckett's comic timing as part of a post-war ethics of representation Samuel Beckett is a funny writer He is also an author whose work is taken to respond ethically to the unspeakable seriousness of the post-Holocaust situation How can these two statements sit together Ranging widely over Beckett's fiction drama and critical writings and including readings of Murphy the Trilogy Waiting for Godot Endgame the late prose and the late plays the book demonstrates that it is through Beckett's comic timing that we can understand the double gesture of his art the ethical obligation to represent the world how it is while at the same time opening up a space for how it ought to be Key Features Presents innovative readings of the comedy found in Beckett's fiction drama and critical writings Spans Beckett's entire oeuvre using published and unpublished sources Engages with recent and contemporary philosophical approaches to literature including work by Derrida Badiou Levinas and Adorno Makes a unique contribution to theoretical work on comedy and laughter Provides a rigorous introduction to the theoretical debates surrounding the relationship between modernist literature and a post-war ethics of representation The Secret Life of Genius John Chambers, 2009-06-25 A look at the metaphysical experiences that shaped the lives and work of 24 great men and women from the Renaissance to modern times Chronicles the changing relationship with God nature and spirituality from the 16th century to the 20th century Includes encounters with the paranormal of Ben Johnson Isaac Newton Mary Shelley Leo Tolstoy Doris Lessing and Winston Churchill What role did the esoteric thought of Swedenborg play in the creative output of Honoré de Balzac Did a supernatural encounter prompt Mary Wollstonecraft Shelley to focus her work on the theme of immortality Building on his earlier research on communications with the spirit world that Victor Hugo author of Les Misérables experienced while in exile on the isle of Jersey John Chambers now looks at the role occult knowledge and supernatural experiences played in the lives of 24 geniuses His investigation spans the life and work of William Blake Helena Blavatsky and W B Yeats whose esoteric interests are well known as well as those little suspected of such encounters with worlds beyond ours including Doris Lessing Leo Tolstoy Norman Mailer Yukio Mishima and Winston Churchill Chambers presents more than a collection of anecdotes and newly revealed secrets His research provides insightful historical context of the decisive turning point that took place with the collapse of Prague the occult capital of Europe in 1620 which resulted in the victory of Cartesian reality and Newton's scientific paradigm over the esoteric traditions that flourished until that time The magical and occult world shown in the lives of these 24 great men and women offers us a glimpse of what could still be ours a world that though it is now overshadowed by modern scientific and technological principles is yet still visible on the horizon through the visions and paranormal experiences of these geniuses

The Trials of Oscar Wilde Michael S. Foldy, 1997-01-01 Following Oscar Wilde's trials for committing acts of gross indecency with men he lost his family his freedom and his will to live This book sets out to examine how Victorian society could allow or indeed need this to happen

Jung Stripped Bare Sonu Shamdasani, 2018-05-08 How many posthumous lives does a man have to live Nearly half a century after his death C G Jung is a subject of continual controversies Every few years a new life of Jung appears each promising to provide the missing master key to the mysteries of his life and work and to lay bare their secrets However with every successive life Jung becomes shrouded in an ever increasing web of rumour gossip innuendo and fantasy We may ask why Jung biographies are so filled with shortcomings How did Jung become a fiction This book addresses these issues It demonstrates the pitfalls and fallacies of such works and sets out how his life and work should be approached on a historical basis drawing on decades of archival investigation and new documentation It surveys attempts to write Jung's biography from during his own lifetime until the present shows how Memories Dreams Reflections came to be falsely perceived as his autobiography and why his Collected Works was never completed Thus this work lays out an agenda for future studies and discussions of Jung the reception of his work and its impact on contemporary culture

The Impossible Craft Scott Donaldson, 2015-02-23 In The Impossible Craft Scott Donaldson explores the rocky territory of literary biography the most difficult that biographers try to navigate Writers are accustomed to controlling the narrative and notoriously opposed to allowing intruders on their turf They make bonfires of their papers encourage others to destroy correspondence write their own autobiographies and appoint family or friends to protect their reputations as official biographers Thomas Hardy went so far as to compose his own life story to be published after his death while falsely assigning authorship to his widow After a brief background sketch of the history of biography from Greco Roman times to the present Donaldson recounts his experiences in writing biographies of a broad range of twentieth century American writers Ernest Hemingway F Scott Fitzgerald John Cheever Archibald MacLeish Edwin Arlington Robinson Winfield Townley Scott and Charlie Fenton Donaldson provides readers with a highly readable insiders introduction to literary biography He suggests how to conduct interviews and what not to do during the process He offers sound advice about how closely biographers should identify with their subjects He examines the ethical obligations of the biographer who must aim for the truth without unduly or unnecessarily causing discomfort or worse to survivors He shows us why and how misinformation comes into existence and tends to persist over time He describes the mythical ideal biographer an imaginary creature of universal intelligence and myriad talents beyond the reach of any single human being And he suggests how its very impossibility makes the goal of writing a biography that captures the personality of an author a challenge well worth pursuing

Geofeminism in Irish and Diasporic Culture Christin M. Mulligan, 2019-06-12 Geofeminism in Irish and Diasporic Culture Intimate Cartographies demonstrates the ways in which contemporary feminist Irish and diasporic authors such as Nuala Ní Dhomhnaill and Tana French cross borders literally in terms of location ideologically in terms of syncretive politics and faiths figuratively in terms of conventions and canonicity and linguistically to develop an epistemological Fifth Space of cultural actualization beyond borders This book contextualizes their work with regard to events in Irish and diasporic history and considers these authors in relation to other more established counterparts such as W B Yeats P H Pearse James Joyce and Máirtín Cadhain Exploring the intersections of postcolonial cultural geography transnational feminisms and various theologies Christin M Mulligan engages with media from the nineteenth century to present day and considers how these writer cartographers reshape Ireland both as real landscape and fantasy island traversed in order to negotiate place in terms of terrain and subjectivity both within and outside of history in the realm of desire
