What can survive the end of the world In Otherworlds philosopher Federico Campagna constructs extraordinary stories and alternative histories of the Mediterranean nexus of migrations and odysseys ruins and romances to depict a world in which the imagination is the only engine of survival Chapter by chapter Campagna chronicles the existential challenges posed by history and the inventive and radical responses of people facing the ruin of their world From the earliest myths with which the inhabitants of the kingdoms around the Mediterranean constructed a shared social reality the stories of the Mediterranean are dominated by cataclysm and collapse in which fugitive fragments become the building blocks of resilience and renewal Alexander the Great s cataclysmic conquests seed a cycle of existential romances pagan philosophers fleeing the fall of Rome give rise to new visions of reality translators across the Islamic world Iberia and Italy use stories to bridge the gap between cultures at war and pirates slaves renegades and publishers expand the imaginative horizons of human possibility through modernity and beyond In Campagna s lyrical novel and expansive work part history part philosophy part positioned in the M rka eya Pur a while previous scholarship has considered this haphazard interpolation for sectarian aims The book demonstrates that deliberate compositional strategies make up the Saura kta symbiosis found in these mirrored m h tmyas Moreover the author explores what he calls the dharmic double helix of Brahmanism most explicitly articulated by the structural opposition between prav tti worldly and niv tti other worldly dharmas As the first narrative study of the S rya M h tmya along with the first study of the M rka eya Pur a or any Pur a as a narrative whole this book will be of interest to academics in the field of Religion Hindu Studies South Asian Studies Goddess Studies Narrative Theory and Comparative Mythology
