political geography covers his travels across today's Mexico in 1803-1804. The work canvases natural scientific and cultural scientific objects alike combining the results of fieldwork with archival research and expert testimony. To show how people, plants, animals, goods and ideas moved across the globe, Humboldt wrote in a variety of styles bending and reshaping familiar writerly conventions to keep readers attentive to new inputs. Above all, he wanted his readers to be open-minded when confronted with cultural and other differences in the Americas. Fueled by his comparative global perspective on politics, economics and science, he used his writing to support Latin American independence and condemn slavery and other forms of colonial exploitation. It is these voluminous and innovative writings on the New World that made Humboldt the undisputed father of modern geography, early American studies, transatlantic cultural history and environmental studies. This two-volume critical edition, the third installment in the Alexander von Humboldt in English series, is based on the full text including all footnotes, tables and maps of the second revised French edition of Essai politique sur le royaume de la Nouvelle Espagne from 1825 to 1827, which has never been translated into English before. Extensive annotations and full-color atlases are available on the series website.

Topónimos y apellidos ancestrales de los países de la hispanidad Gonzalo Mateo Sanz, 2020-06-27. Existe una toponimia común de los países llamados prehispánicos anterior a los contactos iniciados hace cinco siglos. Numerosos escritos de esas primeras épocas dejan claro que los nativos hablaban lenguas no comprensibles para los hispanoparlantes pero que existía una inquietante línea de entendimiento con los vascos que allí acudían. De hecho consta la petición por escrito de las autoridades locales para que se enviara a la zona para facilitar el entendimiento con los nativos, aspecto que esta investigación no contradice sino más bien corrobora de modo suficientemente exhaustivo. Para que se hayan podido compartir tantos topónimos y apellidos que persistan desde épocas antiguas puede haber dos explicaciones. A) Hubo una lengua originaria común que tendría que haber sido cercana al actual euskera para que desde allí se pueda deducir tal parentesco que se pudo originar en períodos muy antiguos paleolíticos y que se mantendría por siglos sin grandes cambios. B) No hubo una lengua común pero sí un flujo muy activo en épocas antiguas que podría situarse desde bastantes miles de años atrás hasta siglos antes de nuestra era actual con viajes frecuentes e intercambios culturales afectando de modo global y prolongado Ambas ideas chocan frontalmente con lo que se nos ha transmitido desde hace siglos y con lo que da por sentado la mayor parte de la humanidad Pero rechazarlas por eso es algo que nunca puede hacer alguien que se tenga por científico o investigador La presente obra es una continuación en cuanto a objetivos y metodología de trabajo de dos obras anteriores Topónimos y apellidos españoles de origen ibérico o prelatino 2019 y Toponimia comparada española e internacional interpretable sobre raíces ibéricas 2020

Cuban-American Literature of Exile Isabel Alvarez-Borland, 1998 The Cuban revolution of 1959 initiated a significant exodus with more than 700 000 Cubans eventually settling in the United States This community creates a major part of what is now known as the Cuban diaspora In Cuban American Literature of Exile Isabel Alvarez Borland forces the dialogue between literature and history into the open by focusing on narratives that tell the story of the 1959 exodus and its aftermath Alvarez Borland pulls together a diverse array of Cuban American voices writing in both English and Spanish often from contrasting perspectives and approaches over several generations and waves of immigration Writers discussed include Guillermo Cabrera Infante Reinaldo Arenas Roberto Fernandez Achy Obejas and Cristina Garcia The author's analysis of their works uncovers a movement from narratives that reflect the personal loss caused by the historical fact of exile to autobiographical writings that reflect the need to search for a new identity in a new language to fictions that dramatize the authors constructed Cuban American
