Loss, Change and Bereavement in Palliative Care Pam Firth, Gill Luff, David Oliviere, 2005 This text brings together contemporary thinking on loss and bereavement. It draws on international research practice and individual stories from people struggling to understand the meaning of loss including work with bereaved children, parents, families and adults.

Art Therapy and Cancer Care Diane Waller, Caryl Sibbett, 2005-07 Inspired by the experiences of art therapists who have pioneered work with people with cancer, this text looks at the work in its institutional context, demonstrating the importance for the art therapy service of being understood, supported and valued at managerial level. Compassion-Based Approaches in Loss and Grief Darcy L. Harris, Andy H. Y. Ho, 2022-12-20 Compassion-Based Approaches in Loss and Grief introduces clinicians to a wide array of strategies and frameworks for engaging clients throughout the loss experience, particularly when those experiences have a protracted course. In the book, clinicians and researchers from around the world and from a variety of fields explore ways to cultivate compassion and how to implement compassion-based clinical practices specifically designed to address loss, grief and bereavement. Students, scholars and mental health and healthcare professionals will come away from this important book with a deepened understanding of compassion-based approaches and strategies for enhancing distress tolerance, maintaining focus and identifying the clinical interventions best suited to clients' needs. Living with Grief Kenneth J. Doka, 2002 As this book shows us, when a loved one dies, we search for meaning in our own lives while struggling to hold onto memories of a precious life lost. O says Senator John Breaux in his introduction to this book. The 29 chapters of this book address the struggles, concerns and issues faced by the bereaved and those who care for them. Grief and Loss Across the Lifespan, Second Edition Carolyn Ambler Walter, Judith L. M. McCoyd, 2015-09-11 Praise for the First Edition: This book represents a significant advance because it looks at the issues from a bio-psychosocial perspective. To a social worker who has worked mainly in a medical and nursing environment, this is a great step forward. Bereavement Care Offers valued sensitivities, knowledge and insights and most importantly, age-appropriate interventions for a range of significant losses. Counselors will want to keep this indispensable work close at hand. Kenneth J. Doka PhD, Author, Counseling Individuals With Life-Threatening Illness. This unique text for undergraduate and master's level social work and counseling courses on loss, grief and bereavement is distinguished by its biopsychosocial perspective and developmental framework. The book addresses grieving patterns and intervention strategies according to the life trajectory and provides clinical intervention tools and strategies for coping according to the developmental stage of an individual. It incorporates losses beyond death loss with special focus on losses related to maturational development. The second edition reflects new research.
