The Essays of Michel de Montaigne Michel de Montaigne, 2021-10-12 The Essays of Michel de Montaigne 1877 is a collection of essays and letters by Michel de Montaigne Originally published in French as Essais 1580 this edition was translated by English poet Charles Cotton in the late 17th century and republished by William Carew Hazlitt the grandson of renowned English essayist and critic William Hazlitt No man living is more free from this passion of sorrow than I who yet neither like it in myself nor admire it in others and yet generally the world as a settled thing is pleased to grace it with a particular esteem clothing therewith wisdom virtue and conscience Foolish and sordid guise In his masterful essays Michel de Montaigne eschews the typical distancing required of the authorial voice in order to investigate public matters through a personal lens As the subject of his own musings he provides both a stirring self portrait and an invaluable new voice that will resonate throughout Western literature Unlike the Enlightenment thinkers who would follow in his footsteps Montaigne is skeptical of the possibility of human certainty and takes an ethical stand against the European colonial project in the Americas and elsewhere At times serious at others tongue in cheek his wide ranging topics include conscience politics sorrow solitude fear friendship war and poetry The Essays of Michel de Montaigne were written at a crossroads in human history between Renaissance and Enlightenment Catholicism and Protestantism Montaigne argues that to look outward requires we first look within and that the quest for happiness requires us to accept what we cannot know With a beautifully designed cover and professionally typeset manuscript this edition of The Essays of Michel de Montaigne is a classic of French philosophy reimagined for modern readers

The Works of Michael de Montaigne Michel de Montaigne, 1851 A French Song Companion Graham Johnson, Richard Stokes, 2002 The French Song Companion is the most comprehensive book of French music in any language The great accompanist Graham Johnson a noted authority of song provides repertoire guides to the work of some 150 composers the majority of them from France but including British American German Spanish and Italian musicians who have written French vocal music There are major articles on such figures as Faur Duparc Debussy Ravel and Poulenc substantial articles on Bizet Chabrier Gounod Chausson Hahn and Satie and reassessments of such composers as Massenet Koechlin and Leguerney A host of less celebrated figures who have contributed to the genre take their place in a book which is both informative and entertaining The biographical articles are supplemented by the song translations of Richard Stokes some 700 in all and a veritable treasury of great French poetry from the fifteenth to the twentieth centuries These stand in their own right as indispensable to music lovers concert goers and professional singers and their accompanists This is a book which not only reflects the repertoire as found in today's concert halls but also encourages performers and armchair enthusiasts to explore the neglected highways and biways of an endlessly fascinating and highly civilised body of music
