Modern Skeletons In Postmodern Closets A Cultural Studies Alternative:

Modern Skeletons in Postmodern Closets James J. Sosnoski, 1995 Modern Skeletons takes us on a lively trip from the New Criticism to cyberspace For James Sosnoski literary criticism is always a reading of cultures and becomes indeed a form of culture building critics as storytellers not as scientists Introducing Cultural and Media Studies Tony Thwaites, Lloyd Davis, Warwick Mules, 2018-08-18 This core textbook offers a concise direct and easy to use introduction to how semiotics can be employed to understand culture It adopts a practical and versatile approach to cultural analysis beginning not with an abstract body of theory but with a number of examples of social sign use which are examined critically using basic semiotic terms and concepts to build up the reader's analytic vocabulary in a practical way This book is designed to be read in several ways First of all it offers a structured approach to its subject with successive chapters reconsidering and building upon issues raised in earlier chapters The layout of the text supports alternative pathways through the material however Written principally with the undergraduate student reader in mind this is the essential research tool for students and lecturers It is the ideal international starting point for a very wide range of courses both in cultural and media studies and related subjects such as film studies literature and sociology Interdisciplinarity Joe Moran, 2002 The New Critical Idiom is a series of introductory guides to current critical terminology Each volume provides a guide to the use and abuse of terms related to literary studies with an accent on clarity and lively debate (Con)Fusing Signs and Postmodern Positions Robert Neustadt, 2012-06-12 Foregrounding a strategy of experimental techniques which Neustadt call con fusing signs the book explores critical and political dimensions of contemporary Spanish American artistic practices that are often explained away in the vague name of postmodern fragmentation Con Fusing Signs explores the techniques consequences and purposes for this type of fragmentation This study reassesses the much discussed crisis of representation through an analysis of the complexity of political critique in areas as diverse and related as postmodernity military dictatorship and postcolonialism This book explores the manner in which multimedia artists Diamela Eltit Alejandro Jodorowsky and Guillermo Gmez Pea articulate political critiques through textual con fusion while paradoxically underscoring their inability to get outside of discourse Tenured Bosses and Disposable Teachers , Tenured Bosses and Disposable Teachers Writing Instruction in the Managed University exposes the poor working conditions of contingent composition faculty and explores practical alternatives to the unfair labor practices that are all too common on campuses today Editors Marc Bousquet Tony Scott and Leo Parascondola bring together diverse perspectives from pragmatism to historical materialism to provide a perceptive and engaging examination of the nature extent and economics of the managed labor problem in composition instruction a field in which as much as ninety three percent of all classes are taught by graduate students adjuncts and other disposable teachers These instructors enjoy few benefits meager wages little or no participation in departmental governance and none of the rewards and protections that encourage innovation and research And it is from this disenfranchised position that literacy workers are expected to provide some of the core instruction in nearly everyone's higher education experience. Twenty-six contributors explore a range of real-world solutions to managerial domination of the composition workplace from traditional academic unionism to ensemble movement activism and the pragmatic rhetoric accommodations and resistances practiced by teachers in their daily lives. Contributors are Leann Bertoncini, Marc Bousquet, Christopher Carter, Christopher Ferry, David Downing, Amanda Godley, Robin Truth Goodman, Bill Hendricks, Walter Jacobsohn, Ruth Kiefson, Paul Lauter, Donald Lazere, Eric Marshall, Randy Martin, Richard Ohmann, Leo Parascondola, Steve Parks, Gary Rhoades, Eileen Schell, Tony Scott, William Thelin, Jennifer Seibel Trainor, Donna Strickland, William Vaughn, Ray Watkins, and Katherine Wills.

Knowledge Economy, Development and the Future of Higher Education Michael A. Peters, 2007-01-01. Prophetically almost thirty years ago Jean-François Lyotard forecast the end of the modern research university based on Enlightenment principles. He envisaged the emergence of technical institutes in the service of the information-rich global multinationals. This book reflects on the post-war Western university and its discourses charting the crisis of the concept of the modern university. First it examines the university within a global networked economy; second it adopts poststructuralist perspectives in epistemology, politics, and ethics to appraise the role of the contemporary university; third it introduces the notion of development in a critical fashion as a way of explaining its potentially new regional and international learning roles; fourth it analyzes the rise of global science and the disciplines in the context of the global economy; and finally it raises Lyotard's logic of performativity and the assessment of research quality within a neoliberal economy, linking it firmly to the question of freedom and the republic of science.

Rhetoric and Writing Studies in the New Century Cheryl Glenn, Roxanne Mountford, 2017-07-17. This collection of essays investigates the historiography of rhetoric, global perspectives on rhetoric, and the teaching of writing and rhetoric offering diverse viewpoints Addressing four major areas of research in rhetoric and writing studies contributors consider authorship and audience discuss the context and material conditions in which students compose cover the politics of the field and the value of a rhetorical education and reflect on contemporary trends in canon diversification Providing both retrospective and prospective assessments Rhetoric and Writing Studies in the New Century offers original research by important figures in the field

Under the Cover of Kindness Leslie Margolin,1997 In Under the Cover of Kindness Leslie Margolin looks at how this country's social welfare system developed and with what results From his detailed examination of social work texts primarily case histories he argues persuasively that social work disguises its own assumptions and claims to power as a way of further legitimizing its actions By attending to these case histories Margolin shows how social work entails not only the intrusion into the previously private space of the home but also the constant justification of this intervention to both clients and workers themselves as representing charitable and disinterested help This book critically assesses how social workers invent themselves as they simultaneously invent their field of knowledge

Transforming English Studies Lori Ostergaard,Jeff Ludwig,2009-02-23 Transforming English Studies provides a uniquely interdisciplinary view of English studies crises both real and imagined and works toward resolving the legitimate pathologies that threaten the sustainability of the discipline

Situating Composition Ede, Lisa,2004 Responding to a growing pedagogical paralysis in debates over the nature and status of composition studies as an academic discipline Lisa Ede offers a provocative inquiry into the politics of composition's place in the academy The result is a timely and engaging reflection on the rhetoric ideology and ethics of scholarship and instruction in composition studies today

Disciplining English David R. Shumway,Craig Dionne,2002-07-17 Offers historical and present day perspectives on what English departments do and how and why they do it

The Knowledge Contract David B. Downing,2005-01-01 The Knowledge Contract intervenes in the ongoing debates about the changing conditions of higher education in America with a special focus on English studies and the humanities This highly original study integrates three crucial concerns the economic restructuring of higher education the transformation of disciplinary models of teaching and research and the rise of the academic labor movement Whereas most contemporary critiques of higher education have focused on the impact of global economic forces The Knowledge Contract adds a new dimension to the discussion by addressing the tensions between disciplinary and nondisciplinary forms of academic work David B Downing draws on several traditions of scholarship histories of the university sociological studies of education critiques of disciplinary and interdisciplinary forms of work histories of academic capitalism and the labor movement and field specific analyses of the history of English studies Building on his analysis Downing develops alternative possibilities to the dominance of disciplinary forms of labor and offers scenarios for creating more equitable working and learning conditions for faculty and students

The Institution of Literature Jeffrey J. Williams,Professor of English and of Literary and Cultural Studies Jeffrey J Williams,2002-01-01 Leading voices in literary and cultural studies examine the study of literature at the college level including the fate of theory the rise of cultural studies the academic star system and the difficult job market Crossing Boundaries Julie Thompson Klein,1996 An interdisciplinary approach to knowledge

Teaching Literary Research Kathleen A. Johnson,Steven Robert Harris,2009 Disciplining Old Age Stephen Katz,1996 The conference was organized cooperatively with the Surface Engineering Division of the ASM and as part of Materials Week and so was attended by a wider range of scientists from academia and engineers from industry than usual Funding cuts affecting travel budgets in many institutions however reduced the overall number those who were not able to attend can begin saving for the proceedings The 43 papers cover ultrahard coatings surface treatment and alternative processes corrosion resistant coatings characterizing coatings the surface engineering of powders laser processing vapor deposition and plasma methods and thermal spray coating and coatings for composites Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Affiliations Jeffrey R. Di Leo,2003-01-01 It s not what you know but who you know It s not what you do but where you do it Underlying such facile assertions there lies at least a little truth and for academics a complex web of relationships Academic affiliations confer value and identity on individuals disciplines and institutions They have a formative and formidable role in determining the status and self image of academics and institutions The subtleties and implications of such a system in personal and professional terms are the subject of this timely and thought provoking volume Here writers from all walks of academic life interweave personal experiences and critical insights to reveal the inner workings of affiliation in contemporary academic culture These essays take up topics ranging from scholars attitudes toward their affiliated institutions to publishing in academic journals from the phenomenon of the academic star system to activism among tenured professors from the perils of crossing disciplinary boundaries to the merits of mentoring through affiliation Together they offer a frank firsthand view of the ways and means and the uses and abuses of affiliation in higher education today a view that is sure to provoke discussion throughout academia Passions Pedagogies and 21st Century Technologies Gail Hawisher,Cynthia L. Selfe,1999 Gail Hawisher and Cynthia Selfe created a volume that set the agenda in the field of computers and composition scholarship for a decade The technology changes that scholars of composition studies faced as the new century opened couldn t have been more deserving of passionate study While we have always used technologies e g the pencil to communicate with each other the electronic technologies we now use have changed the world in ways that we have yet to identify or appreciate fully Likewise the study of language and literate exchange even our understanding of terms like literacy text and visual has changed beyond recognition challenging even our capacity to articulate them As Hawisher Selfe and their contributors engage these challenges and explore their importance they find themselves engaged in the messy contradictory and fascinating work of understanding how to live in a new world and a new century The result is a broad deep and rewarding anthology of work still among the standard works of computers and composition study

Feminisms Robyn R. Warhol,Diane Price Herndl,1997 In the landmark 1991 edition of Feminisms Robyn Warhol and Diane Price Herndl assembled the most comprehensive collection of American and British feminist literary criticism ever to be published. In this revised edition the editors have updated the volume in keeping with the expanded parameters of feminist literary discourse. With the inclusion of more than two dozen new essays along with a major reorganization of the sections in which they appear, Warhol and Price Herndl have again established the measure for representing the latest developments in the field of feminist literary theory. Believing that the feminist movement can only move forward where difference commands attention, not dismissal or negativism, they have continued the original collection's mission of providing a multiplicity of perspectives and approaches. This anthology contains three new sections: Conflict, Gaze, and Practice, and includes more selections by and about women of color and lesbians. Aimed at academics and the general public alike, this collection is an indispensable guide to the range of practice on campus today in the field of feminist literary criticism.
