Backscheider, 2005-12-31 Co Winner James Russell Lowell Prize Modern Language Association This major study offers a broad view of the writing and careers of eighteenth century women poets casting new light on the ways in which poetry was read and enjoyed on changing poetic tastes in British culture and on the development of many major poetic genres and traditions Rather than presenting a chronological survey Paula R Backscheider explores the forms in which women wrote and the uses to which they put those forms Considering more than forty women in relation to canonical male writers of the same era she concludes that women wrote in all of the genres that men did but often adapted revised and even created new poetic kinds from traditional forms Backscheider demonstrates that knowledge of these women's poetry is necessary for an accurate and nuanced literary history Within chapters on important canonical and popular verse forms she gives particular attention to such topics as women's use of religious poetry to express candid ideas about patriarchy and rape the continuing evolution and important role of the supposedly antiquarian genre of the friendship poetry same sex desire in elegy by women as well as by men and the status of Charlotte Smith as a key figure of the long eighteenth century not only as a Romantic era poet Women Poets and Urban Aestheticism A. Vadillo, 2005-09-08 This book re-examines cultural social geographical and philosophical representations of Victorian London by looking at the transformations in urban life produced by the rise and development of urban mass transport It also radically re-addresses the questions of epistemology and gender in the Victorian metropolis by mapping the epistemology of the passenger Vadillo focuses on the lyric urban writings of Amy Levy Alice Meynell Graham R Tomson Rosamund Marriott Watson and Michael Field Katherine Bradley and Edith Cooper Shortlisted for the ESSE Book Prize Renaissance Women Poets Aemilia Lanyer, Isabella Whitney, Mary Sidney, 2001-01-25 Whitney's two volumes of verse miscellany Sweet Nosegay 1573 and The Copy of a Letter 1567 were part of a literary trend of combining classical and Biblical references with popular and vernacular sources and reflect the growing literary appetites of the urban population As well a selection of her original poetry this volume includes Sidney s version of the Psalms of David and Petrarch s Triumph of Death Lanyer s poetry is devotional and is the most single minded and explicit in its advocacy of female spirituality and virtue Included here are Salve Deus Rex Judaeorum and The Description of Cooke ham British Women Poets of the Long Eighteenth Century Paula R. Backscheider, Catherine E. Ingrassia, 2009-10-30 This anthology gathers 368 poems by 80 British women poets of the long eighteenth century Few of these poems have been reprinted since originally published and all are crucial to understanding fully the literary history of women writers Paula R Backscheider and Catherine E Ingrassia demonstrate the enormous diversity of poetry produced during this time by organizing the poems in three broad and deliberately overlapping categories by genre establishing that women wrote in all of the forms that men did with equal mastery and creativity by theme offering a revisionary look at the range of topics these writers addressed including war ecology friendship religion and the stages of life and by the poems more specific focus on the women s experiences as writers Backscheider and Ingrassia have selected poems that represent the best work of skilled poets creating a wonderful mix of canonical and little known pieces They include the complete texts of longer poems that are abridged or omitted in other collections Their substantial part introductions textual notes bibliographical information and biographical sketches situate the poets and their writings within the cultural and political milieu in which they appeared To generate further scholarship on this subject this essential anthology puts primary texts in front of students scholars and general readers It fills the persistent need to document women s poetic expression during the long eighteenth century and to rewrite the literary history of the period a history from which women have largely been excluded Early Modern Women's Manuscript Poetry Jill Seal Millman, Gillian Wrigth, 2005-05-20 Early modern women s manuscript poetry is an anthology of texts by fourteen women poets writing between 1589 and 1706 It is the only currently available anthology of early modern women s writing which focuses exclusively on manuscript material Authors include Mary Sidney Lucy Hutchinson and Katherine Philips central figures in the emerging canon of early modern women writers but whose work appears in a fresh and very different light in the manuscript context emphasised by this anthology The volume also includes substantial excerpts from a recently discovered verse paraphrase of Genesis thought to be by the previously unknown seventeenth century writer Mary Roper as well as selections from the unjustly neglected poet Hester Pulter Mina Loy, Twentieth-Century Photography, and Contemporary Women Poets Linda A.
