Modern Romanian:

The Making of Modern Romanian Culture Alex Drace-Francis, 2005-11-23 How do literacy and the development of literary culture promote the development of a national identity This well researched and readable book explores the rise of Romanian language literary educational and printing institutions in the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries bringing out a story that has not been fully explored in English In twenty concise yet scholarly chapters Alex Drace Francis builds on and engages with current knowledge about print culture modernization national identity and state formation to make an original contribution to ongoing debates in these areas

Modern Romanian Poetry Nicholas Catanoy, 1977

Contemporary Romanian Cinema Dominique Nasta, 2013-11-12 Over the last decade audiences worldwide have become familiar with highly acclaimed films from the Romanian New Wave such as 4 Months 3 Weeks and 2 Days 2007 The Death of Mr Lazarescu 2005 and 12 08 East of Bucharest 2006 However the hundred or so years of Romanian cinema leading to these accomplishments have been largely overlooked This book is the first to provide in depth analyses of essential works ranging from the silent period to contemporary productions In addition to relevant information on historical and cultural factors influencing contemporary Romanian cinema this volume covers the careers of daring filmmakers who approached various genres despite fifty years of Communist censorship An important chapter is dedicated to Lucian Pintilie whose seminal work Reconstruction 1969 strongly inspired Romania's 21st century innovative output The book's second half closely examines both the minimalist trend Cristian Mungiu Cristi Puiu Corneliu Porumboiu Radu Muntean and the younger but no less inspired directors who have chosen to go beyond the 1989 revolution paradigm by dealing with the complexities of contemporary Romania

Modern Romanian Poetry Mihai Drăgan, 1973

Romanian Modernism Luminita Machedon, Ernest Rowland Scoffham, 1999 Modern architecture flourished in Romania between the two World Wars and is still visible as a neglected and almost forgotten past amid the contradictions of present day Bucharest Much of the text is based on archival research in Bucharest

The Oxford History of Romanian Morphology Martin Maiden, Adina Dragomirescu, Gabriela Pană Dindelegan, Rodica Zafiu, 2021 This book offers the first comprehensive account of the development of the complex morphological system of Romanian It shows how the controversial origins of many of the distinctive morphological features of the language have important implications for broader historical Romance linguistics and indeed for morphological theory more generally

Contemporary East European Poetry Emery Edward George, 1993 An anthology featuring 160 poets writing in 15 languages By the standards of Western Europe the subjects are heavy on social and political issues which only reflects the difference between the two Europes

Romania United States. Department of State, 1980

Unraveling the complexity of SE Grant Armstrong, Jonathan E. MacDonald, 2021-05-22 This book makes a novel contribution to our understanding of Romance SE constructions by combining both diachronic and synchronic theoretical perspectives along with a range of empirical data from different languages and dialects The collection divided into four sections proposes that SE constructions may be divided into one class that is the result of grammaticalization of a reflexive pronoun up the syntactic tree from Voice and above and another class that has resulted from the reanalysis of reflexive and anticausative morphemes as an argument expletive or verbal morpheme generated in positions from Voice and below The contributions while varied in both empirical content and theoretical approach all serve to highlight different aspects of the overarching idea that SE constructions have evolved from these two distinct grammaticalization paths The book appeals to researchers and academics in the field and closes with a unified approach to various SE constructions that makes important use of its status as a verbal morpheme In addition to aligning a novel string of empirical contributions under a new theoretical umbrella a clear research direction emerges from this volume based on the morphosyntactic nature of SE itself Is it a clitic an agreement morpheme or a verbal morpheme

The Orthodox Church and National Identity in Post-Communist Romania Adrian Velicu, 2020-08-17 This book explores the Romanian Orthodox Church's arguments on national identity to legitimize its own place in a post communist Romania The work traces the clergy's deployment of the concepts of Christian Orthodoxy and Latin legacy as part of an uncharted constellation of arguments in contemporary intellectual history A survey of public intellectuals' opinions on national identity complements the Church's views The investigation attempts to offer an insight into the Church's efforts to reassert itself given free rein in a post dictatorial world of accelerated modernization After clarifying and surveying the Church's claims on institutional and national identity the book then also explores the secular ideas on the subject The subsequent analysis treats this material as speech acts statements doing not only saying something which are occasionally out of sync Against a background of secularization the Church's rhetoric articulates a distinct line of thought in the post 89 intellectual landscape

Landform Dynamics and Evolution in Romania Maria Radoane, Alfred Vespremeanu-Stroe, 2016-09-01 New and innovative scientific theories discussion and explanations are presented on landform dynamics and evolution in Romania along with a comprehensive understanding of the geomorphological processes shaping the large variety of Romania's landscape Thematically arranged the book deals with landform dynamics of specific relief types glacial and periglacial denudational fluvio denudational fluvial karst and coasts as well as sediment fluxes geomorphic hazards and risks The authors are key scientists and researchers in the field and offer innovative views on research methods and concepts applied to the topics in question This work will be of interest to students and researchers in geography geomorphology geology environmental science paleoclimatology and soil science as well as policy and decision makers in spatial planning

Romania, 1973 Nested Identities Guntram Henrik Herb, David H. Kaplan, 1999 This groundbreaking work explores the vital importance of territory and space to any genuine understanding of nationalism and identity Too often the contributors argue national identity is analyzed apart from the lands that are integral to its formation as territory is seen as a commodity to be brokered rather than as central to a group's self definition This volume combines theoretical insights with structured case studies on how national identity manifests itself in space and at different geographical scales      World and Its Peoples ,2010 Incorporates every conceivable focus of interest from holidays to health care national anthems to gross national product natural resources ethnic groups voting age performing arts provincial capitals leaders of the past and present native plants and animals and far more Newly commissioned political and geophysical maps represent past and present realities The thirteen volumes of this set examine the 50 countries dependencies and states of the European continent putting into perspective this enormously influential center of commerce and culture      Beyond Imagined Uniqueness William Glass,2010-08-11 Beyond Imagined Uniqueness Nationalisms in Comparative Perspectives is a collection of essays from a variety of disciplines and theoretical perspectives that explore the contentious issue of nationalism in historical and contemporary settings They adopt an interdisciplinary approach to the topic of nationalism and its permutations and modes of expression The unspoken context of these essays is the trends subsumed under the processes of globalization Though the world may be becoming more integrated economically these essays suggest social cultural and political forces historically rooted keep the nation and national identity alive and well The comparative perspectives offered by the essays appear in two ways one set is the explicit comparisons of nations made by several authors within their essays and between the essays themselves when the authors focus on developments within a single nation A second and indeed more thought provoking set of comparisons come from the way the essays address nationalism in disparate scholarly approaches that include visual culture history sociology and literature Moreover while traditional themes in the study of nationalism are not ignored these essays expand the discussion with case studies of nationalism in Turkey Asia and Eastern Europe Even when nationalism is considered in those areas that have been the central focus of nationalism studies Western Europe and the USA the authors bring unique voices to the conversation as in the use of portraiture as a vehicle of nationalism in Cold War America or children s literature shaping a Swedish American identity or in the idea of a covenant as a source of Dutch nationalism or the role of minority languages in West European societies Section One of this volume contains essays that examine the terrain of the national imaginary through language monuments and visual culture Several of the essays in this traverse the cultural sites of representation and commemoration of the nation looking carefully at the politics of memory in places material objects and texts Section Two provides more individual case studies of nations though many of these essays engage significant regional and international tensions especially in a post Cold War world that has often influenced the internal dynamics of nation building Section Three moves the focus away from the nation to immigrant communities especially those in the United States Canada and the Caribbean Diasporas throughout the world have challenged many theories about the nation as crossing borders becomes the norm rather the exception      Romania's Holy War Grant T. Harward,2021-11-15 Romania s Holy War rights the widespread myth that Romania was a reluctant member of the Axis during World War II In correcting this fallacy Grant T Harward shows that of an estimated 300 000 Jews who perished in Romania and Romanian occupied Ukraine more than 64 000 were in fact killed by Romanian soldiers Moreover the Romanian Army conducted a brutal campaign in German occupied Ukraine resulting in the deaths of thousands of Soviet prisoners of war partisans and civilians Investigating why Romanian soldiers fought and committed such atrocities Harward argues that strong ideology a cocktail of nationalism religion antisemitism and anticommunism undergirded their motivation Romania s Holy War draws on official military records wartime periodicals soldiers diaries and memoirs subsequent war crimes investigations and recent interviews with veterans to tell the full story Harward integrates the Holocaust into the narrative of military operations to show that most soldiers fully supported the wartime dictator General Ion Antonescu and his regime s holy war against Judeo Bolshevism The army perpetrated mass reprisals targeting Jews in liberated Romanian territory supported the deportation and concentration of Jews in camps or ghettos in Romanian occupied Soviet territory and played a key supporting role in SS efforts to exterminate Jews in German occupied Soviet territory Harward proves that Romania became Nazi Germany s most important ally in the war against the USSR because its soldiers were highly motivated thus overturning much of what we thought we knew about this theater of war Romania s Holy War provides the first complete history of why Romanian soldiers fought on the Eastern Front

Memories of Empire and Entry into International Society Filip Ejdus, 2017-06-14 What is the role of memories for the expansion of international society By drawing on the English School approach to International Relations this edited volume argues that the memories of empire and suzerainty are key to understanding sociological aspects of the expansion of anarchical society The expert contributors adopt a socio historic conceptualization of entry into international society aiming to move beyond the legalist analysis and also explore the impact of identity constructions and collective memories on the expansion of international society Empirically the volume investigates the entry into international society of Belarus Bulgaria Greece Poland Serbia Slovakia and Romania and studies memories that they activated along the way While these memoirs of bygone polities were used by state builders to make sense of international society and legitimise claims of the new entrants they inadvertently also generated tensions and anxieties which in many ways persist until this day Both the theoretical angle and the empirical material presented in this volume are novel additions to the growing body of knowledge in historical International Relations Exploring how memories and experiences of the past still complicate the entrants positions in international society and to what degree ensuing tensions remain today this volume will be of interest to students and scholars of European International Relations particularly those with a focus on Eastern Europe

Religion and Politics in Post-Communist Romania Lavinia Stan, Lucian Turcescu, 2007-10-25 Stan and Turcescu examine the complex relationship between church and state in the new Romania providing analysis in key areas church collaboration with communist authorities post communist electoral politics nationalism and ethno politics and religious education among other areas

Moldova Marcin Kosienkowski, William Schreiber, 2012-05-08 Moldova Arena of International Influences brings international perspective to Moldova s foreign relations since its independence from the Soviet Union in 1991 Eighteen chapters analyze the policy toward Moldova of selected international actors Belarus Bulgaria China the Czech Republic and Slovakia the European Union Germany Hungary Italy Lithuania Poland Romania Russia Turkey Ukraine the United Kingdom the United States and the unrecognized breakaway state of Transnistria For these international actors Moldova functions as an arena of influences a sphere of intersecting interests activities and occasionally competition For the first time leading experts and practitioners from many of the countries engaged in Moldova are brought together in a common language The result is a detailed map of the international political landscape in Moldova a chronicle of the past two decades and a forecast of the country's future

Habsburg Galicia and the Romanian Kingdom Raluca Goleşteanu-Jacobs, 2023-12-01 This comparative attempt intended for postgraduates and scholars of Eastern Central Europe investigates the political economic and cultural landscape of Habsburg Galicia and the Romanian Kingdom in the second half of the 19th century Often in historiography and in the public sphere alike the two cases under study have been separately regarded as contexts that provided atypical answers to modernity and parts of a region that has been regarded as atypical in itself Recently efforts have been made to integrate each of the cases in a post imperial paradigm identifying the complex interactions between their socio political modernisation and historical memory This book continues this trend by investigating for the first time the two cases together as parts of a space of alterity as labs of shifting ideologies and labels The public figures and the institutions depicted in the book are physically located in Central and in Eastern Europe but by sometimes competing experiences they are illustrative for several identities and historical realms local regional and continental Secondly the current work addresses dilemmas related to Nationalism and nation building for the sake of separating those discourses which reflected on civic nationalism from those which directed the public mind to the values of ethnic nationalism
