Modern Short Stories To 1940:

Modern Short Stories to 1940 John Hadfield, 1984-01-01 The Short Story and the First World War Ann-Marie Einhaus, 2013-07-31 Covering a range of topics settings and styles the book offers the first comprehensive study of short fiction from the First World War The 1940s: A Decade of Modern British Fiction Philip Tew, Glyn White, 2022-02-24 How did social cultural and political events concerning Britain during the 1940s reshape modern British fiction During the Second World War and in its aftermath British literature experienced and recorded drastic and decisive changes to old certainties Moving from potential invasion and defeat to victory the creation of the welfare state and a new Cold war threat the pace of historical change seemed too rapid and monumental for writers to match Consequently the 1940s were often side lined in literary accounts as a dividing line between periods and styles Drawing on more recent scholarship and research this volume surveys and analyses this period s fascinating diversity from novels of the Blitz and the Navy to the rise of important new voices with its contributors exploring the work of influential women Commonwealth exiled genre avant garde and queer writers A major critical re evaluation of the intriguing decade this book offers substantial chapters on Elizabeth Bowen Graham Greene and George Orwell as well as covering such writers as Jocelyn Brooke Monica Dickens James Hadley Chase Patrick Hamilton Gerald Kersh Daphne Du Maurier Mary Renault Denton Welch and many others Modern Short Stories , 1991 A Printing History of Everyman's Library 1906-1982 Terry Seymour, 2011 The total number of Everyman s Library volumes that still survive somewhere in the world exceeds 70 million Since the inception of the Library in 1906 nearly 1200 unique volumes have been published constantly placing the world s greatest books before a large public A few of these titles proved unpopular and were never reprinted But most were reprinted dozens of times packaged in numerous ways and benefited from updated editorial work and book design over the last century Terry Seymour has studied and researched every aspect of this great mass of books He now captures and distills this knowledge in A Printing History of Everyman s Library 1906 1982 A critical feature of course is to update the various collecting factoids that have emerged since 2005 when his Guide to Collecting Everyman s Library was published The meat of the new book however is the Bibliographical Entries section Each volume that has ever been printed receives its own entry detailing every printing each dust jacket variation any new introductions updated scarcity numbers and all relevant notes Typically an entry contains at least six lines of information but often much more In essence each entry is a story written exclusively about each volume Armed with this resource collectors and booksellers can know reliably everything about the Everyman s Library volume that sits on their shelf or is ready to be purchased or sold They will see how a book fits into the total printing history of that title and be able to describe and value the book with precision To further enhance the value of this book color images illustrate all of the key collecting points An extensive index of editors translators and artists is now included Not just a solo effort the Printing History has been vetted by other expert collectors ensuring greater accuracy and comprehensiveness 150 Great Short Stories Aileen M.

Carroll, 1989 Saves time in preparing team activities and assessments Includes story synopsis teaching suggestions quiz and answer key Note The short stories are not included in this publication The Collected Stories of Caroline Gordon

Caroline Gordon, 2009-05-26 This complete collection of short fiction by Caroline Gordon captures the nuances of life in the American South focusing on traditions social habits and the land itself Caroline Gordon 1895 1981 was the author of nine novels two short story collections and two works of criticism She was the recipient of a Guggenheim Fellowship and a winner of the O Henry Award Her Collected Stories was a New York Times Notable Book of the Year Modern Short Fiction of Southeast Asia

Teri Shaffer Yamada, 2009 A CHOICE Outstanding Academic Title Modern Short Fiction of Southeast Asia surveys the historical and cultural significance of modern short fiction in nine Southeast Asian nations Laos Cambodia Myanmar Burma Singapore Malaysia Indonesia the Philippines Thailand and Vietnam Written in an accessible style without jargon this book will be of great interest to students of modern literature and general readers interested in Southeast Asia as well as scholars of East and South Asia who wish to compare the literary developments of those areas to Southeast Asia The interdisciplinary approach suggests that literature has made a significant contribution to the social and political history of the region and the authors address topics of significance to scholars of numerous disciplines including anthropology cultural studies history literature political science and sociology The Short Story

Valerie Shaw, 2014-07-21 Throughout this text Valerie Shaw addresses two key questions What are the special satisfactions afforded by reading short stories and How are these satisfactions derived from each story's literary techniques and narrative strategies She then attempts to answer these questions by drawing on stories from different periods and countries by authors who were also great novelists like Henry James Flaubert Kafka and D H Lawrence by authors who specifically dedicated themselves to the art of the short story like Kipling Chekhov and Katherine Mansfield by contemporary practitioners like Angela Carter and Jorge Luis Borges and by unfairly neglected writers like Sarah Orne Jewett and Joel Chandler Harris Henry Handel Richardson Vol 2 Edited By Clive Probyn and Bruce Steele, 2013-07-17 The publication of Henry Handel Richardson's correspondence will be a major event in Australian scholarly publishing It will be the first time any Australian literary writer has had his/her correspondence published in its entirety The letters of Henry Handel Richardson deposited in the National Library of Australia in Canberra and in the Mitchell Library in Sydney were opened to unrestricted access after a fifty year period of closed access The executrix of the HHR estate has determined however that none of the letters may be published in whole or in part until after Probyn and Steele's edition of the complete correspondence has been released At present there are approximately 1800 unpublished manuscript letters to and from HHR of which at least 1000 are in her own hand They form a correspondence between Australia England Germany Italy and the USA for the period 1874 to 1946 Within the total number there are two quite distinct and major sub groups the first 1910 14 being a collection of both sides of the correspondence between HHR and the French translator of Maurice Guest Paul Solanges the second 1911 46 letters between HHR and Mary

A Kernot of Melbourne As well as the letters held in the National and Mitchell libraries the editors possess an entire sequence of letters from William Heinemann to HHR and her husband John George Robertson detailing the publication history of Ultima Thule the final volume of The Fortunes of Richard Mahoney the trilogy which cemented her international reputation They are adding to the collection almost monthly but have reason to believe that about 90% of the extant letters are now in their possession The letters as might be expected shed much new light on HHR s biography her artistic methods her personal life her friendships and antagonisms her response to Australian readers and to expatriation and her efforts to maintain a literary life apart from her personal life The series includes HHR s earliest letter her student days in Leipzig the publication of Maurice Guest The Getting of Wisdom The Fortunes of Richard Mahoney The End of a Childhood and The Young Cosima and her experience of life in wartime England Some of the most vivid letters describe her schooldays the biographical context for The Getting of Wisdom her memories of the Australian bush her relationship with Vance and Nettie Palmer her meetings with Miles Franklin her views on contemporary writing and life in wartime England In particular the letters to and from Solanges are packed with information about the writing the autobiographical roots and the meaning of Maurice Guest The letters to Kernot provide constant linkages between life in England and Australia during the most formative period for modern Australian literature including the negotiations for HHR s Nobel Prize nomination

Contemporary Short Stories from Central America Enrique Jaramillo Levi,1994-01-01 In Metaphors Samuel Rovinski Costa Rica shows how a writer s superficial attempt to interpret experience metaphorically cripples him in social circumstances while in Gloria Wouldn t Wait Panamanian Jaime Garcia Saucedo focuses on the egotism of the writer s imagination as it tries to convert the tragedies of everyday life into some kind of literary document whose artistic qualities would belie their actual reality Human and humane values in the face of adversity are celebrated throughout even when seemingly futile in the midst of overwhelming odds Contemporary Short Stories from Central America embraces every aspect of the human condition addressed by the literature of the Western world and demonstrates the cultural vitality of our Central American neighbors BOOK JACKET The Penguin Book of Modern British Short Stories Malcolm Bradbury,1988-02-25 This anthology is in many ways a best of the best containing gems from thirty four of Britain s outstanding contemporary writers It is a book to dip into to read from cover to cover to lend to friends and read again It includes stories of love and crime stories touched with comedy and the supernatural stories set in London Los Angeles Bucharest and Tokyo Above all as you will discover it satisfies Samuel Butler s anarchic pleasure principle I should like to like Schumann s music better than I do I daresay I could make myself like it better if I tried but I do not like having to try to make myself like things I like things that make me like them at once and no trying at all The Cambridge Companion to the American Short Story Michael J. Collins,Gavin Jones,2023-05-25 This Companion offers students and scholars a comprehensive introduction to the development and the diversity of the American short story as a literary form from its origins in the eighteenth century to the present day Rather than define what the short story is as a genre or defend its importance in comparison with the novel this Companion seeks to understand what the short story does how it moves through national space how it is always related to other genres and media and how its inherent mobility responds to the literary marketplace and resonates with key critical themes in contemporary literary studies The chapters offer authoritative introductions and reinterpretations of a literary form that has re emerged as a major force in the twenty first century public sphere dominated by the Internet British Short-fiction Writers, 1915-1945 John Headley Rogers,1996 Essays on authors of the short story that had its origins in the mid nineteenth century and reached its maturity in England in the twentieth century The modern British short story grew slowly following by nearly fifty years the origins of this form in the United States France and Russia Discusses why several features of nineteenth century English life may have delayed the development of this literary form Henry Handel

Richardson Vol 1 Probyn, Clive,Steele, Bruce,2013-07-17 This three volume set marks the first time any Australian literary writer has had his her correspondence published in its entirety The letters of Henry Handel Richardson were opened in March 1996 to unrestricted access but none of the letters may be published until this edition of the complete correspondence has been released At present there are approximately 1800 unpublished manuscript letters to and from HHR which form a correspondence between Australia England German Italy and the USA for the period 1874 to 1946 The letters shed much new light on HHR s biography her artistic methods her personal life her friendships and antagonisms her response to Australian readers and to expatriation and her efforts to maintain a literary life apart from her personal life They include HHR s earliest letter and trace her student days in Leipzig the publication of Maurice Guest The Getting of Wisdom The Fortunes of Richard Mahoney The End of a Childhood and The Young Cosima and her experience of life in wartime England Some of the most vivid letters describe her schooldays the biographical context for The Getting of Wisdom her memories of the Australian bush her relationship with Vance and Nettie Palmer her meetings with Miles Franklin and her views on contemporary writing The letters to Mary Kernot provide constant linkages between life in England and Australia during the most formative period for modern Australian literature including the negotiations for HHR s Nobel Prize nomination The Literature of the American People Arthur Hobson Quinn,1951 Of Peninsulas and Archipelagos Phrae Chittiphalangsri,Vicente L. Rafael,2023-07-18 Comprising 11 countries and hundreds of languages from one of the most culturally diverse regions in the world the chapters in this collection explore a wide range of translation issues The subject of this volume is set in the contrasted landscapes of mainland peninsulas and maritime archipelagos in Southeast Asia which whilst remaining a largely minor area in Asian studies harbors a wealth of textual heritage that opens to inquiries and new readings From the post Angkor Cambodia the post colonial Vientiane to the ultra modern Singapore metropolis translation figures problematically in the modernization of indigenous literatures criss crossing chronologically and spatially through different literary landscapes The peninsular geo body gives rise to the politics of singularity as seen in the case of the predominant monolingual culture in Thailand whereas the archipelagic geography such as the thousand islands of Indonesia allows for peculiar types of communication Translation can also be metaphorized poetically to configure the transference in different scenarios such as the cases of self translation in Philippine protest poetry and untranslatability in Vietnamese diasporic writings The collection also includes intra regional comparative views on historical and religious terms This book will appeal to scholars and postgraduate students of translation studies sociolinguistics and Southeast Asian studies The South African Short Story in English, 1920-2010 Marta Fossati, 2024-09-05 Through detailed close readings alongside investigations into the history of print culture Marta Fossati traces the development of the South African short story in English from the late 1920s to the first decade of the twenty first century She examines a selection of short stories by important Black South African writers Rolfes and Herbert Dhlomo Peter Abrahams Can Themba Alex La Guma Mtutuzeli Matshoba Ahmed Essop and Zo Wicomb with an alertness to the dialogue between ethics and aesthetics performed by these texts This new history of Black short fiction problematises and interrogates the often polarised readings of Black literature in South Africa that can be torn between notions of literariness protest and journalism Due to material constraints short fiction in South Africa circulated first and foremost through local print media which Fossati analyses in detail to show the cross fertilisation between journalism and the short story While rooted in the South African context the short stories considered also hold a translocal dimension allowing us to explore the ethical and aesthetic practice of intertextuality These are writings that complicate the aesthetics ethics binary generic classifications and the categories of the literary and the political Theoretically eclectic in its approach although largely underpinned by a narratological analysis The South African Short Story in English 1920 2010 When Aesthetics Meets Ethics offers a fresh perspective on the South African short story in English spotlighting several hitherto marginalised figures in South African literary studies The Short Story Charles May, 2013-10-14 The short story is one of the most difficult types of prose to write and one of the most pleasurable to read From Boccaccio s Decameron to The Collected Stories of Reynolds Price Charles May gives us an understanding of the history and structure of this demanding form of fiction Beginning with a general history of the genre he moves on to focus on the nineteenth century when the modern short story began to come into focus From there he moves on to later nineteenth century realism and early twentieth century formalism and finally to the modern renaissance of the form that shows no signs of abating A chronology of significant events works and figures from the genre s history notes and references and an extensive bibliographic essay with recommended reading round out the volume Literature of the Early Twentieth Century: From the Constitutional Period to Reza Shah A. A. Seyed-Gohrab, 2015-07-22 The eleventh volume in this ground breaking series pays special attention to politically engaged poetry written during a turbulent period which saw the Constitutional Revolution in Iran as well as the rise to power of Reza Shah and his attempts to implement reform Throughout this time poets began to turn their attention towards the country s ordinary people rather than concentrate on its elites This volume also examines the prose fiction of the period which saw the rise of the novel and short story. Additionally, Persian satire began to grow in importance, especially with the increased popularity of poets and novelists such as Iraj Mirza and Sadeq Hedayat. This wide-ranging volume is an invaluable companion for anyone who wants to understand how the Persian literary scene changed at the beginning of the twentieth century, reflecting the social and political contexts in which this literature was created.
