Social Imaginaries in a Globalizing World Hans Alma,Guido Vanheeswijck,2018-08-06 How to study the contemporary dynamics between the religious the nonreligious and the secular in a globalizing world Obviously their relationship is not an empirical datum liable to the procedures of verification or of logical deduction We are in need of alternative conceptual and methodological tools This volume argues that the concept of social imaginary as it is used by Charles Taylor is of utmost importance as a methodological tool to understand these dynamics The first section is dedicated to the conceptual clarification of Taylor s notion of social imaginaries both through a historical study of their genealogy and through conceptual analysis In the second section we clarify the relation of social imaginaries to the concept of religious worldviewing understood as a process of truth seeking Furthermore we discuss the practical usefulness of the concept of social imaginaries for cultural scientists by focusing on the concept of human rights as a secular social imaginary In the third and final section we relate Taylor s view on the role of social imaginaries and the new paths it opens up for religious studies to other analyses of the secular religious divide as they nowadays mainly come to the fore in the debates on what is coined as the post secular

The Liberal Internet in the Postliberal Era Johannes Thumfart,2024-09-16 This book begins with an examination of the internet as a central institution of the post Cold War liberal order From this starting point Johannes Thumfart analyzes the contemporary rise of digital sovereignty in Asia and Europe alongside the establishment of private government within digital networks He interprets these phenomena as indications of an emerging postliberal era Thumfart engages with a wide array of empirical research and assesses liberal ideals such as state and net neutrality by discussing thinkers like Hegel Schmitt Mouffe Taylor Sandel Fukuyama Anderson Jasanoff and Girard as well as network and rational choice theories He contends that the internet s reification of liberal values has paradoxically subverted these values and catalyzed the transition to postliberalism Thumfart suggests that instead of adhering to the traditional liberal focus on neutrality states should adopt the more flexible approach of neutralization to respond to the complexities of this digital and postliberal era

Urban Mountain Waterscapes in Leh, Indian Trans-Himalaya Judith Müller,2022-11-16 The city of Leh is located in the high mountain desert of Ladakh in the Indian Himalayas and access to water has always been limited there In recent years the town has experienced high rates of urbanisation on the one hand and tourist numbers have increased exponentially on the other which has implications for the water supply of the people living there Through several years of on site research challenges on various levels were documented and current governance approaches were analysed This research forms the basis for future approaches to sustainable development

The Workers are Few J. Alexander Rutherford,2025-01-31 By all indications the Western Church is facing a crisis of pastoral ministry Pastoral ministry is on a trajectory of decline despite the fact that God has opened a massive mission field on our doorstep a mission field that requires workers Moreover we continue to export the same model of ministry to the global Church inviting them to join us in the state of crisis In Matthew 9 37 38 Jesus invites his disciples to consider the vast harvest of souls God has prepared a harvest awaiting workers If we want to see our churches healthy and our neighbours come to know Jesus we must be interested in God's work to prepare workers for the harvest This book is an attempt to repair what is broken to contribute to the repair of pastoral ministry I am convinced that no problem is more urgent to the church globally than this one yet I am also convinced the solution to this problem is quite simple This book argues that our crisis is the result of swapping the biblical vision of pastoral ministry for a poor substitute and our failure to raise disciples in our local church Part 1 identifies significant reasons why we are in a crisis Part 2 lays a biblical foundation for rebuilding a biblical model of pastoral ministry and Part 3 shows how this foundation can be built upon in the life of a local church

Time and Transformation in Architecture Tuuli Lähdesmäki, 2018-06-26 Time and Transformation in Architecture edited by Tuuli Lähdesmäki approaches architecture and the built environment from an interdisciplinary point of view by emphasizing in its theoretical discussions and empirical analysis the dimensions of time temporality and transformation and their relation to human experiences behavior and practices The volume consists of seven chapters that explore the following questions How do architectural ideas ideals and meanings emerge develop and transform How is architecture manifested in relation to time time space and the social dimensions it entails and produces The volume provides both multifaceted theoretical discussions on time and temporality in architecture and empirical case studies around the globe in which these theories and conceptualizations are tested and explored Contributors are Eiman Ahmed Elwidaa Andr van Graan June Jordaan Joongsu Kim Tuuli Lähdesmäki Assumpta Nnaggenda Musana Sanja Rode and Smaranda Spănu

The Trinity and the Bible J. Alexander Rutherford, 2022-10-14 To write on the Trinity is to enter a minefield of presuppositions presuppositions of theology exegesis grammar logic philosophy etc However at the heart of God's self-revelation in the Bible is God's tri-unity that God is three Father Son and Holy Spirit Confessional Christians would identify this claim that God is Triune as a necessary condition of true Christian faith To be Christian is to follow Christ who is the 2nd person of the Trinity Yet does following this Christ mean following the 2nd hypostasis who is eternally begotten of the Father sharing with him his ousia That is a more difficult question isn't it Indeed many faithful men and women in my life could not make heads or tails of the latter claim while worshipping and following the Christ of the former So what does it mean to be Trinitarian This book is about that question what does it mean to be a Christian who worships a triune God to be Trinitarian Is the Trinity a doctrine arrived at through second order reflection on the Biblical data several hundred years after the canon closed or is it something else Is it perhaps a presupposition about the reality of God that has shaped the Christian imagination that has shaped the framework Christians bring to the world throughout created history

Media, Margins and

Civic Agency Heather Savigny, Einar Thorsen, Daniel Jackson, Jenny Alexander, 2015-08-31 This collection brings together new research on contemporary media politics and power It explores ways and means through which media can and do empower or disempower citizens at the margins that is how they act as vehicles of or obstacles to civic agency and social change

Transnational Screen Culture in Scandinavia Pei-Sze Chow, 2021-09-28 This book explores a range of lesser known documentaries and short films from the transnational resund region released in the period 2000-2009 focusing on how this Scandinavian region's urban and maritime spaces iconic architecture and peripheral communities across Malm and Copenhagen have been imagined and critiqued through film This is the first book to widen the critical gaze beyond popular representations to examine a significant body of peripheral films produced in and about the metropolitan resund region Emerging at a time of spatial transformation and geopolitical change these films weave alternative narratives that confront the official rhetoric of transnational regionalism Offering the concept of regioscape as a way to investigate the intimate relationship between artistic representation screen policy space and the region building project this book presents new readings of films by contemporary Swedish and Danish filmmakers such as Fredrik Gertten Kolbjørn Guwallius Daniel Dencik and Max Kestner

Imagined Futures in Science, Technology and Society Gert Verschraegen, Frédéric Vandermoere, Luc Braeckmans, Barbara Segaert, 2017-04-07 Imagining forecasting and predicting the future is an inextricable and increasingly important part of the present States organizations and individuals almost continuously have to make decisions about future actions financial investments or technological innovation without much knowledge of what will exactly happen in the future Science and technology play a crucial role in this collective attempt to make sense of the future Technological developments such as nanotechnology robotics or solar energy largely shape how we dream and think about the future while economic forecasts gene tests or climate change projections help us to make images of what may possibly occur in the future This book provides one of the first interdisciplinary assessments of how scientific and technological imaginations matter in the formation of human ecological and societal futures Rooted in different disciplines such as sociology philosophy and science and technology studies it explores how various actors such as scientists companies or states imagine the future to be and act upon that imagination Bringing together case studies from different regions around the globe including the electrification of German car infrastructure or genetically modified crops in India Imagined Futures in Science Technology and Society shows how science and technology create novel forms of imagination thereby opening horizons toward alternative futures By developing central aspects of the current debate on how scientific imagination and future making interact this timely volume provides a fresh look at the complex interrelationships between science technology and society This book will be of interest to postgraduate students interested in Science and Technology Studies History and Philosophy of Science Sociology Cultural Studies Anthropology Political Sciences Future Studies and Literary Sciences

Reset the Heart Dr. Mai-Anh Le Tran, 2017-05-02 When the BlackLivesMatter protest movement burst into dynamic action following the shooting death of young Michael Brown in the fall of 2014 in Ferguson MO a good number of clergy and lay leaders in greater St Louis sprang to action and learned anew what it took to put some feet to their prayers However as improvisational efforts continued to rally and organize churches toward the enduring work of confronting the insidious violence of systemic social injustices in their own backyard these religious leaders ran head on into a familiar yet perplexing wall the incapacity and unwillingness of their faith communities to respond In many cases the resistance was and still is fierce eerily reminiscent of the stand offs that divided religious communities and leadership in the 1960s Civil Rights era If the Church s teaching learning and practice of faith is purportedly transformative then where was is that faith when it was is needed most If good religious formation had been happening or had it then why the enduring signs of indifference paralysis apathy exasperation resistance symptoms of anesthetized moral consciousness and debilitated hope in the face of pervasive social cultural violence The answer may come in a searing indictment that in an emerging cultural religious era in which religious identity expression and experience are increasingly pluralistic yet also politicized polarizing and racialized Christian faith communities even those of progressive theological persuasions are still held under dominant cultural captivity and fashioned by colonizing teaching strategies of disimagination such that the stories theologies and rituals practices of the faith have effectively become obstacles that anesthetize moral agency and debilitate courageous action for hope and change This book addresses the above practical concerns with three paradigmatic questions 1 What does it mean to educate for faith in a world marked by violence 2 How are Christian faith communities complicit in the teaching and learning of violence 3 What renewed practices of faith and educational leadership yield potential for the unlearning and unmaking of violence An organizing thesis drives the inquiry Thinking and teaching for violence resisting action as Christians requires an on purpose setting of our hearts in a world that violates and harms with impunity Against violent disimagination and its conscience numbing instruments Christian religious communities are being challenged to regenerate radical forms of prophetic protested faith the skills and instincts of which must be honed deliberately This occurs through intentional and strategic forms of public consciousness raising for the sake of participation and action an action that moves toward and is fueled by critical insurrectional resurrectional hope

Transnational Migrations in the Asia-Pacific Catherine Gomes, Brenda S. A. Yeoh, 2018-08-15 This edited collection interrogates the diversity of transnational migration experiences in the Asia Pacific through the lens of digital ethnography in order to explore the transformative effects digital media plays in these experiences While there has been work on the various ways in which internet communication technologies ICTs particularly mobile communication allows for various forms of connectivity between individuals and groups in this age of hyper transnational mobility there is a scarcity on the way digital media presents challenges creates agency and alters relationships within the broad umbrella of the transnational migration experience The authors in this collection who come from diverse disciplinary backgrounds across social cultural education and communication research present cutting edge cross and trans disciplinary analyses of transnational migration where digital media becomes a creative if not fundamental avenue for migrants to develop new strategies for dealing with their cross border mobilities

Architecture and the Image at the Turn of the 21st Century Sanja Rodeš, 2024-06-28 This book examines architecture image and media relationships as productive for architecture and architectural discourses By arguing that the relationships between architecture and media cannot be dismissed via linear criticism of architecture and media or image these relations are instead seen as a part of a sphere a mediasphere of complex relationships In lieu of anything like a consensus on the contemporary condition of architecture referring to the late twentieth and the twenty first centuries the starting point of this book is that the relationships between architecture media and images continue to multiply owing to continuous technological advancements Contemporary architecture considered in this book is related to the selected circumstances of high visibility where architectural images are propelled into visibility and conflated with non architectural images This takes architecture outside of architectural only discourse and into the public realm By granting higher visibility to both the architectural images and architecture in the public realm architecture can also be influenced by the various perceptions of the general public and can enter public consciousness via non architectural media With increased visibility architecture s far reaching presence calls for more structured analysis of its nature and potential As the analysed architecture in this book is associated with the discourses outside of architecture some of which relate to terrorism natural disaster and branding and consumption the limits of contemporary architectural discipline are questioned and extended This book is written for academics and students in architectural history theory and criticism particularly those interested in visual and media studies

The Aesthetics of

Discipleship Adrian Coates, 2021-09-30 Discipleship is embodied Formation in the Christian life is not an otherworldly exercise but one that plays out in this world interwoven with everyday sensory experience in ordinary life The Aesthetics of Discipleship explores this dynamic through Kierkegaard s framing of aesthetic existence the sensory experience of being in the moment further developed by Bonhoeffer as operating within a realm of freedom encompassing not only art but play friendship and cultural formation In addition to Kierkegaard and Bonhoeffer the work of Iain McGilchrist Graham Ward and Nicholas Wolterstorff is employed to offer a fresh perspective on discipleship from below Everyday sensory experiences are integral not only to being human but to the practice of discipleship such that discipleship integrates aesthetic ethical and religious existence Aesthetic existence unhinged from a life of faith or fueled by distorted Christendom creates and sustains aestheticized pseudorealities centered on the self Mature aesthetic existence however anchored in love for God plays a fundamental role in the Christian life both as the incarnational celebration of being fully human and also through the preconscious formation of imaginaries by which we live

Performing Antagonism Tony Fisher, Eve Katsouraki, 2017-01-20

This book combines performance analysis with contemporary political philosophy to advance new ways of understanding both political performance and the performativity of the politics of the street Our times are pre eminently political times and have drawn radical responses from many theatre and performance practitioners However a decade of conflict in the Middle East and Afghanistan the eruption of new social movements around the world the growth of anti capitalist and anti globalisation struggles the upsurge of protests against the blockades of neoliberalism and the rising tide of dissent and anger against corporate power with its exorbitant social costs have left theatre and performance scholarship confronting something of a dilemma how to theorize the political antagonisms of our day Drawing on the resources of post Marxist political thinkers such as Chantal Mouffe and Jacques Rancière the book explores how new theoretical horizons have been made available for performance analysis

Choosing Our Religion Elizabeth Drescher, 2016-03-01 To the dismay of religious leaders study after study has shown a steady decline in affiliation and identification with traditional religions in America By 2014 more than twenty percent of adults identified as unaffiliated up more than seven percent just since 2007 Even more startling more than thirty percent of those under the age of thirty now identify as Nones answering none when queried about their religious affiliation Is America losing its religion Or as more and more Americans choose different spiritual paths are they changing what it means to be religious in the United States today In Choosing Our Religion Elizabeth Drescher explores the diverse complex spiritual lives of Nones across generations and across categories of self identification such as Spiritual But Not Religious Atheist Agnostic Humanist just Spiritual and more Drawing on more than one hundred interviews conducted across the United States Drescher opens a window into the lives of a broad cross section of Nones diverse with respect to age gender race sexual orientation and prior religious background She allows Nones to speak eloquently for themselves illuminating the processes by which they became None the sources of information and inspiration that enrich their spiritual lives the practices they find spiritually meaningful how prayer functions in spiritual lives not centered on doctrinal belief how morals and values are shaped outside of institutional religions and how Nones approach the spiritual development of their own children These compelling stories are deeply revealing about how religion is changing in America both for Nones and for the religiously affiliated family friends and neighbors with whom their lives remain intertwined

A Kingdom Not of This World Kevin C. Karnes, 2013-07-30 Typically regarded as reflecting on a culture in social political or psychological crisis the arts in fin de siècle Vienna had another side they were means by which creative individuals imagined better futures and perfected worlds dawning with the turn of the twentieth century As author Kevin C. Karnes reveals much of this utopian discourse drew inspiration from the work of Richard Wagner whose writings and music stood for both a deluded past and an ideal future yet to come Illuminating this neglected dimension of Vienna's creative culture this book ranges widely across music philosophy and the visual arts Uncovering artworks long forgotten and providing new perspectives on some of the most celebrated achievements in the Western canon Karnes considers music by Mahler Schoenberg and Alexander Zemlinsky paintings sculptures and graphic art by Klimt Max Klinger and members of the Vienna Secession and philosophical writings by Nietzsche Schopenhauer and Maurice Maeterlinck Through analyses of artworks and the cultural dynamics that surrounded their creation and reception this study reveals a powerful current of millennial optimism running counter and parallel to the cultural pessimism widely associated with the period It discloses a utopian discourse that is at once beautiful moving and deeply disturbing as visions of perfection gave rise to ecstatic artworks and dystopian social and political realities The Coming Jesus and the Anthropocene Ryan LaMothe,2024-02-22 Melting glaciers and icecaps massive forest fires enormous storms extensive and prolonged flooding and desertification of large tracts of land are realities we currently face and will continue to struggle with as a result of climate change Our climate crisis invites if not demands a critical evaluation of our political religious economic and cultural narratives and rituals that give rise to our ways of relating to one another to other species and to planet Earth This book argues that the climate emergency exposes deep problematic roots of Western religious and political paradigms and apparatuses that undergird ideas of and methods for human flourishing In particular Western religious and political philosophies have produced and maintained a radical rift between human beings and other species as well as beliefs about human dominion over other species and the earth These ideas and practices are responsible for the colonization of Nature and for climate change Understanding these sources invites a radical reimagining of our religious ideas and practices Specifically this book proposes a coming Jesus a form of life that traverses the rift while denying human and divine dominion for the sake of recognizing and respecting the singularities and flourishing of all species

Re-Imagining Educational Leadership Brian Caldwell,2006-11-18 If one is concerned with the future of education this book is a must While it is humbling it is also an inspirational invitation for transformation Florida Journal of Educational Administration Policy It is clear that school leadership has had to adapt to the changing educational climate and this has required changes at all levels as well as shifts in balance This book addresses these challenges and demonstrates a variety of illustrative examples of how successful these changes can be This is a useful primer for those studying leadership in schools and some of the associated theories and practice There are wide and well considered references across the educational and management landscape and it provides thought provoking views on how leadership can be practised ESCalate The fact that we know you are watching Brian helps all of us both to perform well in the present and to invent a future in which we perform better still I commend Brian s writings to anyone committed to world class public education Professor Sir Michael Barber Expert Partner Global Public Sector Practice McKinsey and Company Former Head of Prime Minister s Delivery Unit at 10 Downing Street In Re imagining Educational Leadership Brian Caldwell has set an outstanding framework for school leaders and educators to fundamentally rethink schools and school leadership The book is very perceptive and links ideas and concepts to the practical reality of schools in an inspiring and imaginative way This is a must read book for all those involved in developing inspiring leadership in our schools This is a major contribution to the educational literature Professor Brent Davies Professor of International Leadership Development at the University of Hull Brian Caldwell has successfully brought together an analysis of past and current practice in leadership but most significantly he has outlined key thoughts ideas and perspectives to inspire leaders in their personal learning journey in the future This book will become one of the key sources of ideas for leadership in schools over the next few years It is both accessible and thought provoking while never losing the practical relevance to schools and school leaders This is a must read for all those involved in educational leadership and 21st century schooling International Journal of Educational Management We do not know the precise form that education will take in different settings in 25 years time No one does No one should claim to have this foresight Leadership is required however regardless of the form that education takes In this book Brian Caldwell draws on his work on self managing schools his most recent work in the UK with the Specialist Schools and Academies Trust and on evidence from around the world to describe how leadership is changing the world of education on a scale that can best be described as transformation Such leadership differs in important ways from what has been expected in the past it requires a change in role at all levels and shifts the balance from what is often a dispiriting and discouraging experience to one that is exhilarating The author s insight and recommendations are essential reading for all school leaders potential school leaders and policy makers at local and national levels who seek to secure high levels of achievement for all students in all settings About the author Brian J Caldwell is Managing Director of Melbourne based Educational Transformations and Professorial Fellow at the University of Melbourne where he served as Dean of Education from 1998 to 2004 He is Associate Director Global of International Networking for Educational Transformation a project of the London based Specialist Schools and Academies Trust Brian is internationally known as an expert in educational leadership Awards include the Gold Medal of the Australian Council of Educational Leaders the Hedley Beare Educator of the Year Award Victoria and the College Medal Australia of the Australian College of Educators
