Modern Syrian Short Stories:

Modern Syrian Short Stories M. J. L. Young, 1988 Modern Syrian Short Stories M. J. L. Young, 1988 Arabic Short Stories, 1994-12-22 Collects twenty four short stories by Arabic authors such as Bahaa Taher Alifa Rifaat and Edward El Kharrat which explore such themes as prostitution adultery and arranged marriage Modern Arabic Literature Muḥammad Muṣṭafá Badawī, 1992 This volume provides an authoritative survey of creative writing in Arabic from the mid nineteenth century to the present day Modern Arabic Fiction Salma Khadra Jayyusi, 2005 Beginning with the late nineteenth century cultural resurgence and continuing through the present day short stories and novels have given voice to the personal and historical experiences of modern Arabs This anthology offers a rich and diverse selection of works from more than one hundred and forty prominent Arab writers of fiction The collection reflects Arab writers formal inventiveness as well as their intense exploration of various dimensions of modern Arab life including the impact of modernity the rise of the oil economy political authoritarianism corruption religion poverty and the Palestinian experience in modern times Salma Khadra Jayyusi a renowned scholar of Arabic literature has included short stories and excerpts from novels from authors in every Arab country Modern Arabic Fiction contains writings stretching from the pioneering work of late nineteenth and early twentieth century authors to the novels of Naguib Mahfouz and the stories of contemporary Arab writers In addition to familiar names such as Mahfouz the anthology presents excerpts from writers well known in the Arab world but just beginning to find an audience in the West including early twentieth century Christian Lebanese writer Jurji Zaydan whose historical epics were eye openers for generations of Arab readers to the achievements of medieval Islamic civilization Yusuf Idris's complex and brilliant portrait of Egypt's poor Abd al Rahman Muneef's searing exploration of the ecological and social impact of oil production Palestinian writer Jabra Ibrahim Jabra's sophisticated description of the dilemma's of modern Arab intellectuals and Jamal al Ghitani's impressive employment of mythical time and the continuity of the past in the present Jayyusi provides biographical information on the writers as well as a substantial and illuminating introduction to the development of modern Arabic fictional genres that considers the central thematic and aesthetic concerns of Arab short story writers and novelists A Reader of Modern Arabic Short Stories Sabry Hafez, Catherine Cobham, 2012-01-30 This reader consists of the full Arabic texts of eleven short stories by established Egyptian Iraqi Syrian and Jordanian writers The earliest story written in 1929 is by the Egyptian Mahmud Tahir Lashin and the most recent written in 1972 is by the Iraqi writer Fu'ad Al Takarli Each story is supplemented by an introduction with biographical information about the author placing him in his literary context a description of the contents and a brief analysis of the story itself in English Ideal for students of Arabic language and literature the aim of this collection is to encourage a literary appreciation of modern Arabic texts and an understanding of some of the cultural conflicts reflected in the writings Writers included are Ghalib Halasa Yahya Haqqi Yusuf Idris Idwar El Kharrat and Zakariyya Tamir Encyclopedia of Arabic Literature Julie Scott Meisami, Paul

Starkey,1998 This reference work covers the classical transitional and modern periods Editors and contributors cover an international scope of Arabic literature in many countries Breaking Knees Zakariyā Tāmīr,2008 Deals with taboo subjects like religion and sexuality and expresses an urgently felt need for change This book covers the topic of repression of the individual by the institutions of state and religion and of individuals by each other particularly women by men

Historical Dictionary of Syria David Commins,2004-03-29 This Second Edition gives the reader easy access to the history and contemporary situation of one of the world s ancient civilizations The heart of the work is more than 350 entries on the most influential political figures and events religious groups and movements economic sectors social institutions and cultural facets The second edition includes nearly 100 entirely new entries and updates on 43 entries from the first edition An important difference between the two editions is the inclusion of many more entries on social institutions such as the family and coffeehouses cultural aspects such as art architecture cinema literature music and theater and economic facets such as inflation corruption the public sector and efforts at reform There is also expanded coverage on Syria s political dynamics with entries on human rights civil society and security forces The only specific reference work in English this new edition addresses profound changes in Syria s domestic and regional circumstances The domestic political scene witnessed a major transition with the passing of Syria s ruler for 30 years Hafiz al Asad and the unexpectedly smooth succession of his son Bashar as new president in 2000 The regional situation has changed even more since the first edition came out in 1996 Peace talks with Israel collapsed in 2000 and three years later the United States invaded Iraq beginning an occupation of Syria s neighbor for an indeterminate period with incalculable consequences In addition to the A to Z dictionary the second edition contains a chronology that presents fairly general information on early centuries and becomes quite detailed for the most recent years The bibliography also reflects significant changes in research on Syria Not only does the bibliographical essay highlight important new monographs it introduces the reader to credible Internet resources for guides to travel and popular culture as well as news and statistical data at major international organizations The Rough Guide to Syria Andrew

Beattie,Timothy Pepper,2001 The Rough Guide to Syria is the essential guide to this compact but culturally rich Middle Eastern country Features include Thorough accounts of all the monuments from the ancient remains at Palmyra and Ugarit to stately mosques and hilltop crusader castles Practical advice on shopping in the souks of Damascus and Aleppo and exploring the desert plains Informed guidance on how to travel independently and where to eat and sleep in every price range Detailed background on the country s history culture architecture and politics Historical Dictionary of Syria

Omar Imady,David Commins,David W. Lesch,2021-01-21 Historical Dictionary of Syria Fourth Edition covers the recent events in Syria as well as the history that led up to these events The cross referenced dictionary section has over 500 entries on significant persons places and events political parties and institutions literature music and the arts The information on the lives and works of about 150 authors who write primarily in Arabic covering the first known works of Arabic literature in the 5th and 6th centuries A D to the present day While concentrating on literary authors writers from the fields of history geography and philosophy are also represented The individuals represented were chosen primarily from the Encyclopedia of Arabic Literature Among the major authors are Najib Mahfuz the 1988 Nobel laureate Nawal Saadawi the Egyptian physician who is the leading female literary author in the Arab world and the most frequently translated into English Abu al Ala al Ma arri the 11th century poet whose verses are taught to every Arab schoolchild and Avicenna the great physician and philosopher transmitter and interpreter of Aristotle whose work on medicine was long the standard not only in the Middle East but also in Latin translation in Europe In addition entries will be included for the anonymous romances so common in Arabic literature such as The Arabian Nights a cycle of stories perhaps even better known in the West than in the Arab world Interest in the history and culture of the Arab world at U S universities has taken a quantum leap since the events of September 11 2001 In this book the author demonstrates that at least three major distinct literary and cultural traditions are included within the fields of Middle Eastern and Islamic studies Arabic Persian and Turkic The Arabic tradition is the oldest largest and most widely dispersed Undergraduate courses in Arabic literature and culture are now being taught at both lower and upper levels at many universities Such courses are often used by undergraduates to fulfill basic educational requirements for their degrees Students in such courses often have difficulty finding information on Arab writers and this volume fills the void

Global Cultures Elisabeth Young-Bruehl, 1994-12-09 An anthology of 62 stories from around the non Euro American world providing new definitions of cultural diversity and commonality and an invaluable tool for teachers responding to the growing need for multicultural literature Over the past two decades sweeping political changes and burgeoning new technologies have resulted in communities being increasingly defined in global as well as regional and national terms Although the intellectual terra nova of world cultures remains largely uncharted this anthology of sixty two stories from around the non Euro American world provides what Elisabeth Young Bruehl calls an introductory map to the great wealth of literary works now being produced in at once the particular settings of the writers experiences and the global setting Young Bruehl finds that while the cultural diversity the stories exemplify is amazing so too is the similarity in thematic terms of the concerns that this diversity presents Thus she organized Global Cultures thematically to highlight and clarify how these worldwide cultures both converge and diverge A comprehensive general introduction outlines forces behind the transnational approach to literary study and chapter introductions contextualize each story Stories from India Cuba South Africa and Uruguay are connected by the theme of exile and immigration tales from Nigeria Guatemala Cameroon and Egypt share a theme of political violence and civil uprisings works from Taiwan Chile Jamaica and Syria describe commonalities of women facing effects of modernization prejudice war and immigration Global Cultures contributes to the fast growing body of contemporary short fictions newly available in English and is an invaluable resource to meet the need
