The Modern World-System II Immanuel Wallerstein, 2011-06-10 Immanuel Wallerstein's highly influential multi-volume opus The Modern World System is one of this century's greatest works of social science. An innovative panoramic reinterpretation of global history, it traces the emergence and development of the modern world from the sixteenth to the twentieth century.

The Modern World-System I Immanuel Wallerstein, 2011-06-10 Immanuel Wallerstein's highly influential multi-volume opus The Modern World System is one of this century's greatest works of social science. An innovative panoramic reinterpretation of global history, it traces the emergence and development of the modern world from the sixteenth to the twentieth century.

A World-Systems Reader Thomas D. Hall, 2000-03-01 This book brings together some of the most influential new research from the world systems perspective. The authors survey and analyze new and emerging topics from a wide range of disciplinary perspectives from political science to archaeology. Each analytical essay is written in accessible language so that the volume serves as a lucid introduction both to the tradition of world systems thought and the new debates that are sparking further research today.

Future Theory Patricia Waugh, Marc Botha, 2021-04-08 By interrogating the terms and concepts most central to cultural change, Future Theory interrogates how theory can play a central role in dynamic transition. It demonstrates how entangled the highly politicized spheres of cultural production, scientific invention, and intellectual discourse are in the contemporary world and how new concepts and forms of thinking are crucial to embarking upon change. Future Theory is built around five key concepts: change, boundaries, ruptures, assemblages, horizons. Examined by leading international thinkers to build a vision of how theory can be applied to a constantly shifting world.

The Perspective of Historical Sociology Jiří Šubrt, 2017-11-09 This book provides a comprehensive overview of the themes that make up the field of Historical Sociology. At its centre is the human individual as related to social and historical development. The key question it raises is who or what is responsible for the process of human history: society or the individual.

Religion and Social Transformations David Herbert, 2018-04-27 This title was first published in 2002. Religion and Social Transformations examines the reciprocal relationship between religion, modernity, and social change. The book focuses on the world's three major missionary religions: Buddhism, Christianity, and Islam. It explores how these three traditions are responding to some of the most challenging issues associated with globalization, including the role of religion in the fall of Communism, the tension between religion and feminism, the compatibility of religion and human rights, and whether ancient religions can accommodate new challenges such as environmentalism. The five textbooks and Reader that make up the Religion Today Open University Ashgate series are: From Sacred Text to Internet Religion and Social Transformations: Perspectives on Civil Religion, Global Religious Movements in Regional Context Belief Beyond Boundaries Religion Today A Reader China and the Global Economy Since 1840 L. Aiguo, 2016-04-30 This is a study of the long run evolution of the relationship between China and the world economy The book presents an original interpretation of the country s socio economic processes in the past 150 years focusing on China s interaction with the expanding capitalist world economy The author argues that the general thrust of China s quest for development or modernization has been to catch up with the wealthy nations of the West and goes on to explain the changing paths and outcomes The book proceeds chronologically from China s mid nineteenth century incorporation to the world economy starting from a semi colonial state to the Maoist state led industrialization after 1949 and to the post Mao liberalization and reintegration By carefully examining the patterns of development in these three major periods of the nation s history it addresses fundamental issues pertaining to the making of modern China This rigorously argued book will be a timely and much debated contribution as the rise of China in the twenty first century has become an issue of our time

Future of Liberation Theology Ivan Petrella, 2006-06-28 There is a notion amongst some academics that Latin American Liberation Theology has had its day a dream killed off by the Nicaraguan and Salvadoran revolutions the 1989 demise of socialism and the end of history claims of the champions of capitalism However in this book Petrella proves this to be an ill conceived notion and shows that this theology can be reinvented to bring its preferential option for the poor into the real world The actualisation of historical projects is possible by adopting the methods developed by the Brazilian champion of critical legal studies Robert Unger Doing so will entail the rejection of these theologians unitary concepts of a despised and rejected capitalism and a canonized and accepted socialism Petrella argues for a reconstruction of these concepts and those of democracy and property too He closely analyses the differences in democracy and capitalism as practised across the USA and Europe in support for the reconstruction of these concepts bringing about far reaching suggestions for the future of liberation theology Borderlands , 2021-11-08 Boundaries borderlines limits on the one hand and rites of passage contact zones in between spaces on the other have attracted renewed interest in a broad variety of cultural discourses after a long period of decenterings and delimitations in numerous fields of social psychological and intellectual life Anthropological dimensions of the subject and its multifarious ways of world making represent the central challenge among the concerns of the humanities The role of literature and the arts in the formation of cultural and personal identities theoretical and political approaches to the relation between self and other the familiar and the foreign have become key issues in literary and cultural studies forms of expressivity and expression and question of mediation as well as new enquiries into ethics have characterized the intellectual energies of the past decade The aim of Borderlands is to represent a variety of approaches to questions of border crossing and boundary transgression approaches from different angles and different disciplines but all converging in their own way on the post colonial paradigm Topics discussed include globalization cartography and ontology transitional identity ecocritical sensibility questions of the application of post coloniality gender and sexuality and attitudes towards space and place As well as studies of the cinema of the settler colonies the films of Neil Jordan and Othering in Canadian sports journalism there are treatments of the Nigerian novel South African prison memoirs and African women s writing Authors examined include Elizabeth Bowen Bruce Chatwin Mohamed Choukri Nuruddin Farah Jamaica Kincaid Pauline Melville Bharati Mukherjee Michael Ondaatje and Leslie Marmon Silko Transoceanic America Michelle Burnham,2019-05-23 Transoceanic America offers a new approach to American literature by emphasizing the material and conceptual interconnectedness of the Atlantic and Pacific worlds These oceans were tied together economically textually and politically through such genres as maritime travel writing mathematical and navigational schoolbooks and the relatively new genre of the novel Especially during the age of revolutions in the late eighteenth and early nineteenth centuries long distance transoceanic travel required calculating and managing risk in the interest of profit The result was the emergence of a newly suspenseful form of narrative that came to characterize capitalist investment political revolution and novelistic plot The calculus of risk that drove this expectationist narrative also concealed violence against vulnerable bodies on ships and shorelines around the world A transoceanic American literary and cultural history requires new non linear narratives to tell the story of this global context and to recognize its often forgotten textual archive Explaining Social Processes Jiří Šubrt,Alemayehu Kumsa,Massimiliano Ruzzeddu,2020-08-18 This textbook considers understanding social processes to be the main task of sociology From this perspective its authors demonstrate and explain problems which they consider to be crucial for contemporary social science These are topics of a theoretical and epistemological nature which are nevertheless closely connected with social development and issues arising from it The book moves from the more general theoretical questions and dilemmas raised by key social thinkers such as those connected with the concepts of actor agency institutions structures and systems It then leads to theoretical reflections on long term developmental processes associated with the phenomena of power and life in current societies including globalization identities migration etc It provides a comprehensive approach to the essential questions of sociology Lucidly written and including the latest sociological perspectives this book will find wide appeal among social science students and researchers and is also for the socially aware general reader
