POLITICAL THEORY RAMASWAMY, SUSHILA,2010-10-01 Political theory and political philosophy are generally used interchangeably though sometimes a distinction is made between the two This book on political theory deals with the study of political institutions along with the theories of State Law Liberty and Equality In its second edition the book continues to analyse the key concepts like Authority Power Sovereignty Political obligation Civil disobedience Citizenship Rights Democracy and Justice The non western ideas including Indian and Chinese are incorporated to underline cultural plurality and shared values in an enterprise that tries to set universal standards The book is designed for the undergraduate and postgraduate students of Political Science The book will be equally beneficial for the students appearing for the civil services examinations Ratio and Voluntas Kaarlo Tuori, 2016-04-08 From the ancient beginnings of Western legal tradition law has been conceived as traversed by a fundamental tension between power will and reason This volume examines the tension between these two poles ratio and voluntas in modern law Part I focuses on three instructive phases in the history of the law's ratio Part II examines the way legal scholarship especially doctrinal research legal dogmatics can and should contribute to the law's coherence Part III explores the role of constitutional law in managing the tension between law's voluntas and ratio The final chapter discusses the implications the growth of transnational law may have on the relationship between ratio and voluntas The study builds on the views of the distinctive features of the ideal typical mature modern legal system as presented in the author's previous work Critical Legal Positivism Ashgate 2002

Geography of Tourism Peter Mason, 2023-09-18 Provides an awareness of the spatial nature of tourism by means of a geographical perspective and offers a critical analysis of major contemporary geographical themes and issues relating to tourism This fully revised 2nd edition includes new material on post COVID implications global climate change and the UN Sustainable Development Goals Reclaiming the Human Sciences and Humanities Through African Perspectives Helen Lauer, Kofi Anyidoho, 2012 This compilation was inspired by an international symposium held on the Legon campus in September 2003 Hosted by the CODESRIA African Humanities Institute Programme the symposium had the theme Canonical Works and Continuing Innovation in African Arts Humanities Africa in Contemporary Perspective Manuh, Takyiwaa, Sutherland-Addy, Esi, 2014-05-08 An important feature of Ghanaian tertiary education is the foundational African Studies Programme which was initiated in the early 1960s Unfortunately hardly any readers exist which bring together a body of knowledge on the themes issues and debates which inform and animate research and teaching in African Studies particularly on the African continent This becomes even more important when we consider the need for knowledge on Africa that is not Eurocentric or sensationalised but driven from internal understandings of life and prospects in Africa Dominant representations and perceptions of Africa usually depict a continent in crisis Rather than buying into external representations of Africa with its lacks and aspirations for Western modernities we insist that African scholars in particular should be in the forefront of promoting understanding of the plurilingual overlapping and dense reality of life and developments on the continent to produce relevant and usable knowledge Continuing and renewed interest in Africa's resources including the land mass economy minerals visual arts and performance cultures as well as bio medical knowledge and products by old and new geopolitical players obliges African scholars to transcend disciplinary boundaries and to work with each other to advance knowledge and uses of those resources in the interests of Africa s people Rural Violence in Bihar Bindeshwar Pathak,1993 The Challenges of Contemporaneity Roida Rzayeva Oktay,2016-06-07 This book presents an overview of postmodernism and its social indicators and of the postmodern condition in consciousness as an indicator of its modification and development The book brings together philosophical sociological and cultural approaches towards contemporary societal issues such as multiculturalism culture of dialogue philosophy of dialogue tolerance and gender In doing so it suggests a framing approach to cross disciplinary research The book also discusses various forms of multiculturalism including multiculturalism as multiple modernities and plural modernities and non Western contemporaneity It explores the background of the dynamics of the development of public consciousness in particular from the modern to postmodern and subsequently examines the West non West dichotomy and how that dichotomy is currently being reconsidered in response to the intellectual spiritual realities of modern life Sociology of Development Mr. Rohit Manglik,2024-03-13 EduGorilla Publication is a trusted name in the education sector committed to empowering learners with high quality study materials and resources Specializing in competitive exams and academic support EduGorilla provides comprehensive and well structured content tailored to meet the needs of students across various streams and levels
