Modernising Justice The Governments Plans For Reforming Legal Services And Courts:

Delivering Family Justice in Late Modern Society in the wake of Legal Aid Reform Mavis Maclean, 2018-04-19

Legal aid for family cases in private law mainly divorce and separation where the state is not directly involved as it is in public law cases where there are issues of domestic violence or neglect or abuse of children came to an abrupt end together with help for welfare and immigration cases on April 1 2013 when the Legal Aid Sentencing and Punishment of Offenders Act LASPO came into effect This book presents an account of the wide ranging problems which the researchers and practitioners expected to ensue Sadly their fears have been realised in many areas of legal help and advice The National Audit Office was to take the view in 2014 that although the Ministry of Justice had succeeded in making considerable savings in the cause of austerity that they had failed to investigate or understand the impact of these cuts on the individuals concerned and society as a whole This book was previously published as a special issue of the Journal of Social Welfare and Family Law

Sourcebook on English Legal System David Kelly, Gary Slapper, 2012-10-02 Designed for students who may not have ready access to a law library and for students on part time and distance learning courses the Sourcebook series offers a collection of material from a diversity of sources The sources are annotated to set the materials in context and to explain their relevance and importance This volume contains a representative selection of cases and statutes which cover such topics as the nature of law sources of law and the structure and jurisdiction of the civil and criminal courts The legal profession and the interpretation of statutes are also discussed
