Modernist Ebays:

Everyday eBay Ken Hillis, Michael Petit, Nathan Scott Epley, 2012-12-06 Everyday eBay is the first scholarly analysis of the internet marketplace that has become a global social cultural and economic phenomenon. The eighteen new and classic essays gathered here examine eBay from a wide variety of perspectives as a bellwether of taste and material culture as a rich site of cultural racial and sexual discourse and practice as an emergent media form and as a facilitator of global consumerism. From old toys steeped in nostalgia to rare limited edition shoes the contributors demonstrate that value on eBay is never simply about price. On any given day more than two million items are listed for sale on eBay from everyday objects to kitsch and collectibles to the truly bizarre. Since its debut ten years ago eBay has quickly become a central destination for millions of web browsers. According to eBay itself up to 165 000 Americans now make their living by selling through the website and other business analysts project that hundreds of thousands of individuals worldwide now make their living through eBay.

Suggests many digital humanities approaches. Danish Modern Mark Mussari, 2016-06-16 Danish Modern explores the development of mid century modernist design in Denmark from historical analytical and theoretical perspectives. Mark Mussari explores the relationship between Danish design aesthetics and the theoretical and cultural impact of Modernism particularly between 1930 and 1960. He considers how Danish designers responded to early Modernist currents the Stockholm Exhibition of 1930, their rejection of Bauhaus aesthetic demands, their early fealty to wood and materials and the tension between cabinetmaker craft and industrial production as it challenged and altered their aesthetic approach. Tracing the theoretical foundations for these developments, Mussari discusses the writings and works of such figures as Poul Henningsen, Arne Jacobsen, Hans Wegner, Nanna Ditzel and Finn Juhl.

Post-Modern Pilgrims Leonard Sweet, 2000-07-15 There is a legend of a Welsh Prince Madoc whose ship became stuck in Chesapeake Bay. After trying unsuccessfully to escape he had his men row out with the anchor drop it as far into the sea as they could and then the ship winched its way forward. The image of the church as a boat and tradition as an anchor is prevalent in Christian art. If we examine the biblical view of an anchor we find like Prince Madoc we are to cast our anchor into the future and pull the church forward. Postmodern pilgrims must strive to keep the past and the future in perpetual conversation so every generation will find a fresh expression of the Gospel that is anchored solidly to the faith that was once for all delivered. Handmade Gifts from the Kitchen Alison Walker, 2014-10-07 From homemade cookies to marshmallow hearts flavored oils and spirits to panforte and spice kits each of the more than 100 gift ideas has an easy to follow recipe along with inspirational ideas for presentation.
