Modernist Conjectures:

Modernist Conjectures Douwe Wessel Fokkema, Elrud Ibsch, 1987      The Modernist Novel Stephen Kern, 2011-06-23

Leading scholar Stephen Kern offers a probing analysis of the modernist novel encompassing American British and European works Organized thematically the book offers a comprehensive analysis of the stunningly original formal innovations in novels by Conrad Joyce Woolf Proust Gide Faulkner Dos Passos Kafka Musil and others Kern contextualizes and explains how formal innovations captured the dynamic history of the period reconstructed as ten master narratives He also draws briefly on poetry and painting of the first half of the twentieth century The Modernist Novel is set to become a fundamental source for discussions of the genre and a useful introduction to the subject for students and scholars of modernism and twentieth century literature

The Maritain Factor Rajesh Heynickx, Jan de Maeyer, 2010 During the 1920 s and 1930 s many European modernist artists and intellectuals were seeking a primordial finality in Catholicism In order to distil the eternal from the transitory they became fascinated by a thought frame promoted by the French philosopher Jacques Maritain neo Thomism a revival of the study of the principles and methodology of the thirteenth century theologian Chomas Aquinas

Modernism - Dada - Postmodernism Richard Sheppard, 2000 This new collection updates integrates and contextualizes Richard Sheppard s essays on the historical avant garde Sheppard examines responses of modernist writers artists and philosophers to a changed sense of reality and human nature With its combination of previously published and new essays and its perspective on the theoretical avant garde modernism debate in the U S the volume provides the specialist and the general reader insight into European scholarly discourse on this hotly debated subject

Theorizing Modernisms Steve Giles, 2002-09-11 Provides a much needed corrective to the misleading accounts of modernism that have dominated recent debate shedding new light at the same time on the current controversies surrounding postmodernism

Late Modernism Tyrus Miller, 1999-02-25 Tyrus Miller breaks new ground in this study of early twentieth century literary and artistic culture Whereas modernism studies have generally concentrated on the vital early phases of the modernist revolt Miller focuses on the turbulent later years of the 1920s and 1930s tracking the dissolution of modernism in the interwar years In the post World War I reconstruction and the worldwide crisis that followed Miller argues new technological media and the social forces of mass politics opened fault lines in individual and collective experience undermining the cultural bases of the modernist movement He shows how late modernists attempted to discover ways of occupying this new and often dangerous cultural space In doing so they laid bare the ruin of the modernist aesthetic at the same time as they transcended its limits In his wide ranging theoretical and historical discussion Miller relates developments in literary culture to tendencies in the visual arts cultural and political criticism mass culture and social history He excavates Wyndham Lewis s hidden borrowings from Al Jolson s The Jazz Singer situates Djuna Barnes between the imagery of haute couture and the intellectualism of Duchamp uncovers Beckett s affinities with Giacometti s surrealist sculptures and the Bolshevik clowns Bim Bom and considers Mina Loy as both visionary writer and designer of decorative lampshades Miller's lively and engaging readings of culture in this turbulent period reveal its surprising anticipation of our own postmodernity

International Postmodernism Hans Bertens, Douwe W. Fokkema, 1997-02-20 Containing more than fifty essays by major literary scholars International Postmodernism divides into four main sections The volume starts off with a section of eight introductory studies dealing with the subject from different points of view followed by a section that deals with postmodernism in other arts than literature while a third section discusses renovations of narrative genres and other strategies and devices in postmodernist writing The final and fourth section deals with the reception and processing of postmodernism in different parts of the world Three important aspects add to the special character of International Postmodernism The consistent distinction between postmodernity and postmodernism equal attention to the making and diffusion of postmodernism and the workings of literature in general and the focus on the text and the reader i.e. the reader's knowledge experience interests and competence as crucial factors in text interpretation This comprehensive study does not expressly focus on American postmodernism although American interpretations of postmodernism are a major point of reference The recognition that varying literary and cultural conditions in this world are bound to produce endless varieties of postmodernism made the editors Hans Bertens and Douwe Fokkema opt for the title International Postmodernism

Modernism Astradur Eysteinnsson, Vivian Liska, 2007-10-04 The two volume work Modernism has been awarded the prestigious 2008 MSA Book Prize Modernism has constituted one of the most prominent fields of literary studies for decades While it was perhaps temporarily overshadowed by postmodernism recent years have seen a resurgence of interest in modernism on both sides of the Atlantic These volumes respond to a need for a collective and multifarious view of literary modernism in various genres locations and languages Asking and responding to a wealth of theoretical aesthetic and historical questions 65 scholars from several countries test the usefulness of the concept of modernism as they probe a variety of contexts from individual texts to national literatures from specific critical issues to broad cross cultural concerns While the chief emphasis of these volumes is on literary modernism literature is seen as entering into diverse cultural and social contexts These range from inter art conjunctions to philosophical environmental urban and political domains including issues of race and space gender and fashion popular culture and trauma science and exile all of which have an urgent bearing on the poetics of modernity

Writing History as a Prophet Elisabeth Wesseling, 1991-12-05 This is a postmodernist history of the historical novel with special attention to the political implications of the postmodernist attitude toward the past Beginning with the poetics of Sir Walter Scott Wesseling moves via a global survey of 19th century historical fiction to modernist innovations in the genre Noting how the self reflexive strategy enables a novelist to represent an episode from the past alongside the process of gathering and formulating historical knowledge the author discusses the elaboration of this strategy introduced by novelists such as Virginia Woolf and William Faulkner in the work of among others Julian Barnes Jay Cantor Robert Coover and

Graham Swift Wesseling also shows how postmodernist writers attempt to envisage alternative sequences for historical events Deliberately distorting historical facts authors of such uchronian fiction like Thomas Pynchon Ishmael R Read Salman Rushdie and Gunter Grass imagine what history looks like from the perspective of the losers rather than the winners

Mimesis in Contemporary Theory: An interdisciplinary approach Ronald Bogue,1991-06-21 The essays collected in this volume focus on the interrelated themes of mimesis semiosis and power each study exploring some facet of the problem of representation and its relation to strategies of power in the use of verbal and visual signs Topics discussed include mimesis and power in Plato s Ion rhetoric and erotics in Petrarch s thought the limits of visual and verbal representation in Renaissance paintings of the Annunciation binary thought and Peirce s triadic semiotics the cinematic semiotics of Gilles Deleuze fascist iconography in the paintings of Anselm Kiefer oppositional strategies in postmodern fiction visual and verbal representations of the body in mass culture and the semiotics of violence in postmodern popular culture Hebrew studies

,2003 Polyphony in Fiction Masayuki Teranishi,2008 The overall aim of this book is the application of stylistic theories and frameworks to literary texts for a deeper level of interpretation For this purpose the author conducted an analysis based upon the concepts of polyphony and focalization of three novels from different literary periods commonly labeled Pre modernism Modernism and Postmodernism namely George Eliot s Middlemarch 1871 2 Joseph Conrad s Nostromo 1904 and Saul Bellow s Herzog 1964 Inspired by the work of Russian linguist philosopher Mikhail Bakhtin the author attempts to clarify stylistically how polyphony is textualized in each novel and how each mode of polyphony reflects less parochial literary and cultural trends Atlantic Automobilism Gijs Mom,2014-12-01 Our continued use of the combustion engine car in the 21st century despite many rational arguments against it makes it more and more difficult to imagine that transport has a sustainable future Offering a sweeping transatlantic perspective this book explains the current obsession with automobiles by delving deep into the motives of early car users It provides a synthesis of our knowledge about the emergence and persistence of the car using a broad range of material including novels poems films and songs to unearth the desires that shaped our present car society Combining social psychological and structural explanations the author concludes that the ability of cars to convey transcendental experience especially for men explains our attachment to the vehicle The Private

Eye Bran Nicol,2013-07-15 From Philip Marlowe and Sam Spade to Jake Gittes private eyes have made for some of the most memorable characters in cinema We often view these detectives as lone wolves who confront and try to make sense of a violent and chaotic modern world Bran Nicol challenges this stereotype in The Private Eye and offers a fresh take on this iconic character and the film noir genre Nicol traces the history of private eye movies from the influential film noirs of the 1940s to 1970s neonoir cinema whose slow and brilliant decline gave way to the fading of detectives into movie mythology today Analyzing a number of classic films including The Maltese Falcon The Big Sleep Chinatown and The Long Goodbye he reveals that while these movies are ostensibly thrillers they are actually occupied by issues of work and love The private eye is not a romantic hero Nicol argues but a figure who investigates the concealments of others at the expense of his own private life Combining a lucid introduction to an underexplored tradition in movie history with a new approach to the detective in film this book casts new light on the private worlds of the private eye Beyond Given Knowledge Harri Veivo, Jean-Pierre Montier, Françoise Nicol, David Ayers, Benedikt Hjartarson, Sascha Bru, 2017-12-18 The effort to go beyond given knowledge in different domains artistic scientific political metaphysical is a characteristic driving force in modernism and the avant gardes Since the late 19th century artists and writers have frequently investigated their medium and its limits pursued political and religious aims and explored hitherto unknown physical social and conceptual spaces often in ways that combine these forms of critical inquiry into one and provoke further theoretical and methodological innovations The fifth volume of the EAM series casts light on the history and actuality of investigations quests and explorations in the European avant garde and modernism from the late 19th century to the present day The authors seek to answer questions such as How have modernism and the avant garde appropriated scientific knowledge religious dogmas and social conventions pursuing their investigation beyond the limits of given knowledge and conceptions How have modernism and avant garde created new conceptual models or representations where other discourses have allegedly failed In what ways do practises of investigation quest or exploration shape artistic work or the formal and thematic structures of artworks Comparative Criticism: Volume 20, Philosophical Dialogues E. Fokkema, Elrud Ibsch, 2000-04-15 The authors present a new perspective on a wide range of issues in the study of literature and culture Some of the topics discussed such as interpretation canon formation and literary historiography belong to the traditional domain of literary studies Others cultural identity convention systems theory and empirical methods originate in the social sciences and are now being integrated into the humanities By referring to the work of authors as widely apart as Hayden White Edward Said Fredric Jameson Michel Foucault Jacques Derrida Reinhart Koselleck Pierre Bourdieu Niklas Luhmann Siegfried Schmidt Norbert Groeben and many others the full complexity of the field of literary studies becomes apparent The authors argue for a distinction between analysis of literary systems on the one hand and critical intervention on the other By distinguishing between research and criticism between knowledge and commitment they offer new ways for literary studies as well as for cultural critique The Turn of the Century/Le tournant du siècle Christian Berg, Frank Durieux, Geert Lernout, 2012-06-21 No detailed description available for The Turn of the Century Le tournant du siècle EccentriCities: Writing in the margins of Modernism Sharon Lubkemann Allen, 2015-11-01 An innovative interdisciplinary incisive scholarly study remapping and redefining domains and dynamics of modernism EccentriCities Writing in the margins of modernism critically considers how geo historically distant and disparate urban sites concentrating Russian and Luso Brazilian cultural dialogue and definition give rise to peculiarly parallel anachronistic and alternative fictional forms While comparatively reframing these literary traditions through an extensive survey of Russian and Brazilian literature cartography urban design and development foregrounding innovative close readings of works by Gogol Dostoevsky Bely Almeida Machado de Assis Lima Barreto M rio de Andrade the book also redefines new constellations eccentric concentric ex centric for understanding geo cultural and generic dimensions of modernist and post modern literature and theory
