The JDP and Making the Post-Kemalist Secularism in Turkey Pinar Kandemir, 2022-07-21 This book is an analytical study of secularism in contemporary Turkey by tracing its historical trajectory within the context of political transformation in a country that experienced a social and cultural rupture in its formative years Its principal focus is on the policies and practices of the current ruling party the Justice and Development Party JDP which has influenced the process of change evolution and transformation with regard to secularism and state policies toward religion Following its foundation in 2001 the JDP developed a unique approach to conceptualising the relationship between state and religion In contrast to other mainstream parties and political positions both in the past and present it offers an alternative vision and model to that of inherited Kemalist secularism as formulated by Mustafa Kemal Atatürk the founder of modern Turkey and refined by his close associates in the formative period of the Republic The project draws its findings from in depth interviews with members of political parties civil society activists and religious leaders
Political Islam and the Secular State in Turkey Evangelia Axiarlis, 2014-06-20 How safe is Turkey s liberal democracy The rise to power in 2002 of the right leaning Islamic Justice and Development Party ignited fears in the West that Turkey could no longer be relied upon to provide a buffer against the growth of Islamic fundamentalism in the Middle East Once hailed by the West as a model of secularism and moderation in the Muslim world Turkey is now seen to be under the influence of the creeping Islamisation of the JDP or AKP as it is known in Turkey Yet to what extent has this affected the lives of Turkish citizens Evangelia Axiarlis here explores the contribution of the JDP to civil liberties and basic freedoms long suppressed by secular and statist Kemalist ideology and how this has remained unexamined despite more than a decade in government In this the first detailed study of the policies and ideology of Prime Minister Recep Tayyip Erdoğan s government the author examines the extent to which the JDP has worked to improve civil life in Turkey and critically addresses whether a government built on Islamic principles can champion political reform Exploring how Islam and democracy are neither monoliths nor mutually exclusive this is a timely contribution to the wider understanding of political Islam Secularism and State Religion in Modern Turkey Emir Kaya, 2017-05-30 The Diyanet the official face of Islam in Turkey is the Presidency of Religious Affairs a governmental department established in 1924 after the break up of the Ottoman Empire and the abolition of Caliphate In this book Emir Kaya offers an in depth multidisciplinary analysis of this vital institution Focusing on the role of the Diyanet in society Kaya explores the balance the institution has to strike between the Muslim traditions of the Turkish population and the secular creed of the Turkish state By examining the various laws that either bolstered or hindered the Diyanet s budgets and activities Kaya highlights the institutional mindsets of the Diyanet membership He also evaluates its successes and failures as a state department that must consistently operate within the context of the religiosity of Turkish society By situating all of this within the two competing but often complimentary concepts of religion and secularism Kaya offers a book that is important for those researching the interplay of Islam and the state in Turkey and beyond Multireligious Society Francisco Colom Gonzalez, Gianni D'Amato, 2016-10-04 With the theory of secularization increasingly contested as a plausible development at a global scale this book focuses on the changing significance of the religious element within a context of complex diversity This concept reflects the rationale behind the deep transformations that have taken place in the dynamics of social change giving way to a recombination of social political and cultural cleavages that overlap and compete for legitimacy at a national and supranational level Far from disappearing with modernization new forms of religious diversity have emerged that continue to demand specific policies from the state putting pressure on the established practices of religious governance while creating a series of normative dilemmas European societies have been a testing ground for many of these changes but for decades Canada has been viewed as a pioneering country in the management of diversity thus offering some interesting similarities and contrasts with the former Accordingly the book deals with the diverging routes that political secularization has followed in Europe and Canada the patterns of religious governance that can be recognized in each region and the practices for accommodating the demands of religious minorities concerning their legal regulation the management of public institutions and the provision of social services Regime Change in Contemporary Turkey Necati Polat, 2016-10-27 Turkey has undergone a series of upheavals in its political regime from the mid 19th century This book details the most recent change locating it in its broader historical setting Beginning with the Justice and Development Party's rule from late 2002 supported by a broad informal coalition that included liberals the book shows how the former Islamists gradually acquired full power between 2007 and 2011 It then describes the subsequent phase looking at politics and rights under the amorphous new order This is the first scholarly yet accessible assessment of this historic change placing it in the larger context of political modernisation in the country over the past 150 years Religion, Nationalism and Foreign Policy Filiz Coban Oran, 2022-01-13 This book provides a critical discussion on how different discourses of nationalism in the Turkish media construct contested concepts of New Turkey's identity which has great importance for mapping modern Turkey's place in the world of nations Drawing on a Discourse Historical Approach the author analyses different discourses on Turkish national identity and foreign policy in Turkish media in the second term of the AKP government from 2007 to 2011 which was the period of consolidation of Muslim conservative nationalism in both internal and external relations By using three case studies including the Presidential elections in 2007 the launch of Kurdish Initiative in 2009 and the debate of axis shift in Western orientation of Turkish Foreign Policy in 2010 the book argues that not only has AKP's Muslim nationalism reconstructed new Turkish foreign policy but also new Turkish foreign policy discourse has reconstructed Turkish nation's Muslim identity and reinforced Muslim nationalism Anti-Veiling Campaigns in Turkey Sevgi Adak, 2022-02-24 The veiling and unveiling of women have been controversial issues in Turkey since the late Ottoman period. It was with the advent of local campaigns against certain veils in the 1930s however that women's dress turned into an issue of national mobilisation in which gender norms would be redefined. In this comprehensive analysis of the anti veiling campaigns in interwar Turkey Sevgi Adak casts light onto the historical context within which the meanings of veiling and unveiling in Turkey were formed. By shifting the focus from the high politics of the elite to the implementation of state policies the book situates the anti veiling campaigns as a space where the Kemalist reforms were negotiated, compromised and resisted by societal actors. Using previously unpublished archival material Adak reveals the intricacies of the Kemalist modernisation process and provides a nuanced reading of the gender order established in the early republic by looking at the various ways women responded to the anti veiling campaigns. A major contribution to the literature on the social history of modern Turkey the book provides a complex analysis of these campaigns which goes beyond a simple binary between liberation and oppression. The Remaking of

Republican Turkey Nicholas Danforth, 2021-06-24 Between 1945 and 1960 the birth of a multi party democracy and NATO membership radically transformed Turkey's foreign relations and domestic politics. As Turkish politicians, intellectuals and voters rethought their country's relationship with its past and its future to facilitate democratization a new alliance with the United States was formed. In this book Nicholas L. Danforth demonstrates how these transformations helped consolidate a consensus on the nature of Turkish modernity that continues to shape current political and cultural debates. He reveals the surprisingly nuanced and often paradoxical ways that both secular modernizers and their Islamist critics deployed Turkey's famous clichés about East and West as well as tradition and modernity to advance their agendas. By drawing on a diverse array of published and archival sources Danforth offers a tour de force exploration of the relationship between democracy, diplomacy, modernity, Westernization, Ottoman historiography and religion in mid century Turkey. Women, Religion, and the State in Contemporary Turkey Chiara Maritato, 2020-05-28

Tracing the centrality of women in the definition of Turkish secularism this study investigates the 2003 decision to increase the number of women officers employed by the Presidency of Religious Affairs (Diyanet). It explores how as professional religious officers the female Diyanet preachers epitomize a pious, modern and highly educated woman whose role in society has been raised to prominence. Based on extensive fieldwork in Turkey and drawing on a rich ethnography of the activities conducted by Diyanet women preachers in Istanbul Chiara Maritato disentangles the state's attempt to standardize a multifaceted female religious participation. In using the feminization of the Diyanet as a prism through which to understand the significance of a renewed presence of Islam in the Turkish public realm she casts light on a broader reformulation of religious services for women and families in Turkey and pinpoints how this pervasive moral support has been able to penetrate and reshape even secular spaces. Visualizing

Secularism and Religion Alev Cinar, Srirupa Roy, 2012-05-22 An investigation of the role of religion in the formation of secular national public spheres in the Middle East and South Asia. Insight Turkey 2018 - Winter 2018 (Vol. 20, No.1) , Today the world system is in a transition and experiencing a deep international crisis The U S has begun to oppose the basic international institutions such as the United Nations and its subsidiary organs and specialized agencies even though most of these were established with American motivation The hegemon state the U S has been alienating most of its partners and even allies The U S governments have begun to focus on the national setting and to underestimate the international one to favor unilateral policies over multilateral ones The presidency of Donald Trump has expedited this process American rejection of providing global public goods such as international security and free trade has led to a systemic crisis The relative decline of American power coincides with the persistent rise of China Those who claim that the days of Pax Americana are numbered assert that the rise of China will determine the future of the world system China has begun to expand its influence worldwide For this purpose it has established alternative political and economic international institutions such as the Shanghai Cooperation Organization SCO and the Asian Infrastructure Investment Bank AIIB Furthermore China leads the establishment of some other international organizations as well BRICS is only one of these formations challenging the political hegemony of the West led by the U S One of the most promising Chinese projects is the One Belt One Road OBOR Project aspiring to connect the East China to the West the world markets It is expected that on its completion the OBOR Project will take China to the center of the world economy and politics China has been the fastest growing economy in the world for the last thirty years Its share of the world trade has increased dramatically recording the highest share in world exports for several years China has been enjoying economic transactions with all major international actors with more than 200 partners in exports and imports However in terms of per capita income China still lags behind the advanced Western countries Furthermore according to the calculations made by the World Bank and IMF Chinese per capita income is still lower than the world average China recently began to invest in the political and military sphere in the non Western world It has military bases in its near abroad and in the African continent That is Chinese economic influence and technological leadership is supported by its political and military power In spite of the increase in Chinese military and political might it is careful not to challenge the U S and the West There are several reasons for this policy First of all China is aware of its vulnerabilities It suffers some economic and political inconsistencies and weaknesses For instance it has to fortify its regional dominance first in the South China Sea and achieve its longtime one China policy as a precondition for a possible global hegemony Second China wants to win the global rivalry without resorting to war with the current hegemon Therefore Chinese leaders refrain from opposing the American hegemony politically Even though it has introduced some international institutions the Chinese leadership does not propose a political and diplomatic alternative to the West It will take time for China to offer a full scale global leadership alternative to the world since the global hegemony requires not only economic and military power but also values and norms for cultural hegemony Lastly China is not ready to take the global responsibility since it brings high costs As long as the current American hegemony works in favor of China there is no need for China to change the course of its development In the light of these developments this issue of Insight Turkey focuses on some of the most important topics related to China s persistent rise in the international system More specifically this issue postulates on how to read and understand China s policies towards global powers i e the U S and Russia and regional powers i e India and Turkey Africa has once again returned to the attention of the global powers after being left for many years in the shadow of western politics In recent years Africa has become the center of China s public economic and military diplomacy As it may be expected China s investments in Africa are not totally welcomed by the U S Earl Conteh Morgan in his commentary focuses on the strategic rivalry between China and the U S in Africa Conteh Morgan argues that their rivalry has progressed from mild to intense with both powers increasing their activities on the continent and decreasing Africa s erstwhile marginalization Another rivalry that shapes China s foreign policies in the region is that with India Especially since the Doklam Plateau incident in mid 2017 the expectation of a possible tension between the two regional powers is ever present Taking this into consideration Bruno Ma es in his commentary ponders the economic and strategic rivalry between China and India along with a number of dimensions infrastructure border disputes sea power and trade

The Heritage of Edirne in Ottoman and Turkish Times Birgit Krawietz, Florian Riedler, 2019-12-16 Modern scholarship has not given Edirne the attention it deserves regarding its significance as one of the capitals of the Ottoman Empire This edited volume offers a reinterpretation of Edirne s history from Early Ottoman times to recent periods of the Turkish Republic Presently disconnections and discontinuities introduced by the transition from empire to nation state still characterize the image of the city and the historiography about it In contrast this volume examines how the city engages in the forming deflecting and creative appropriation of its heritage a process that has turned Edirne into a UNESCO heritage hotspot A closer historical analysis demonstrates the dissonances and contradictions that these different interpretations and uses of heritage produce From the beginning Edirne was shaped by its connectivity and relationality to other places above all to Istanbul This perspective is employed at many different levels e g with regard to its population institutions architecture infrastructures and popular culture but also regarding the imaginations Edirne triggered In sum this multi disciplinary volume boosts urban history beyond Istanbul and offers new insight into Ottoman and Turkish connectivities from the vantage point of certain key moments of Edirne s history

The Routledge International Handbook to Veils and Veiling Anna-Mari Almila,David Inglis,2017-07-06 Veils and veiling are controversial topics in social and political life generating debates across the world The veil is enmeshed within a complex web of relations encompassing politics religion and gender and conflicts over the nature of power legitimacy belief freedom agency and emancipation In recent years the veil has become both a potent and unsettling symbol and a rallying point for discourse and rhetoric concerning women Islam and the nature of politics Early studies in gender doctrine and politics of veiling appeared in the 1970s following the Islamic revival and re veiling trends that were dramatically expressed by 1979 s Iranian Islamic revolution In the 1990s research focussed on the development of both an Islamic culture industry and greater urban middle class consumption of Islamic garments and dress styles across the Islamic world In the last decade academics have studied Islamic fashion and marketing the political role of the headscarf the veiling of other religious groups such as Jews and Christians and secular forms of modest dress Using work from contributors across a range of disciplinary backgrounds and locations this book brings together these research strands to form the most comprehensive book ever conceived on this topic As such this handbook will be of interest to scholars and students of fashion gender studies religious studies politics and sociology

Honor Killings Lisa Idzikowski,2017-07-15 Honor killings are acts of vengeance committed by male relatives against female relatives who have brought dishonor upon the family This dishonor can include refusal to enter into an arranged marriage being the victim of sexual assault seeking a divorce or having social or professional interactions outside the community These crimes often go unpunished or lightly punished in cultures in which the practice is enshrined and are often reported as suicides or accidents Honor killings occur worldwide including among immigrant communities within Western democracies The articles in this volume provide multiple perspectives on how best to prevent prosecute and punish such crimes how to safeguard women s safety and freedom and how to balance tradition religion and community standards against the protection of universal human rights

Contested Memories and the Demands of the Past Catharina Raudvere,2016-12-19 This book brings together new perspectives on collective memory in the modern Muslim world It discusses how memory cultures are established and used at national levels in official history writing through the erection of monuments the fashioning of educational curricula and through media strategies as well as in the interface with both artistic expressions and popular culture in the Muslim world at large The representations of collective memory have been one of the foremost tools in national identity politics grass root mobilization theological debates over Islam and general discussions on what constitutes the modern in the Middle East as well as in Muslim diaspora environments Few if any contemporary conflicts in the region can be understood in depth without a certain focus on various uses of history memory cultures and religious meta narratives at all societal levels and in art and literature This book will be of use to students and scholars in the fields of Identity Politics Islamic Studies Media and Cultural Anthropology      Building Modern Turkey Zeynep Kezer, 2015-12-29 Building Modern Turkey offers a critical account of how the built environment mediated Turkey's transition from a pluralistic multiethnic and multireligious empire into a modern homogenized nation state following the collapse of the Ottoman Empire at the end of World War I Zeynep Kezer argues that the deliberate dismantling of ethnic and religious enclaves and the spatial practices that ensued were as integral to conjuring up a sense of national unity and facilitating the operations of a modern nation state as were the creation of a new capital Ankara and other sites and services that embodied a new modern way of life The book breaks new ground by examining both the creative and destructive forces at play in the making of modern Turkey and by addressing the overwhelming frictions during this profound transformation and their long term consequences By considering spatial transformations at different scales from the experience of the individual self in space to that of international geopolitical disputes Kezer also illuminates the concrete and performative dimensions of fortifying a political ideology one that instills in the population a sense of membership in and allegiance to the nation above all competing loyalties and ensures its longevity
