Modernization Of The Chinese Past

Edmund S. K. Fung

Modernization Of The Chinese Past:

Modernization of the Chinese Past Mabel Lee, A. D. Stefanowska, 1993 The essays of this book show the tenacity of old traditions and how by the 1990s there was a resurgence of old practices and references to the past and that these in fact were manifestations of a rejection of the Cultural Revolution Wu Tingfang (1842-1922) Linda

Pomerantz-Zhang, 1992-08-01 Wu Tingfang 1842-1922 was a contemporary of Li Hongzhang Yuan Shikai Hei and Sun Yixian Sun Yat sen all of whom were involved in China's attempt at reform and modernization in the late 19th and early 20th centuries During his time Wu was a prominent political figure participating actively in public service and political activities in Hong Kong Shanghai and Guangzhou This book is a biography of Wu and sheds considerable light on a crucial period in Chinese history

Contemporary Studies on Modern Chinese History I Zeng Yeying, 2020-10-29 The study of modern Chinese history has developed rapidly in recent decades and has seen increased exploration of new topics and innovative approaches Resulting from a special issue of Modern Chinese History Studies this volume is devoted to showcasing the healthy development of Chinese modern history studies and has already been revised twice in the original language This volume exhibits major achievements on the study of modern Chinese history and shows how the role of history was in debate transformation and re evaluation throughout this tortuous yet prosperous period Articles on eight different topics are collected from 11 prominent historians in order to represent their insights on the developmental paths of Chinese historical studies Drawing on a large number of case studies of critical historical events such as the founding of the Communist Party of China and the May 4th Movement this volume reflects on economic history and military history while moving on to explore more pioneering topics such as intellectual history and cultural history This book will be a valuable reference for scholars and students of Chinese history Contemporary Studies on Modern Chinese History II Zeng Yeying, 2020-10-29 The study of modern Chinese history has developed rapidly in recent decades and has seen increased exploration of new topics and innovative approaches. Resulting from a special issue of Modern Chinese History Studies this volume is devoted to showcasing the healthy development of Chinese modern history studies and has already been revised twice in the original language. This volume exhibits major achievements on the study of modern Chinese history and shows how the role of history was in debate, transformation and re-evaluation throughout this tortuous yet prosperous period. Articles on seven different topics are collected from over ten prominent historians in order to represent their insights on the developmental paths of Chinese historical studies. Drawing on a large number of case studies of critical historical events such as imperial China and the Chinese Workers Movement, this volume sets out to explore topics such as the history of Sino foreign relations as well as the history of workers' movements and youth movements. This book will be a valuable reference for scholars and students of Chinese history.

China's Path to Modernization Ranbir Vohra, 1992      A Brief Modern Chinese History Haipeng Zhai, Jinyi Zhang, 2020-10-20

This book is part of an initiative in cooperation with renowned Chinese publishers to make fundamental formative and influential Chinese thinkers available to a western readership, providing absorbing insights into Chinese reflections of late Qing. Haipeng Zhai and Jinyi Zhai provide us with a history of China's struggle for national independence and prosperity, reflecting the humiliation in the sinking period and the struggle during the rising period. After the Japanese aggressions against China had caused more damage to China than all previous invasions, Chinese society not only avoided the continued sinking but also laid the foundation for China's modernization and the recent success story to the present day.

History After the Three Worlds Arif Dirlik, Vinay Bahl, Peter Gran, 2000

History as a discipline faces a crisis of identity as Eurocentrism fades in a world where globalized visions compete to explain historical processes. Facing the challenge squarely, this volume—comprising specialists on Asia, Africa and Latin America—explores the state of historical analysis in various world regions and appraises current views on what defines and challenges historical knowledge. It is widely accepted that Eurocentrism no longer seems acceptable in a world where others are reasserting their own notions of past and future. The post-World War II spatialities that guided both historical analysis and the division of labor in historical work are in the process of disappearing into more globalized visions. Constituencies left out of history in the past are making demands for the recognition of their historical presence. History as epistemology is under attack as a marker of Eurocentric modernity from non-historical ways of thinking as well as from ideologies of postmodernism that deny to history its claims to truth. Indeed, the current situation in the field has been described by one distinguished historian as a cacophonous confusion. The challenge historians face is how to imagine new ways of writing history that overcome this confusion without falling back upon ideological and methodological prejudices that reproduce the problems of the past in new guises. The contributors discuss how these challenges are voiced and met in their different areas of specialization. Unsurprising in a volume that addresses a variety of regions and issues that are not only technically historiographical but also deeply cultural and political.

the authors differ in their appraisal of the challenges presented by globalization postmodernism or postcolonialism Yet they are united in their recognition of the validity of historical ways of knowing and their reaffirmation of the importance of history in grasping contemporary cultural and political problems It is because history is entangled in a Eurocentric modernity that in a postmodern world it provides the medium for articulating alternatives to Eurocentrism_and to history itself

Contemporary Studies on Modern Chinese History III Zeng Yeying,2021-03-14 The study of modern Chinese history has developed rapidly in recent decades and has seen increased exploration of new topics and innovative approaches Resulting from a special issue of Modern Chinese History Studies this volume is devoted to showcasing the healthy development of Chinese modern history studies and has already been revised twice in the original language This three volume set exhibits major achievements in the study of modern Chinese history and shows how the role of history has been in debate transformation and re evaluation throughout this tortuous yet prosperous period This volume investigates the critical movements such as the Taiping Heavenly Kingdom Movement and the Chinese People s War of Resistance against Japanese aggression that contribute to the establishment of the People s Republic of China In addition it includes valuable summaries of various perspectives in modern Chinese history studies such as the translation of overseas studies and pioneering topics that historians have examined between 2009 and 2019 This book will benefit scholars and students of Chinese history especially those who are interested in modern Chinese history

Great Dragon Fantasy, The: A Lacanian Analysis Of Contemporary Chinese Thought Guanjun Wu,2014-05-21 China has undergone a unique path of development in the post Maoist era Especially the last decade witnessed China s rapid rise to economic wealth and superpower status vis vis the severe developmental predicaments of the West financial crises socio political turbulences etc This book analyzes how the leading Chinese thinkers understand China s prosperity and rapid development today and whether there is any hidden mechanism that has been playing a crucial role of forming contemporary Chinese thinkers shared passionate endeavor of resuscitating classical Chinese ideas and thus shows how the fervor for discovering essential characteristics of Chinese thought reveals a hidden psychological mechanism

A Year Since the Return of History: A New Cold War Richard Sakwa,Li Bennich-Björkman,Ziya Öniş,Nicolai N. Petro,İlter Turan,Anders Wivel,James A. Russell,Sırma Altun,Emre Demir,Greg Simons,Jonathan Beloff,Oğul Tuna,Luca Cinciripini,Gün Ünal,Aybars Arda Kılıçer,Enes Özcan,Shovkat Jabarova ,Ali Demircioğlu,2023-03-01 The last one year proved itself to be a very tough year and it brought many new challenges for the international relations Among these new challenges the most striking one is probably the Russia s unleashing a war of aggression on Ukraine As Russia s invasion stepped up on the 24 February 2022 many Western experts and policymakers predicted that the Ukrainian armed forces wouldn t be able to defend Kyiv and that it would fall to the invaders before the month ended Nonetheless the government and people of Ukraine are still fighting and you can see evidence of this everywhere you walk in Kyiv thanks to the flag of free Ukraine flying from rooftops It is clear that we are entering a new era in international relations one that has revived the horrors and catastrophes of the past and paved the way for The Return of History regardless of the outcome of the conflict in Ukraine Now that a full year has passed since the beginning of the attack TPQ has devoted this issue to exploring the implications of the Russian invasion of Ukraine on many spheres ranging from energy security to agriculture At the same time we are raising the question of whether the current era deserves to be classified as the new Cold War If so who are the competing parties and in what ways is this new Cold War differs from the one that ended in 1991 with the United States and the liberal world emerging victorious To come up with sufficient and informative answers for these critical questions we assembled a large number of extremely valuable articles written by eminent researchers policymakers journalists and young experts All around the world from the United

States to Russia and from Turkey to Sweden manuscripts came in from our contributors Hence it is with great pleasure that we provide you with this very qualified issue which investigates several facets of the emerging global order from an international perspective Professor Richard Sakwa investigates the causes of the resurgence of the Cold War and examines the differences between it with the original confrontation He thinks the Cold War mentality is once again ruling world relations These arguments suggest that the hope that the conclusion of the Cold War in 1989 would usher in a more universal and permanent peace has largely been disproved instead by 2014 the centennial of the beginning of World War I Europe was once again in the grips of bloody war The United States and the rest of the Political West as it had been reshaped by the Cold War remained on one side On the other hand he claims that a considerably diminished Russia has replaced the defunct Soviet Union and that this is happening alongside a China that is determined to regain its great power position Professor Li Bennich Björkman argues that Russia is using bombings attacks and cruelty to obliterate Ukraine's history As a result she sees the current conflict as a struggle to maintain the recollection of what a peaceful Ukraine looked like smelt like tasted like and felt like She contends that a split between Russia and Ukraine is inconceivable for Putin because of Ukraine's strategic importance to Russia Ukrainian President Leonid Kravchuk understood this as early as 1991 She says that he and other Ukrainian leaders sought to defend Ukrainian territory while assuring Moscow that amicable ties remained a possibility Russia she complains has never undergone a comparable transformation Professor Ziyani who believes that we are in the midst of a Neo Cold War focuses more on the conflict between the West and the Rest He claims that the clash between democratic and authoritarian capitalism the defining conflict of the new era was exacerbated by Russia's invasion of Ukraine According to him the concerted effort of Western nations to end the conflict was evidence of the resurgence of the democratic club of Western governments and their allies G7 plus He also argues that a significant schism in opinion has developed between the West and the Rest as a direct result of the War He claims that the Russian War in Ukraine ushers in a new era in the post Western world one in which territorial conquests are accepted as the norm setting the path for more armed clashes in a globe already riven by war Professor Nicolai N Petro maintains that the healing of the Ukrainian people is often forgotten among the numerous conflicting narratives that drive the war in Ukraine He argues that this is because the West is ignoring the Other Ukraine whose dissatisfaction with the actions of the Ukrainian government since 2014 has stoked tensions According to him the West's reaction to Russia's incursion has focused on punishing Moscow but hasn't done anything to ease the tensions within Ukraine His work indicates that permanent societal harmony in Ukraine and peace in Europe can be achieved only via reconciliation inside Ukraine We encourage you to learn more about A Year Since the Return of History A New Cold War On behalf of Transatlantic Policy Quarterly I would like to express my gratitude to all the contributors who committed a significant amount of effort and work The TPQ team has had a great time putting together this special issue An important acknowledgment goes to our premium corporate sponsor Tpra In addition we would like to thank
