Fergusson, Eric R. Bentley, 1952 Essays in Modern Literary Criticism Ray Benedict West, 1960 A Reference Guide for English Studies Michael J. Marcuse, 1990-01-01 This ambitious undertaking is designed to acquaint students teachers and researchers with reference sources in any branch of English studies which Marcuse defines as all those subjects and lines of critical and scholarly inquiry presently pursued by members of university departments of English language and literature Within each of 24 major sections Marcuse lists and annotates bibliographies guides reviews of research encyclopedias dictionaries journals and reference histories The annotations and various indexes are models of clarity and usefulness and cross references are liberally supplied where appropriate Although cost conscious librarians will probably consider the several other excellent literary bibliographies in print such as James L Harner s Literary Research Guide Modern Language Assn of America 1989 larger academic libraries will want Marcuse s volume Jack Bales Mary Washington Coll Lib Fredericksburg Va Library Journal The New Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature: Volume 4, 1900-1950 George Watson, I. R. Willison, 1972-12-07 More than fifty specialists have contributed to this new edition of volume 4 of The Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature The design of the original work has established itself so firmly as a workable solution to the immense problems of analysis articulation and coordination that it has been retained in all its essentials for the new edition The task of the new contributors has been to revise and integrate the lists of 1940 and 1957 to add materials of the following decade to correct and refine the bibliographical details already available and to re shape the whole according to a new series of conventions devised to give greater clarity and consistency to the entries The Moderns John Freeman, 1906 Theory into Practice: A Reader in Modern Literary Criticism Ryan Johnson, 1992-08-25 Students of literary theory have been well provided for by the publication of various Readers in literary theory However the relation between theory and critical practice still presents a problem to the general reader This book brings together essays by major critics which apply theory to practice in an accessible way This will help a general literary readership gain a better understanding of the various types of theoretical criticism see theory being applied to practice powerfully and persuasively and encourage students to use theory in their own critical writing Essays in Modern Literary Criticism Ray Benedict West, 2003-01 Modern Critical Theory and Classical Literature Irene J. F. De Jong, J. John Patrick Sullivan, 1994 In recent decades the study of literature in Europe and the Americas has been profoundly influenced by modern critical theory in its various forms whether Structuralism or Deconstructionism Hermeneutics Reader Response Theory or Rezeptionsästhetik Semiotics or Narratology Marxist feminist neo historical psychoanalytical or other perspectives Whilst the value and validity of such approaches to literature is still a matter of some dispute not least among classical scholars they have had a substantial impact on the study both of classical literatures and of the mentalite of Greece and Rome In an attempt to clarify issues in the debate the eleven contributors to this volume were asked to produce a representative collection of essays to illustrate the applicability of some of the new approaches to Greek and Latin authors or literary forms and problems The scope of the volume was deliberately limited to literary investigation broadly construed of Greek and Roman authors Broader areas of the history and culture of the ancient world impinge in the essays but are not their central focus The volume also contains a separate bibliography offering for the first time a complete bibliography of classical studies which incorporate modern critical theory Modern Essays John M. Avent,1924 Essays on Modern Literary Criticism Ray Benedict West,1958 Modern Genre Theory David Duff,2014-09-11 Since Aristotle genre has been one of the fundamental concepts of literary theory and much of the world s literature and criticism has been shaped by ideas about the nature function and value of literary genres Modern developments in critical theory however prompted in part by the iconoclastic practices of modern writers and the emergence of new media such as film and television have put in question traditional categories and challenged the assumptions on which earlier genre theory was based This has led not just to a reinterpretation of individual genres and the development of new classifications but also to a radically new understanding of such key topics as the mixing and evolution of genres generic hierarchies and genre systems the politics and sociology of genres and the relations between genre and gender This anthology the first of its kind in English charts these fascinating developments Through judicious selections from major twentieth century genre theorists including Yury Tynyanov Vladimir Propp Mikhail Bakhtin Hans Robert Jauss Rosalie Colie Fredric Jameson Tzvetan Todorov Gerard Genette and Jacques Derrida it demonstrates the central role that notions of genre have played in Russian Formalism structuralism and post structuralism reception theory and various modes of historical criticism Each essay is accompanied by a detailed headnote and the volume opens with a lucid introduction emphasising the international and interdisciplinary character of modern debates about genre Also included are an annotated bibliography and a glossary of key terms making this an indispensable resource for students and anyone interested in genre studies or literary theory Bulletin of the Public Library of the City of Boston Boston Public Library,1918
