The musical settings studied hold up a mirror to the general development of psalmody concerning practices of organum diverse regional forms of fauxbourdon cantus firmus composition free imitation parody fugue quodlibet monody and many other compositional techniques where the unique features of the psalm tone have necessitated modification of existing practices. The conclusions drawn reveal a musico liturgical tradition that was not in real danger of extinction until the general decline of Western liturgy that followed in the eighteenth century at which point the historiography of the tonus peregrinus became a factor
