   Contemporary Spanish cinema and genre Jay Beck,Vicente Rodríguez Ortega,2021-06-15 This volume is the first English language collection exclusively dedicated to the study of genre in relation to Spanish cinema Providing a variety of critical perspectives the collection gives the reader a thorough account of the relationship between Spanish cinema and genre drawing on case studies of several of the most remarkable Spanish films in recent years The book analyses the significant changes in the aesthetics production and reception of Spanish film from 1990 onwards It brings together European and

North American scholars to establish a critical dialogue on the topics under discussion while providing multiple perspectives on the concepts of national cinemas and genre theory In recent years film scholarship has attempted to negotiate the tension between the nationally specific and the internationally ubiquitous discussing how globalisation has influenced film making and surrounding cultural practice These broader social concerns have prompted scholars to emphasise a redefinition of national cinemas beyond strict national boundaries and to pay attention to the transnational character of any national site of film production and reception This collection provides a thorough investigation of contemporary Spanish cinema within a transnational framework by positing cinematic genres as the meeting spaces between a variety of diverse forces that necessarily operate within but also across territorial spaces Paying close attention to the specifics of the Spanish cinematic and social panorama the essays investigate the transnational economic cultural and aesthetic forces at play in shaping Spanish film genres today Spanish Popular Cinema Antonio Lázaro Reboll,Andrew Willis,2004-09-04 This is the first collection in English to focus exclusively on the various forms of popular film produced in Spain and to acknowledge the variety range and depth of Spanish cinema Contributors from across Hispanic media and cultural studies explore a range of genres from the musicals of the 1930s and 1940s to contemporary horror movies historical epics of the 1940s and 1950s and contemporary representations of the Spanish Civil War The book includes reappraisals of key popular directors such as Luis Garcia Berlanga and Antonio Mercero as well as critical analyses of celebrated stars like Marisol It provides innovative consideration of the promotion and reception of horror in the 1960s recollections of cinema going in Madrid and reflections on successful recent works such as Abre los Ojos and Solas Spanish Cinema in the Global Context Samuel Amago,2013-09-11 Across a broad spectrum of media markets and national contexts self reflexivity continues to be a favored narrative mode with wide ranging functions In this book Amago argues that in addition to making visible industry and production concerns within the film text reflexive aesthetics have a cartographic function that serves to map the place of a film geographic and cultural within the global cinemascape and thus to bring into sharper relief images of the national Focusing on films in the contemporary Spanish context that in some way reflect back on themselves and the processes of their own production that purposefully blur the distinction between reality and fiction or that draw attention to the various modes of cinematic exhibition and reception Amago proposes ways in which these movies can be employed to understand Spanish national cinemas today as imbedded within a dynamic global system The Cinema of Spain and Portugal Alberto Mira,Alberto Mira Nouselles,2005 Providing an overview of Spanish and Portuguese cinema this title contains 24 essays each on a separate seminal film from the region profiling work from the likes of Pedro Almod var and Jo o Cesar Monteiro Constructing Spain Nathan Richardson,2012 Does fiction do more than just represent space Can our experiences with fictional storytelling be in themselves spatial In Constructing Spain The Re imagination of Space and Place in Fiction and Film Nathan Richardson explores relations between cultural representation and spatial transformation across fifty years of Spanish culture Beginning in 1953 the year Spanish space was officially reopened to Western thought and capital and culminating in 2003 the year of Aznar s unpopular involvement of his country in the second Iraq War Richardson traces in popular and critically acclaimed fiction and film an evolution in Spanish storytelling that while initially representative in nature increasingly engages its audience in spatial practices that go beyond mere perception or conception of local material geographies In original readings of films by Luis Berlanga Luis Bu uel Alex de la Iglesia Alejandro Amen bar and Julio Medem and novels by Juan Goytisolo Antonio Mu oz Molina and Javier Mar as Richardson shows this formal evolution as a necessary response to developments restorations and transformations of local landscapes that resulted during these years from various human migrations tourist invasions urban development plans resurgent nationalisms and finally globalization As these changes occur Richardson traces a shift in the works studied from mere representation of spatial change toward actual engagement with shifting physical and social geographies as they inch ever closer toward the production of an actual spatial experience for their audiences In the final chapters of this book Richardson offers in depth and highly original readings of the storytelling projects of Medem and Mar as in particular showing how these two artists invite readers to not only reconceive hegemonic notions of space and place but to practice alternative notions of being in place In these final readings Constructing Spain points to the newest developments in contemporary Spanish narrative and film a rise of new grammars of creation to challenge the ongoing capital driven creative destruction of globalized Spanish geography Golden Age Drama in Contemporary Spain Duncan Wheeler,2012-04-15 This is the first monograph on the performance and reception of sixteenth and seventeenth century national drama in contemporary Spain which attempts to remedy the traditional absence of performance based approaches in Golden Age studies The book contextualises the socio historical background to the modern day performance of the country s three major Spanish baroque playwrights Calder n de la Barca Lope de Vega and Tirso de Molina whilst also providing detailed aesthetic analyses of individual stage and screen adaptations Bored to Distraction Claudia Schaefer,2012-02-01 Popular culture in the 1990s especially cinema can be considered a showcase for the accumulated hopes and fears of the twentieth century From the promise of material goods to the profusion of despair from devastating tragedy to exaggerated rapture a dizzying array of images assaults the eye Drawing on recent films from Mexico and Spain Bored to Distraction navigates this visual terrain from melodrama to horror looking for what if anything might be excessive enough to rouse us from our comfortable everyday routines The Politics of Age and Disability in Contemporary Spanish Film Matthew J. Marr,2013 The Politics of Age and Disability in Contemporary Spanish Filmexamines the onscreen construction of adolescent elderly and disabled subjects in Spanish cinema from 1992 to the present Applying a dual lens of film analysis and theory drawn from the allied fields of youth age and disability studies this study is set both within and against a conversation on cultural diversity with respect to gender sexual and ethnic identity which has driven not only much of the past decade s most visible and fruitful scholarship on representation in Spanish film but also the broader parameters of discourse on post Transition Spain in the humanities Presenting an engaging and heretofore under explored interdisciplinary approach to images of multiculturalism in what has emerged as one of recent Spain s most vibrant areas of cultural production this book brings a fresh while still complementary critical sensibility to the field of contemporary Peninsular film studies through its detailed discussion of six contemporary films by Salvador Garc a Ruiz Achero Ma as Santiago Aguilar Luis Guridi Marcos Carnevale Alejandro Amen bar and Pedro Almod var and supporting reference to the production of other prominent and emerging filmmakers An Open Window Linda Channah Ehrlich,2000 The first book in English exclusively devoted to an analysis of the films of one of Spain s most important film directors V ctor Erice Drawing on original essays reprints and new translations from an international group of writers this anthology will help open a window into a deeper appreciation of Erice s three haunting feature length films
