On the Irish Waterfront James T. Fisher, 2011-01-15 Site of the world s busiest and most lucrative harbor throughout the first half of the twentieth century the Port of New York was also the historic preserve of Irish American gangsters politicians longshoremen s union leaders and powerful Roman Catholic pastors This is the demimonde depicted to stunning effect in Elia Kazan s On the Waterfront 1954 and into which James T Fisher takes readers in this remarkable and engaging historical account of the classic film s backstory Fisher introduces readers to the real Father Pete Barry featured in On the Waterfront John M Pete Corridan a crusading priest committed to winning union democracy and social justice for the port s dockworkers and their families A Jesuit labor school instructor not a parish priest Corridan was on but not of Manhattan s West Side Irish waterfront His ferocious advocacy was resisted by the very men he sought to rescue from the violence and criminality that rendered the port a jungle an outlaw frontier in the words of investigative reporter Malcolm Johnson Driven off the waterfront Corridan forged creative and spiritual alliances with men like Johnson and Budd Schulberg the screenwriter who worked with Corridan for five years to turn Johnson s Pulitzer Prize winning 1948 newspaper expos into a movie Fisher s detailed account of the waterfront priest s central role in the film s creation challenges standard views of the film as a post facto justification for Kazan and Schulberg s testimony as ex communists before the House Committee on Un American Activities On the Irish Waterfront is also a detailed social history of the New York New Jersey waterfront from the rise of Irish American entrepreneurs and political bosses during the World War I era to the mid 1950s when the emergence of a revolutionary new mode of cargo shipping signaled a radical reorganization of the port This book explores the conflicts experienced and accommodations made by an insular Irish Catholic community forced to adapt its economic political and religious lives to powerful forces of change both local and global in scope New York Magazine ,1986-03-31 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine s consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea The Consuming Geographies of Food Hillary J. Shaw, 2014-04-24 The consumption and distribution of food as well as its production has become a major public policy issue over the past few decades what we eat is no longer merely a private matter but carries significant externalities for wider society Its increasing significance within the public arena implies a dissonance regarding the boundaries of food where do we draw the line between food as private and food as public What are the rights of society to impinge upon individual food consumption and what conflicts will ensue when this boundary is disputed The Consuming Geographies of Food explores these multiple issues of food across different regions of the world from the consumer s perspective It uniquely explicates the factors that lead customers towards certain typologies of consumption and towards certain types of retailing offering a comprehensive review of the obesity problem the phenomenon of food deserts and the issue of exclusion from a healthy diet It then considers the effects of food on the consumer the dynamic relationship between food and people and the issue of food exclusion before concluding with possible futures for food consumption from low technology projects to high technology scenarios Based on original research into food access ethics and consumption in both developed and less developed countries this book will be of interest to students researchers and academics in the fields of geography economics hospitality health marketing nutrition and sociology
