Content-Based Foreign Language Teaching Laurent Cammarata,2016-02-26 Pushing the field forward in critically important ways this book offers clear curricular directions and pedagogical guidelines to transform foreign language classrooms into environments where stimulating intellectual curiosity and tapping critical thinking abilities are as important as developing students linguistic repertoires The case is made for content based instruction an approach to making FL classrooms sites where intellectually stimulating explorations are the norm rather than the exception The book explicitly describes in detail how teachers could and should use content based instruction explains how integration of content and language aims can be accomplished within a program identifies essential strategies to support this curricular and pedagogical approach discusses issues of assessment within this context and more Content Based Foreign Language Teaching provides theoretical perspectives and empirical evidence for reforming curricula and instruction describes models and curriculum planning strategies that support implementation of well balanced FL programs explores the transformative potential of critical pedagogy in the FL classroom and offers illustrations of secondary and post secondary language programs that have experimented with alternative approaches Advancing alternatives to conventional curriculum design this volume posits meaning oriented approaches as necessary to create language programs that make a great difference in the overall educational lives of learners

Teaching Global History Alan J. Singer, 2012-04-27 Teaching Global History challenges prospective and beginning social studies teachers to formulate their own views about what is important to know in global history and why It explains how to organize the curriculum around broad social studies concepts and themes and student questions about humanity history and the contemporary world All chapters include lesson ideas a sample lesson plan with activity sheets primary source documents and helpful charts graphs photographs and maps High school students responses are woven in throughout Additional material corresponding to each chapter is posted online at http://people.hofstra.edu/alan_j_singer The traditional curriculum tends to highlight the Western heritage and to race through epochs and regions leaving little time for an in depth exploration of concepts and historical themes for the evaluation of primary and secondary sources and for students to draw their own historical conclusions Offering an alternative to such pre packaged textbook outlines and materials this text is a powerful resource for promoting thoughtful reflection and debate about what the global history curriculum should be and how to teach it
