Animal Rights Hilda Kean, 1998-08-01 In the late twentieth century animals are news Parliamentary debates protests against fox hunting and television programs like Animal Hospital all focus on the way in which we treat animals and on what that says about our own humanity As vegetarianism becomes ever more popular and animal experimentation more controversial it is time to trace the background to contemporary debates and to situate them in a broader historical context Hilda Kean looks at the cultural and social role of animals from 1800 to the present at the way in which visual images and myths captured the popular imagination and encouraged sympathy for animals and outrage at their exploitation From early campaigns against the beating of cattle and ill treatment of horses to concern for dogs in war and cats in laboratories she explores the relationship between popular images and public debate and action She also illustrates how interest in animal rights and welfare was closely aligned with campaigns for political and social reform by feminists radicals and socialists A thoughtful effective and well written book The Scotsman It could hardly be more timely and its wonderful material is bound to provoke reflection The Independent A work of great interest Sunday Telegraph Lively impressively researched and well written a book that is timely and valuable Times Literary Supplement A pleasing balance of anecdote and analysis Times Higher Educational Supplement

Nesting Roisín O'Donnell, 2025-02-18 In this beautiful urgent and ultimately uplifting novel by a rising Irish literary star comes a heart pounding life affirming story about one woman trying to leave her marriage and start over On a bright spring afternoon Ciara Fay makes a split second decision that will change everything Grabbing an armful of clothes off the clothesline she straps her two young daughters into her car and drives away Head spinning all she knows for certain is that home is no longer safe and that this time when she leaves she must stay away On the surface she has a perfect life her husband Ryan is a good provider sometimes even kind and attentive from a nice Irish family and they have another baby on the way But he also monitors Ciara s every move flies into unpredictable rages where he convinces her she can do nothing right and has isolated her from work friends and her beloved family Was fleeing the right thing to do With no job and no support Ciara struggles to provide a sense of normalcy for her little girls Facing a broken housing system they move into a hotel room on a floor reserved for women like her eating takeout washing their clothes in the bathroom sink and building a community with the other residents Ryan meanwhile wages a relentless campaign to win her back and Ciara wavers He never hit her after all and don t the girls need a stable home For fans of Claire Keegan and Louise Kennedy Rois n O Donnell s extraordinary debut creates a devastating and suspenseful portrait of gaslighting and emotional abuse and even better a triumphant story about family love and finding a new place to nest

Teaching Fiction in the Primary School Dennis Carter,2013-12-19 Designed for practising and student teachers working with a wide range of narrative fiction in infant and junior classrooms this text highlights the creative and expressive aspects of children s engagement with literature and provides Literacy Hour projects for each age group

Nigel Kneale and Horror Derek Johnston,2025-04-01 Nigel Kneale s writing career spanned the second half of the twentieth century arguably contributing to the shape of British television drama as well as having lingering influence in science fiction and horror This collection focuses on Kneale s horror writing particularly in film and television Taking a number of different academic perspectives the chapters approach questions of medium adaptation genre and style emphasising the role that time plays in Kneale s horror and how he connected to wider cultural concerns The work covered includes more famous productions such as the Quatermass serials The Woman in Black and Nineteen Eighty Four as well as some that have received less attention including the social horror of Kneale s film adaptations of Look Back in Anger and The Entertainer lost productions such as The Chopper and Bam Pow Zap and unproduced work such as The Big Big Giggle Drawing on archival sources including Kneale s own archives alongside the productions themselves the collection portrays Kneale as a writer deeply concerned with society and social change with the potential and responsibility of the media and not as a horror writer but a writer deeply concerned with the horrific

Literature and the Posthuman Zoe Jaques,2015-02-11 An investigation of identity formation in children s literature this book brings together children s literature and recent critical concerns with posthuman identity to argue that children s fiction offers sophisticated interventions into debates about what it means to be human and in particular about humanity s relationship to animals and the natural world In complicating questions of human identity ecology gender and technology Jaques engages with a multifaceted posthumanism to understand how philosophy can emerge from children s fantasy disclosing how such fantasy can build upon earlier traditions to represent complex issues of humanness to younger audiences Interrogating the place of the human through the non human whether animal or mechanical leads this book to have interpretations that radically depart from the critical tradition which in its concerns with the socialization and representation of the child has ignored larger epistemologies of humanness The book considers canonical texts of children s literature alongside recent bestsellers and films locating texts such as Gulliver s Travels 1726 Pinocchio 1883 and the Alice books 1865 1871 as important works in the evolution of posthuman ideas This study provides radical new readings of children s literature and demonstrates that the genre offers sophisticated interventions into the nature boundaries and dominion of humanity

A DELIGHT JULIA DONALDSON GLORIOUSLY ENTERTAINING TOM HOLLAND Teaching The Primary Curriculum Johnston, Jane, Charter, Mark, Bell, Derek, 2002-01-01 What is good teaching and learning in the primary school How can teachers manage the whole curriculum and still educate the whole child and raise standards How can teachers be in critical dialogue with each other and with the curriculum in their search for improvement What is the role of the teacher in the new primary curriculum This wide ranging book seeks to address these questions and to provide a comprehensive overview of the whole primary curriculum It aims to develop teaching throughout primary education and to support teachers in the effective delivery of the curriculum There is a particular focus on recent changes in primary education The contributors consider how teaching methodologies need to adapt to these changes to meet the needs of children and raise standards in school Throughout the book emphasis is placed on effective teaching and learning methodologies the importance of quality interaction in the classroom the role of the teacher in teaching and learning and the experience of the child Exemplars of good teaching are provided in each chapter as well as thought provoking ideas for good practice Activities for Building Character and Social-Emotional Learning Grades 1-2 Katia S. Petersen, 2012-04-01 Build attitudes of respect and caring reduce problem behaviors empower students to solve problems and educate the whole child with this flexible user friendly activity guide The lessons literature based connections allow teachers to build in rather than add on social emotional learning SEL throughout the day Field tested in classrooms across the United States these activities when fully implemented have resulted in improved school climate greater parent engagement increased academic achievement and reduction in discipline referrals Features of the book include 100 easy to implement year round activities that integrate into the daily curriculum in all subject areas Monthly themes focused on empathy bullying prevention teamwork decision making and more Concise lesson formats Read Discuss Do Relate Discussion and writing prompts Built in assessments Digital content includes all of the book's reproducible forms The European Jews, Patriotism and the Liberal State, 1789-1939 David Aberbach, 2013 The fragility of the liberal democratic state after 1789 is illustrated in the history of the European Jews from the French Revolution to the Holocaust Emancipation and hope of emancipation amongst the European Jewish population created a plethora of Jewish identities and forms of patriotism This book takes the original approach of studying European Jewish patriotism as a whole with particular attention given to creative literature Despite their growing awareness of racial genocidal hatred most European Jews between 1789 and 1939 tended to be patriotic toward the countries of their citizenship an attitude reflected in the literature of the time Yet the common assumption among emancipated Jews that anti-Semitism would fade in a world governed by reason proved false For millions of European Jews the infinite possibilities they associated with emancipation came to nothing The Jewish experience exposed many of the weaknesses and failings of the liberal multicultural state and demonstrated that its survival cannot be taken for granted but is dependent on vigilance and struggle By focusing on Jewish patriotism from 1789-1939 this book explores the nature of the liberal state how it can fail and the conditions needed for its survival Tale, Performance, and Culture in EFL Storytelling with Young Learners Licia Masoni, 2019-10-10 This book analyses the interplay between storytelling with specific reference to oral retellings of authentic picture books language learning culture and emotions in the EFL pre school and primary classroom Using a multidisciplinary approach it applies oral narrative studies as well as research on shared reading with children and literature in picture books to foreign and second language teaching theory and practice while also discussing the impact of EFL storytelling on intercultural understanding Although specifically conceived for teaching English as a foreign language most contents apply to foreign second language teaching to young children in general Writers Directory NA NA, 2016-03-05

The Oxford Companion to Children's Literature Daniel Hahn, 2015-03-26 The last thirty years have witnessed one of the most fertile periods in the history of children's books the flowering of imaginative illustration and writing the Harry Potter phenomenon the rise of young adult and crossover fiction and books that tackle extraordinarily difficult subjects The Oxford Companion to Children's Literature provides an indispensable and fascinating reference guide to the world of children's literature Its 3 500 entries cover every genre from fairy tales to chapbooks school stories to science fiction comics to children's hymns Originally published in 1983 the Companion has been comprehensively revised and updated by Daniel Hahn Over 900 new entries bring the book right up to date A whole generation of new authors and illustrators are showcased with books like Dogger The Hunger Games and Twilight making their first appearance There are articles on developments such as manga fan fiction and non print publishing and there is additional information on prizes and prizewinners This accessible A to Z is the first place to look for information about the authors illustrators printers publishers educationalists and others who have influenced the development of children's literature as well as the stories and characters at their centre Written both to entertain and to instruct the highly acclaimed Oxford Companion to Children's Literature is a reference work that no one interested in the world of children's books should be without Finding Eliza Larissa Behrendt, 2016-01-27 A vital Aboriginal perspective on colonial storytelling Indigenous lawyer and writer Larissa Behrendt has long been fascinated by the story of Eliza Fraser who was purportedly captured by the local Butchulla people after she was shipwrecked on their island in 1836 In this deeply personal book Behrendt uses Eliza's tale as a starting point to interrogate how Aboriginal people and indigenous people of other countries have been portrayed in their colonizers stories Citing works as diverse as Robinson Crusoe and Coonardoo she explores the tropes in these accounts such as the supposed promiscuity of Aboriginal women the Europeans fixation on cannibalism and the myth of the noble savage Ultimately Behrendt shows how these stories not only reflect the values of their storytellers but also reinforce those values which in Australia led to the dispossession of Aboriginal people and the laws enforced against them Proceedings of the 4th Austrian Students' Conference of Linguistics Peter Anreiter, Irina Windhaber, 2013-07-26 This collection of articles contains the English contributions to the 4th Austrian Students Conference of Linguistics sterreichische Studierenden Konferenz der Linguistik SKL which was held in November
