Uncharted Depths Kiera Vaclavik, 2017-12-02 The descent to the underworld is one of our oldest stories It recurs in the most influential texts of early European literature the Odyssey the Aeneid the Inferno and no less so in the classics of children's literature Vaclavik shows that retellings for young readers certainly shift emphases working the legend through transformations of all kinds but also that much of the traditional katabasis story remains firmly in place The critical study of children's literature remains a relatively new field in which such fundamental presences have gone largely unnoticed As Vaclavik demonstrates many novels which remain lively and resonant for adult readers richly repay critical attention And if the incomparable explorer's tales of Jules Verne H Rider Haggard Hector Malot and even Lewis Carroll have proved durable beyond all expectations one reason may be that there is no lure like that of the underworld and none harder to escape Kiera Vaclavik is Lecturer in French and Comparative Literature at Queen Mary University of London

Getting Children Writing Simon Brownhill, 2013-05-13 This is a fantastic book which provides creative and practical suggestions of how to engage all children in writing Sarah Martin Denham Senior Lecturer in Primary Education University of Sunderland This book is a practical guide designed to stimulate story writing in the early years and primary classroom It offers a collection of novel and effective Ideas which can be used by educators to energise excite and motivate children to willingly write stories across the 3-11 age phase Each chapter offers creative and innovative Ideas to get children writing stories including how to help children see the point of story writing how speaking and listening reading and phonics can be utilised to enhance written stories how technology can facilitate refreshing story writing how story writing can be physically interactive By combining theory with practice this book
