Nyrop, 1975

Pakistan Affairs, 1949 Modernism and the Art of Muslim South Asia Iftikhar Dadi, 2010-05-15 This pioneering work traces the emergence of the modern and contemporary art of Muslim South Asia in relation to transnational modernism and in light of the region's intellectual cultural and political developments Art historian Iftikhar Dadi here explores the art and writings of major artists men and women ranging from the late colonial period to the era of independence and beyond He looks at the stunningly diverse artistic production of key artists associated with Pakistan including Abdur Rahman Chughtai Zainul Abedin Shakir Ali Zubeida Agha Sadequain Rasheed Araeen and Naiza Khan Dadi shows how beginning in the 1920s these artists addressed the challenges of modernity by translating historical and contemporary intellectual conceptions into their work reworking traditional approaches to the classical Islamic arts and engaging the modernist approach towards subjective individuality in artistic expression In the process they dramatically reconfigured the visual arts of the region By the 1930s these artists had embarked on a sustained engagement with international modernism in a context of dizzying social and political change that included decolonization the rise of mass media and developments following the national independence of India and Pakistan in 1947 Bringing new insights to such concepts as nationalism modernism cosmopolitanism and tradition Dadi underscores the powerful impact of transnationalism during this period and highlights the artists growing embrace of modernist and contemporary artistic practice in order to address the challenges of the present era

Gandhi: Maker of Modern India? Martin Deming Lewis, 1968 Mohammed Ali Jinnah, maker of modern Pakistan Sheila McDonough, 1970-01-01 Syncrisis, the Dynamics of Health, 1970 Syncrisis, 1975 An analytic series on the interactions of health and socioeconomic development Religious Fundamentalism in the Contemporary World Santosh C. Saha, 2004-01-01 Today new and ever more pernicious forms of terrorist violence threaten the world Because these new forms of violence are so often linked to religious radicalism modern terrorism has challenged the secular ethics of contemporary civil society There is a pressing need to understand modern religious movements that have added militancy and belligerence as fundamental elements of religious practice Contributors to this volume painstakingly tackle the question of how to define the contours of current religious fundamentalism as they examine the private and public postures of fundamentalist rhetoric the importance of its regional variants and the damage it can do to regional and national education systems Their analysis tracks trends in religious movements that aspire to radicalize reform and violently topple governments and nations while highlighting the difference between fundamentalist interpretations and other longstanding juridical political and intellectual traditions

Revisiting India's Partition Amritjit Singh, Nalini Iyer, Rahul K. Gairola, 2016-06-15 Revisiting India's Partition New Essays on Memory Culture and Politics brings together scholars from across the globe to provide diverse perspectives on the continuing impact of the 1947 division of India on the eve of independence from the British Empire The Partition caused a million deaths and displaced well over 10 million people The trauma of brutal violence and displacement still haunts the survivors as well as their children and grandchildren Nearly 70 years after this cataclysmic event Revisiting India's Partition explores the impact of the Long Partition a concept developed by Vazira Zamindar to underscore the ongoing effects of the 1947 Partition upon all South Asian nations In our collection we extend and expand Zamindar's notion of the Long Partition to examine the cultural political economic and psychological impact the Partition continues to have on communities throughout the South Asian diaspora The nineteen interdisciplinary essays in this book provide a multi vocal multi focal transnational commentary on the Partition in relation to motifs communities and regions in South Asia that have received scant attention in previous scholarship In their individual essays contributors offer new engagements on South Asia in relation to several topics including decolonization and post colony economic development and nation building cross border skirmishes and terrorism and nationalism This book is dedicated to covering areas beyond Punjab and Bengal and includes analyses of how Sindh and Kashmir Hyderabad and more broadly South India the Northeast and Burma call for special attention in coming to terms with memory culture and politics surrounding the Partition

The Princeton Encyclopedia of Islamic Political Thought Gerhard Bowering, Patricia Crone, Mahan Mirza, 2013 In 2012 the year 1433 of the Muslim calendar the Islamic population throughout the world was estimated at approximately a billion and a half representing about one fifth of humanity In geographical terms Islam occupies the center of the world stretching like a big belt across the globe from east to west P vii

Rethinking

Modern European Intellectual History Darrin M. McMahon, Samuel Moyn, 2014-03 Modern European intellectual history is thriving as never before It has recovered from an era in which other trends like social and cultural history threatened to marginalize it But in spite of enjoying a contemporary renaissance the field has lost touch with the tradition of debating why and how to study ideas and thus lacks both a well articulated set of purposes and a range of arguments for exactly what it means to pursue those purposes This volume revives that tradition Recalling past attempts to showcase the diversity and differentiation of modern European intellectual history this volume also documents how much has changed in recent decades Some authors are much readier to defend a history of ideas practiced over the long term once the defining sin of the field Others go so far as to insist on how ideas are always open to reappropriation and reevaluation beyond their original contexts suggesting that it is an error to reduce the ideas to those contexts Others still argue that under threat from trends like social history intellectual historians have forsaken any attempt to resolve for themselves how ideas are socially embodied The volume also registers old and new trends in history that have affected the study of ideas including the history of science the history of academic disciplines the history of psychology and self international and global history and women s and gender history

Midnight's Borders Suchitra Vijayan, 2021-05-25 A Booklist Top 10 History Book of 2022 The first true people s history of modern India told through a seven year 9 000 mile journey along its many contested borders Sharing borders with six countries and spanning a geography that extends from Pakistan to Myanmar India is the world s largest democracy and second most populous country It is also the site of the world s biggest crisis of statelessness as it strips citizenship from hundreds of thousands of its people especially those living in disputed border regions Suchitra Vijayan traveled India s vast land border to explore how these populations live and document how even places just few miles apart can feel like entirely different countries In this stunning work of narrative reportage featuring over 40 original photographs we hear from those whose stories are never told from children playing a cricket match in no man s land to an elderly man living in complete darkness after sealing off his home from the floodlit border from a woman who fought to keep a military bunker off of her land to those living abroad who can no longer find their family history in India With profound empathy and a novelistic eye for detail Vijayan brings us face to face with the brutal legacy of colonialism state violence and government corruption The result is a gripping urgent dispatch from a modern India in crisis and the full and vivid portrait of the country we ve long been missing

Jamaat-e-Islami Women in Pakistan Amina Jamal, 2013-11-27 This book critically examines the feminization of the Jamaat e Islami a major movement for Islamic renewal and reform in South Asia Through an ethnographic and textual study of Jamaat women elected to local provincial and national bodies in Pakistan from 2002 to 2008 Jamal draws attention to the cultural political forces that enabled these women to become influential within the party and in Pakistan s major urban centers of Karachi and Lahore Jamal situates Jamaat women within Islamic modernism without reifying them as either pious agents reacting to state imposed modernization or gendered citizens who use Islam for class based instrumental ends Jamaat women are represented as subjects who move in many directions by acting against and through the discourses of Islamic tradition cultural modernity and modernization Pakistan David Taylor,1996 The Far East and Australasia 2003 Europa Publications,2002 A unique survey of each country in the region It includes an extensive collection of facts statistics analysis and directory information in one accessible volume US Department of State Dispatch ,1995
