The Documentary Imagination in Twentieth-Century French Literature Alison James, 2020-09-03 The Documentary Imagination in Twentieth Century French Literature identifies a documentary impulse in French literature that emerges at the end of the nineteenth century and culminates in a proliferation of factual writings in the twenty first Focusing on the period bookended by these two moments it highlights the enduring concern with factual reference in texts that engage either with current events or the historical archive Specifically it considers a set of ideas and practices centered on the conceptualization and use of documents In doing so it contests the widespread narrative that twentieth century French literature abandons the realist enterprise and argues that writers instead renegotiate the realist legacy outside or at the margins of the fictional space of the novel Analyzing works by authors including Gide Breton Aragon Yourcenar Duras and Modiano the book defines a specific documentary mode of literary representation that records assembles and investigates material traces of reality The document is a textual visual or material piece of evidence repurposed through its visual insertion textual transcription or description within a literary work It is a fact but it also becomes a figure standing for literature's confrontation with the real The documentary imagination involves a fantasy of direct access to a reality that speaks for itself At the same time it gives rise to concrete textual practices that open up new directions for literature by interrogating the construction and interpretation of facts

the loveable Geneviève Laporte and the promiscuous bisexual painter Irène Lagut By harnessing biography to art history he has managed to crack the code of cubism more successfully than any of his predecessors And by bringing fresh light to bear on the artist's private life he has succeeded in coming up with a new view of this paradoxical man and of his paradoxical work Never before have Picasso's revolutionary vision technical versatility prodigious achievements and not least his sardonic humor been analyzed with such clarity A Life of Picasso Volume II John Richardson, 2011-09-30 John Richardson draws on the same combination of lively writing critical astuteness exhaustive research and personal experience which made a bestseller out of the first volume and vividly recreates the artist's life and work during the crucial decade of 1907-17 a period during which Pablo Picasso and Georges Braque invented Cubism and to that extent engendered modernism Richardson has had unique access to untapped sources and unpublished material By harnessing biography to art history he has managed to crack the code of cubism more successfully than any of his predecessors And by bringing a fresh light to bear on the artist's often too sensationalised private life he has succeeded in coming up with a totally new view of this paradoxical man of his paradoxical work Never before has Picasso's prodigious technique his incisive vision and not least his sardonic humour been analysed with such clarity Counterpractice Rakhee Balaram, 2022-03-08 Counterpractice highlights a generation of women who used art to define a culture of experimental thought and practice during the period of the French women's movement or Mouvement de Libération des Femmes 1970-81 It considers women's art in relation to some of the most exciting thinkers to have emerged from the French literature and philosophy of the 1970s Hélène Cixous Luce Irigaray and Julia Kristeva forcing a timely reconsideration of the full spectrum of revolutionary practices by women in the years following the events of May 68 Lavishly illustrated with over 200 images the book also features an illuminating foreword by art historian Griselda Pollock
