you've ever wondered what goes on in bird nests or what happens after a fledgling leaves the nest come along on Julie's sensitive exploration of often uncharted ornithological ground This beautiful book is as much an art book as it is a natural history something readers have come to expect from Julie Zickefoose More than 400 watercolor paintings show the breathtakingly swift development of seventeen different species of wild birds Sixteen of those species nest on Julie's wildlife sanctuary so she knows the birds intimately and writes about them with authority To create the bulk of this extraordinary work Julie would borrow a wild nestling draw it then return it to its nest every day until it fledged Some were orphans she raised by hand giving the ultimate insider's glimpse into their lives In sparkling prose Julie shares a lifetime of insight about bird breeding biology growth and cognition As an artist and wildlife rehabilitator Julie possesses a unique skill set that includes sketching and painting rapidly from life as well as handling delicate hatchlings She is uniquely positioned to create such an opus and in fact nothing like it has ever been attempted Julie has many fans and she will gain many more with this disinterested in the books you bring home for them Do you wish they would develop a love for reading that they could take into middle school and beyond Some children love reading requesting the same books over and over again and giggling with delight each time while others simply despise sitting down for story time What makes the difference in these two types of children No child is born knowing how to read so where does their interest come from How do you encourage it Like eating and drinking reading is a daily necessity for every child Parents should consciously guide and conform to their children's interest in reading with appropriate reading materials whenever possible Books should take priority over watching television and playing video games Professional and systematic training can help children start to love reading maintain good reading habits and improve their reading ability Teaching Your Child to Read is a guide book for parents looking to get their children ages 3 to 6 interested in reading It explains how to help children cultivate reading ability step by step as well as answers the questions of Why should I and How do I when it comes to specific exercises Tools parents will learn to use in their efforts include interval questioning object comparing emotional contrasting plot mapping and more Talk That Teaches Jeanne
