Catalogue Oxford Union. Library, 1852 Defoe's Major Fiction Elizabeth R. Napier, 2016-01-28 This book focuses on the pervasive concern with narrativity and self construction that marks Defoe's first person fictional narratives Defoe's fictions focus obsessively and elaborately on the act of storytelling not only in his creation of idiosyncratic voices preoccupied with the telling and often the concealing of their own life stories but also in his narrators repeated aversion to other untold stories that compete for attention with their own Defoe's narratives raise profound questions about selfhood and agency as well as demonstrate competing attitudes about narration in his fictive worlds His canon exhibits a broad range of first person fictional accounts from pseudo memoir A Journal of the Plague Year Memoirs of a Cavalier to criminal autobiography Moll Flanders to confession Roxana and the narrators of these accounts secretive compulsive fractive exhibit an array of resistances to the telling of their life stories Such experiments with narration evince Defoe's deep involvement in projects of self description and delineation as he interrogates the boundaries of the self and dramatizes the arduousness of self accounting Defoe's fictions are emphatically consciousness centered and the significance of such a focus to the development of the novel is patently as great as is his realistic style Defoe's narrative project in fact challenges current views on the moment at which inwardness and interiority begin as Lukács argued to comprise the subject matter of the novel implicitly attributing to identity and consciousness a place of signal and complex importance in the new genre
