Women Heroes of the American Revolution

Susan Casey, 2015-03-01 When you think of the American Revolution perhaps you envision the Boston Tea Party Paul Revere's infamous ride or George Washington crossing the Delaware River But there are many other lesser known stories of the war that engulfed women's lives as it did the lives of their fathers husbands and sons Some women served as spies nurses and water carriers some helped as fundraisers writers and couriers and still others functioned as resisters rescuers and surprisingly even soldiers Most often their names did not make it into history books In Women Heroes of the American Revolution these fascinating women step into the spotlight they deserve You'll learn about such brave rebels as Martha Bratton who blew up a supply of gunpowder to keep it out of the hands of approaching British troops and boldly claimed It was I who did it 16 year old Sybil Ludington who rode her horse Star twice as far as the legendary Paul Revere did in order to help her father Colonel Ludington muster his scattered troops to fight the British and Deborah Sampson Gannett who bound her chest dressed as a man enlisted in the Continental Army as Robert Shurtliff and served undetected for three years alongside her fellow soldiers These and 17 other inspiring stories of women and girls contributing to our nation's independence are recounted through energetic narrative and revealing letters and documents that allow us to hear the voices of the women themselves and those who knew and admired them
