Molto Agitato:

Molto Agitato Johanna Fiedler, 2003-09-09 If the opera world is full of intrigue double meanings and devious dramatics then no place exemplifies this more than the world famous Metropolitan Opera where politics ambition and oversized egos have traditionally taken center stage along with some of the world's richest music Drawing on her fifteen years as its press representative Johanna Fiedler explodes the traditional secrecy that surrounds the Met in this wonderfully entertaining account of its tumultuous history Fiedler chronicles the Met's early days as a home for legends like Toscanini Mahler and Caruso and gives a fascinating account of the middle years when haughty blue bloods battled stubborn administrators for control of a company that would emerge as America's premiere opera house She takes us behind the grand gold curtain stage in more recent years as well showing how musical superstars like Luciano Pavarotti Plácido Domingo and Kathleen Battle have electrified performances and scandalized the public But most revelatory are Fiedler's portrayals of James Levine and Joseph Volpe and their practically parallel ascendancies Levine rising from prodigy to artistic director Volpe advancing from stagehand to general manager and their once strained relationship Weaving together the personal economic and artistic struggles that characterize the Met's long and vibrant history Molto Agitato is a must read saga of power wealth and above all great music

The Life and Works of Andrzej Panufnik (1914-1991) Beata Bolesławska, translated by Richard J. Reisner, 2017-07-05. Sir Andrzej Panufnik was born in Warsaw and studied in the newly independent Poland in the 1930s as well as in Vienna and Paris just before the outbreak of the Second World War. During the German occupation he formed a piano duo with his friend and fellow composer Witold Lutoslawski and they performed in caf around Warsaw. After the war Panufnik quickly established himself as a leading Polish composer and as a conductor he played a significant role in the re-establishment of first the Kraków then the Warsaw Philharmonic. Although he was considered Poland's leading composer for some years after the war Panufnik was subsequently put under intolerable pressure both musically and politically. Frustrated by the continuing rejection of his compositions and the unending political demands inflicted on him by the country's post-war Communist regime he made a daring escape to England in 1954. He briefly became Principal Conductor of the City of Birmingham Symphony Orchestra a post he relinquished after two years to devote all his time to composition. His works were in demand by major figures such as Leopold Stokowski who conducted the first performances of Sinfonia Elegiaca Katyn Epitaph and Universal Prayer. Yehudi Menuhin who commissioned the Violin Concerto. Seiji Ozawa in Boston and Sir Georg Solti in Chicago who both commissioned symphonies for the centenaries of their famous orchestras also Mstislav Rostropovich with the London Symphony Orchestra who together commissioned the Cello Concerto. Beata Bolesławska has written the first book on the life and artistic output of Panufnik setting his significance alongside the political and cultural scene of twentieth century Europe. The account of the composer's life is based on numerous archival documents as well as the personal accounts contributed by his family and friends. Panufnik's compositional style and techniques are also analysed. This book will be of interest not only to those devoted to Orchestral Music.
