Congress. Senate. Committee on the Judiciary. Subcommittee on the Constitution,1986     Since 1948 Nancy E.

Berg,Naomi B. Sokoloff,2020-10-01 2021 CHOICE Outstanding Academic Title Toward the end of the twentieth century an unprecedented surge of writing altered the Israeli literary scene in profound ways As fresh creative voices and multiple languages vied for recognition diversity replaced consensus Genres once accorded lower status such as the graphic novel and science fiction gained readership and positive critical notice These trends ushered in not only the discovery and recovery of literary works but also a major rethinking of literary history In Since 1948 scholars consider how recent voices have succeeded older ones and reverberated in concert with them how linguistic and geographical boundaries have blurred how genres have shifted and how canon and competition have shaped Israeli culture Charting surprising trajectories of a vibrant challenging and dynamic literature the contributors analyze texts composed in Hebrew Yiddish and Arabic by Jews and non Jews and by Israelis abroad as well as writers in Israel What emerges is a portrait of Israeli literature as neither minor nor regional but rather as transnational multilingual and worthy of international attention A Legal Guide for Student Affairs Professionals William A. Hooke, 2023-05-22 Drawing on performance studies and sacramental and liturgical theology Ruthanna B Hooke develops a theology of proclamation grounded in the body s experience of preaching The author explores the claim that preaching is a sacramental event of communion with the triune God by comparing the steps involved in voice production with the fourfold shape of the Eucharist This comparison yields a description of preaching as an event of self offering that allows space for the humanity of the preacher and as an encounter with the Holy Spirit that is communal and prophetic Preaching draws participants into Christ s dying and rising and hence into a mode of power known in vulnerability Calling hearers into the eschatological event of the resurrection preaching inherently moves toward proclamation on political and ethical issues Hooke uses this theological framework to offer ways of preaching on environmental crisis and on racism The author calls preachers to embodied engagement with preaching and describes a way for preachers to bear witness to Jesus Christ not only in the content of their proclamation but in their way of being in the preaching event The Material Culture of Failure David Jeevendrampillai, Aaron Parkhurst, Timothy Carroll, Julie Shackelford, 2020-05-27 What happens when objects behave unexpectedly or fail to do what they should Who defines failure Is failure always bad Rather than viewing concepts such as failure incoherence or incompetence as antithetical to social life this innovative new book examines the unexpected and surprising ways in which failure can lead to positive and creative results Combining both theoretical and ethnographic approaches to failure The Material Culture of Failure explores how failure manifests itself and operates in a variety of contexts The editors present ten ethnographic encounters of failure from areas as diverse as design textiles religion beauty and physical failure covering Europe North America Asia Africa and the Arabian Gulf Identifying common themes such as interpersonal national and religious articulations of power and identity the book shows some of the underlying assumptions that are revealed when materials fail designs crumble or things develop unexpectedly The first anthropological study dedicated to theorizing failure this innovative collection offers fresh insights based on the latest scholarship Destined to stimulate a new area of research the book makes a vital contribution to material culture studies and related social science theory Tea Light Moments for Women Hope Lyda, 2010-04-01 Hope Lyda author of the One Minute Prayer books and One Minute with God devotions gathers select meditations from her Tea Light Moments for a Woman s Soul and Tea Light Moments to Refresh Your Day in this lovely edition Blending faith insight and compassion these devotions encourage women to take an inspirational break during their day to savor refreshing quotes from Scripture and literature reflections exploring wonder contentment and purpose prayer offerings of connection and hope Tea Light Moments for Women is beautifully designed for gift giving and for women to enjoy times of restoration and celebration in every season of life Prayer in Public Schools and Buildings--federal Court Jurisdiction United States. I'm under twenty-five and I am unable to envision the future. I'm not the only one. A singular voice of the French Bataclan Generation, those most acutely conscious of the terrorist attacks in the mid-2010s, grappling with issues of memory or post-memory trauma and survivors' dilemmas. Survive is concerned with the work of grieving for strangers, a grief which does not begin or end but is rather a structural part of one's being in the world. For Finkelstein, it is essential to abide deep inside what is dying in the midst of the bullets going astray and the offenses accumulating in the midst of the misunderstandings imposed on a face other than my own, on a body other than my own, to build a world that thinks a world that gives a world that beats a living world. Frederika Amalia Finkelstein cuts across national and cultural contexts from French to Argentinian to North American, touching on the challenge facing her generation to understand their own lives as uniquely meaningful in the face of unending mass suffering
