Space and Time in African Cinema and Cine-scapes Kenneth W. Harrow, 2022-06-28 This book is the first of its kind to bring basic notions of contemporary physics to bear on African cine scapes In this book renowned African cinema scholar Kenneth W Harrow presents unique new ways to think about space and time in film with a specific focus on African and African diasporic cinema Through a series of case studies he explores how cinema creates and represents time and space and more specifically how a cinema centered in African landscapes and figures accomplishes this He reflects on the issues and problems posed by scientists when faced with the basic questions of what space and time are and their solutions or conclusions giving both film studies and African studies scholars access to new ways to formulate their thinking about African cine scapes Working beyond the limits of a framework based in a postcolonial and cultural understanding of time and space Harrow demonstrates how a scientific understanding of time and space can open up new approaches to African cinema and cinema in general A unique interdisciplinary book that encourages brand new ways to approach cinematic texts and specifically African cine scapes

National Advisory Committee for Aeronautics, 1957 Time on TV Lorna Jowett, Kevin Robinson, David Simmons, 2016-06-22 From early examples such as Star Trek and Sapphire and Steel to more contemporary shows including Life on Mars and The Vampire Diaries time has frequently been used as a device to allow programme makers to experiment stylistically and challenge established ways of thinking Time on TV provides a range of exciting accessible yet intellectually rigorous essays that consider the many and varied ways in which telefantasy shows have explored this subject providing the reader with a greater understanding of the importance of time to the success of genre on the small screen

So This Is Life Anne Manne, 2014-03-24 So This Is Life is a wonderfully evocative account of youth that will surely take its place among the classics of Australian childhood At age seven after her parents marriage broke down Anne Manne travelled with her mother and sisters from Adelaide to the Central Victorian countryside to begin a new life So This Is Life is not a conventional memoir but a haunting and luminous account told through stories unexpected moments of epiphany where meaning suddenly and sometimes shockingly reveals itself Possessing an astonishingly faithful and vivid memory of the pain fear and joy of childhood a sensibility keenly alive to the beauty of the landscape the fellow creatureliness of animals and the comedy tragedy and dignity of the lives of the country folk she grew up among So This Is Life shows a powerful moral vision being shaped about the meaning of kindness and the desolation of grief It depicts worlds as far apart as the faded gentility of former goldfields wealth and the patriarchal spivvery of the country racetrack Full of inconsolable pain but also impish humour these stories sparkle like gems      Nicene and Post-Nicene Fathers Philip Schaff,2007-05-01 The Council of Nicaea in 325 AD marked the beginning of a new era in Christianity For the first time doctrines were organized into a single creed The Nicene and Post Nicene Fathers did most of their writing during and after this important event in Church history Unlike the previous era of Christian writing the Nicene and Post Nicene era is dominated by a few very important and prolific writers In Volume II of the 14 volume collected writings of the Nicenes and Post Nicenes first published between 1886 and 1889 readers will discover one of Augustines masterworks City of God In this groundbreaking work Augustine proposes a philosophy that sees history as having a purpose and direction Coming at a time when Roman civilization was failing this work argued that Romans could find comfort in Christianity because all of history was merely a struggle between the City of God believers and the City of Man nonbelievers Should Romans put their faith in the City of God even their declining civilization should cause them no grief Even though it was written at a very particular time in history City of God appeals to all Christians seeking inspiration to continue their religious practice      I Am Remnant Pat Schatzline,2014-03-04 Will you be the last one to stand on the promises of God when all the odds are against you Will you be the last one to stand in obedience when everyone else has turned away Will you be bold enough to declare I AM REMNANT Throughout history God has used small powerful groups who have stayed true to Him to transform culture government and even the spiritual climate of a nation The Bible calls them remnants Today God continues to set apart men and women who will rise up speak out and lead He is waiting for you This is your moment Time is running out and your voice is needed to transform the world with a message from the throne of God Like Samuel you must accept the mantle God has for you Will you accept the call
