Farmers' Review ,1902 Mr. Chairman James L. Merriner,2002-10-11 The story of Dan Rostenkowski s rise and fall provides one of the keys to how power is sought won exercised and distributed in contemporary America argues political journalist James L Merriner A literal son of the Chicago political machine Rostenkowski was installed in politics by his father Alderman Joseph P Rostenkowski and by his mentor Mayor Richard I Daley In his thirty six year congressional career he served nine presidents forming close friendships with many of them His legislative masterpiece was the 1986 tax reform law Eight years later he was indicted on federal charges for misusing tax dollars and campaign funds In his dealings with the man who tumbled dramatically from his high position as chair of the powerful House Ways and Means Committee all the way down to a cell in a federal prison in Wisconsin Merriner finds Rostenkowski candid straightforward and authentic except when it came to his own finances Rostenkowski is not a complex man in need of psychoanalysis on the part of his biographer and Merriner does not indulge in much of that Purely simply and openly Rostenkowski wanted power He wanted wealth He got both and Merriner shows us how Merriner sees mythic qualities in Rostenkowski characterizing him as the tall bold slugger of Carl Sandburg s 1916 poem about Chicago Noting that this master politician climbed to fantastic peaks only to fall hard and fast Merriner points out that Rostenkowski s life ascended from power in the political science sense to tragedy in the classical sense The Justice Department and the electorate sacrificed Rostenkowski as an embodiment of the excesses of big government Like the Greek chorus of tragedy major media reported the scandal to the masses Yet Merriner does not strain to make his subject fit a classical mold He tells instead the story of a great man who was also a little man a statesman and a crook an emotional man an American original This was also a man unbeaten by his troubles a man who emerged from prison unabashed This illustrated biography is not authorized by Rostenkowski who declined Merriner s interview requests after June 1995 His sources are the public record previous interviews with Rostenkowski and with many other sources before and after 1995 and his own political acumen gained from decades on the political scene Bulletin Wisconsin.
