A Theological Anthropology of Self-Realization Jennifer Slater O.P,2012-07-31 The book addresses the intriguing problem of human self realization precisely because of the diverse uses of the term which ranges from abstract philosophical theological theories to practical psychological spiritual applications Jennifer Slater draws the concept from Karl Rahner the twentieth German theologian who uses the term self realization in his theology on freedom and symbolism relating it to the basic free choice which the human person makes to be for or against God Divine Jennifer Slater explores this fundamental free choice which is at the same time a basic choice about oneself She writes from the understanding that the human person is radically free to become the choices she or he makes and freedom is the capacity for definitive self realization In the book she shows that in the exercising of freedom humans precisely as historical beings are also transcendent beings Jennifer grapples with the perception that since human self realization involves the power to make decisions which in reality actualizes a persons own reality how then does this self realization come about and where does the Divine fit into the process If self realization is related to the human self and to the Divine Self she then questions what constitutes the self and self realization This struggle practically employs the woman in general and in particular the woman consecrated to a vowed life The pervasive question throughout is What constitutes the self realization of a human woman being qualities and experiences that make them human as a means of unlocking their potential and discovering the true power of their spiritual nature This five volume series is a collection of Almaas lectures on the Diamond Approach In Elements of the Real Man he covers topics such as faith commitment nobility and suffering truth and compassion allowing and growing up Through these talks Almaas offers valuable guidance and advice for those on a spiritual path and he explores the challenges and psychological barriers faced by those seeking self realization The Power of Divine Eros A. H. Almaas, Karen Johnson, 2013-09-17 Two innovative spiritual teachers show how to use desire and passion eros as a gateway to realizing our fullest potential What do desire and passion have to do with our spiritual journey According to A H Almaas and Karen Johnson they are an essential part of it Conventional wisdom cautions that desire and passion are opposed to the spiritual path that engaging in desire will take you more into the world into egoic life And for most people that is exactly what happens We naturally tend to experience wanting in a self centered way The Power of Divine Eros challenges the view that the divine and the erotic are separate When we open to the energy aliveness spontaneity and zest of erotic love we will find it inseparable from the realm of the holy and sacred When this is understood desire and passion become a gateway to wholeness and to realizing our full potential Through guided exercises the authors reveal how our relationships become opportunities on the spiritual journey to express ourselves authentically to relate with openness and to discover dynamic inner realms with another person Through embodying the energy of eros each of us can learn to be fully real and alive in all of our interactions Brilliancy A. H. Almaas, 2006-05-09 Intelligence is one of the defining characteristics of human beings an inherent ability to respond to the world with awareness knowledge learning and insight Most considerations of human intelligence are based on the notion that intelligence is a product of brain functioning A H Almaas introduces here a radically different viewpoint one that recognizes an actual quality of consciousness as the source of intelligence He calls this source the Brilliancy of our true nature The presentation of his understanding of intelligence is followed by in depth dialogues with his students on the various barriers to recognizing and embodying this essential quality In particular an unresolved relationship with one's father is found to shape the experience of Brilliancy Using a Socratic method that draws upon techniques of body centered Gestalt psychodynamic and cognitive psychologies Almaas helps participants work through their defenses and conflicts surrounding this issue and then diverging from psychotherapeutic practice guides them in discovering their own Brilliancy Solution Focused Coaching for Adolescents Caroline Beumer-Peeters, 2021-05-25 Solution Focused Coaching for Adolescents explains the principles and attitude of the popular 11 step Mission Possible Solution Focused Coaching program for working with adolescents By comparing the Mission Possible principles with the normal way of problem solving in coaching scenarios the author makes the theoretical structure and conversational style of the program easy to learn for professionals Applied both individually and as a group activity Mission Possible is a learning experience that makes fulfilling dreams and achieving goals easier for teenagers and young adults It helps to make difficult things accessible for them by using one's own strengths and resources. Brian takes us on a journey into the paradox of the human condition to the depths of human suffering where there exists the transformational healing opportunity of waking up to the essence of who we are. This is described in many contemplative wisdom traditions that point to a reality that exists beyond the identification with the separate self, the sense of me, to a reality that is unconditioned and considered the ultimate medicine to pain and suffering. With the phases of the Moon serving as a metaphor for waking up out of the darkness of the separate self, this book opens our eyes to the healing power of awakening to our true nature in the midst of some of our most terrifying experiences. The states of confusion, fear, and shame, the experiences of trauma, addictions, grief, and loss, and the suffering of spiritual seeking itself can be met with the restorative power of awakening. When we embody surrender, grace, attention, and openness in our darkest moments, we can begin to see that in the evening of despair lies the moonlight of our own awakening.
