

The background of the slide is a light beige color, overlaid with a complex, abstract pattern of thin, dark grey lines. These lines form a series of overlapping, elongated, and somewhat circular shapes that create a sense of depth and movement, resembling a stylized topographical map or a network of paths.

Points Of Balance Puntos De Apoyo:

One Island, Many Voices Eduardo R. del Rio, 2022-04-12 Cuban American writers have been studied primarily within the context of Latino literature as a whole. Seeing a need to distinguish and define this unique literary perspective, Eduardo del Rio selected twelve important well-known authors and conducted interviews. He chose writers who were born in Cuba but have lived in the United States for a significant amount of time and whose works include themes he considers elemental to Cuban American literature: identity, duality, memory, and exile. But rather than a cohesive homogeneous group, these conversations unveiled a kaleidoscope of individuality, style, and motive. The authors' bonds to Cuba inform their creative work in vastly different ways, and attempts to categorize their similarities only highlight the range of character and experience within this assemblage of talented writers. From playwright Dolores Prida to author and literary critic Gustavo Pérez Firmat, these voices run the gamut of both genre and personality. In addition to the essential facts of literary accomplishment, the interviews include a wealth of insight into each writer's history, motivations, concerns, and relationship to language. These personal details serve to humanize and illuminate the unique circumstances and realities that have shaped both the authors and their work. What del Rio has ultimately brought together is a series of intimate sketches that will not only serve as an important reference for any discussion of the literature but will also help readers to develop for themselves a sense of what Cuban American writing is and what it is not.

make a wreck out of me As Las Vegas we regularly read about these wrecked lives in newspapers and magazines We routinely observe people going about their wildly destructive antics on mainstream TV Often we can't believe these stories are unfolding in our city They almost seem like put-ons elaborate pranks borrowed from atrocious cut-rate screenplays But there they are these inhabitants of our city their mug shots staring us down making us wonder if what Parsons said is really true that in Las Vegas your only real friend is the queen of spades The stories gathered in Las Vegas Noir are written by longtime residents and avid chroniclers of Sin City authors who take you far beyond the neon of Caesars Palace and into the neighborhoods too dangerous for CSI Absolutely cliché-free these stories are full of flesh and blood characters trapped in dire circumstances that only real Las Vegas neighborhoods can spring
