Policy Making In The European Union Conceptual Lenses And The Integration Process:

Policy-making in the European Union Laura Cram, 1997 This book takes a fresh view at attempts to conceptualize the process of European integration It highlights the often neglected but crucial role of European institutions in understanding major constitutional decisions in the European Union Understanding Eu Policy Making Raj S. Chari, Sylvia Kritzinger, 2006-08-20 EU policy shapes all areas of our lives from our money to our food to our welfare Yet we know little about how EU decisions are made and who benefits from them This book is a critical guide to the policies of the EU Raj Chari and Sylvia Kritzinger argue that there is an agenda that underlies EU policy making Some policies those that aim to create a competitive economy are prioritised while others are effectively ignored Setting the EU in a proper economic and theoretical context the authors analyse each of the EU's major policy areas Arguing that traditional accounts of EU integration are inadequate the authors develop an innovative new perspective Constructing a Policy-Making State? Jeremy Richardson, 2012-09-20 Constructing a Policy Making State sets out to examine the processes by which Europeanization takes place Europeanization is defined as the process by which the key decisions about public policies are gradually transferred to the European level or for new policy areas emerge at the European level This is in contrast to definitions of Europeanization which focus on the adaption of member states to European public policies Thus the main focus is whether a European Union policy making state is being created via changes in the distribution of power between member states and the European level institutions over time In addition to several overview chapters such as on agenda setting in the EU there are twelve sectoral studies which analyse the differing trajectories and outcomes of the Europeanization process and the extent to which the European Union can make authoritative allocations The case studies have been selected in order to illustrate the degree of cross sectoral variation in the process of Europeanization from sectors which have yet to see very much Europeanization such as health to sectors such as competition policy which are almost fully Europeanized The book is consciously multi theoretic in its approach drawing on a range of theories and concepts from theories of European integration to theories of public policy processes Globalisation and EU Policy-making Ian Bartle, 2005 Assesses and contrasts the roles of globalisation institutions and ideas on policy making in the EU Views the creation of liberalised European single markets in the telecommunications and electricity supply sectors out of national monopolies as an example of the dramatic transformation of economic organisation across Europe in the last twenty years Connects micro policy making processes in two industrial sectors to macro international political economy Covers the period from the mid 1980s when the single market came on the agenda through the liberalising initiatives in the 1990s to the new regulatory framework in communications in 2002 and the 2003 directive on the full liberalisation of electricity by 2007 Will be of interest to anyone studying globalisation European integration and policy making regulation and policy in utility sectors EU Railway Policy-Making H. Dyrhaug, 2013-09-18 Through policy and intervention national governments in Europe have long held an active interest in railways an interest that has transferred to the supranational level via the EU commission This book explores why the EU Commission has been so slow in creating an EU railway policy pointing the finger at strong resistance by national governments

Policy-Making and Diversity in Europe Adrienne Windhoff-Héritier,1999-11-28 Shows how policy making in Europe works despite diverse interests

Decision-Making in the European Union John Peterson,Elizabeth Bomberg,1999-05-25 Based on exhaustive research this book explains how the European Union makes decisions in seven major policy sectors Written in a clear user friendly style it brings the EU alive for a student and non specialist audience The book s central themes are that informal norms often matter more than formal rules agency often matters more than structure and abrupt change often punctuates deadlock It offers a theoretically based introduction to the lively humorous and fascinating politics of a unique experiment in modern governance

Multicultural Citizenship of the European Union Juan Delgado-Moreira,2018-02-06 This title was first published in 2000 This text deals with two intertwined dimensions of multicultural citizenship of the European Union It studies the theoretical debate over how best to reconcile multiculturalism citizenship and the need for collective identity at the European Union EU level by comparing EU citizenship with cultural citizenship and multicultural studies in the United States In addition to this through the study of EU documents the author contends that there exists such a thing as policies of multicultural citizenship at the European Union level He then goes on to analyze their key aspects such as the pursuit of symbolic forms of multiculturalism and the arguments to support affirmative action policies for women The text also examines the steps taken by certain EU institutions towards creating European identity and improving awareness of citizenship and cultural heritage while meeting the test of subsidiarity The author concludes that there are competing discourses in EU institutions concerning the best model for EU citizenship Among other concepts they construe multiculturalism and transnationalism as contested and sometimes opposing interpretations of citizenship The text goes on to reveal a lack of substantive connection between EU citizenship and identity in the European Union as well as the artificiality of EU attempts to build it anew It concludes that a plurality of cultural constructions of EU citizenship within the wider framework of liberal culturalism may be a viable model of EU citizenship
