Political Awakening in Nepal Prem Raman Uprety, 1992 The closure of the oligarchy in Nepal 1951 Political Awakening in Nepal Prem R. Uprety, 1992-01-01 The Rise of Ethnic Politics in Nepal Susan I. Hangen, 2009-12-04 This book argues that ethnic politics have the potential to strengthen rather than destabilize democracy It studies one of Nepal's most significant social movements and examines the role it has played in the process of democratization in Nepal It demonstrates that ethnic parties are not antithetical to democracy and that democratization can proceed in diverse and unexpected ways The Challenge to Democracy in Nepal T. Louise Brown, 2002-11-01 In 1990 Nepal's Peoples Movement reduced King Birendra from an absolute ruler to a constitutional monarch This book is the first academic analysis of these events and places the revolution of 1990 within the context of Nepali history Louise Brown examines the background to Nepal's recent upheavals as well as covering the country's early history and its continuing problems of national integration The previous unsuccessful democratic experiment and the nature of monarchical rule are discussed within an analysis of Nepal's social and economic modernisation The evolution of political parties Nepal's foreign relations and development issues and the way in which these have moulded the political system are explored in depth Drawing on extensive interviews with leading politicians and influential figures the author provides a comprehensive survey of the Himalayan Kingdom's political development This is an original contribution to the debate on democratization in the developing world The Buddhist Art of Living in Nepal Lauren Leve, 2016-08-05 Theravada Buddhism has experienced a powerful and far reaching revival in modern Nepal especially among the Newar Buddhist laity many of whom are reorganizing their lives according to its precepts practices and ideals This book documents these far reaching social and personal transformations and links them to political economic and cultural shifts associated with late modernity and especially neoliberal globalization Nepal has changed radically over the last century particularly since the introduction of liberal democracy and an open market economy in 1990 The rise of lay vipassana meditation has also dramatically impacted the Buddhist landscape Drawing on recently revived understandings of ethics as embodied practices of self formation the author argues that the Theravada turn is best understood as an ethical movement that offers practitioners ways of engaging and models for living in a rapidly changing world The book takes readers into the Buddhist reform from the perspectives of its diverse practitioners detailing devotees ritual and meditative practices their often conflicted relations to Vajrayana Buddhism and Newar civil society their struggles over identity in a formerly Hindu nation state and the political cultural institutional and moral reorientations that becoming a pure Buddhist as Theravada devotees understand themselves entails Based on more than 20 years of anthropological fieldwork this book is an important contribution to scholarly debates over modern Buddhism ethical practices and the anthropology of religion It is of interest to students and scholars of Asian Religion Anthropology Buddhism and Philosophy A History of Nepal John Whelpton, 2005-02-17 A comprehensive and accessible one volume history of

Anthropological Perspectives on Education in Nepal Karen Valentin, Uma Pradhan,2023 This volume illuminates educational transformations and avenues of learning in the context of wider social and political changes in Nepal

Kathmandu Thomas Bell,2016-10-24 Kathmandu is the greatest city of the Himalayas a unique survival of cultural practices that died out in India 1000 years ago It is a carnival of sexual licence and hypocrisy a jewel of world art a hotbed of communist revolution a paradigm of failed democracy a case study in bungled Western intervention and an environmental catastrophe Closed to the outside world until 1951 and trapped in a medieval time warp Kathmandu s rapid modernization is an extreme version of what is happening elsewhere in many traditional societies The many layers of the city s developments are reflected in the successive generations of its gods and goddesses witches and ghosts the comforts of caste the ethos of aristocracy and kingship and of late the destabilizing spirits of consumer aspiration individuality egalitarianism communism and democracy Kathmandu follows the author s story over a decade in the city and unravels the city s history through successive reinventions of itself Erudite entertaining and accessible this is the distinctive chronicle of a fascinating city

Political Economy of Social Change and Development in Nepal Jeevan R. Sharma,2021-09-30 Political Economy of Social Change and Development in Nepal is an accessible contemporary political economic analysis of social change in Nepal It considers whether and how Nepal s political economy might have been transformed since the 1950s while situating these changes in Nepal s modern history and its location in the global economic system It assembles and builds on the scholarship on Nepal from a multidisciplinary and synoptic perspective Focusing on local discourses experiences and expectations of transformations it draws our attention to how powerful historical processes are experienced and negotiated in Nepal and assess how these may at the same time produce ideas of equality human rights and citizenship while also generating new forms of precarity

Social Inclusion of Ethnic Communities in Contemporary Nepal, 2013-08-15 Social Inclusion of Ethnic Communities in Contemporary Nepal focuses on the dynamics of ethnic identities and movement in South Asian states in a comparative framework As we witness a series of explosive ethnic revivals across the globe this study investigates the issues around ethnicity that have come to occupy centre stage in Nepal s contemporary political and development discourse Nepal is at the crossroads of state building The Constituent Assembly is now looking into the modalities of establishing a multi cultural multi social multi linguistic multi religious and multi ethnic federal state In the aftermath of the April 2006 Jana Andolan II and the commitment of the ruling political alliance to restructuring Nepal along federal republican lines the assessment of Nepal s ethnic question from multiple perspectives political sociological economic and spatial has acquired a new urgency Ethnic identity is only one part of the problem of ethnicity in Nepal Federalism therefore has to be conceived of as an exercise in addressing the multiplicity of issues that form the agenda of Nepal s development so that a politically socially and economically integrated dynamic and progressive Nepal emerges from the shadows of the pas This work includes an intensive analysis of facts figures and particulars collected from available records and surveys One of the aims of the study is to assess the defining ethnic identity among the Limbus centred on a case in an urban area in the Kathmandu Valley This work is mainly based on qualitative data but quantitative data has also been used to measure various aspects of the community like the level of educational economy etc This volume will be an invaluable guide for the scholars of federalism in Nepal while also educating the lay reader in general

Rehearsing for Life Monica Mottin, 2018-03-09 This work examines the production and performance of theatrical activities aimed at bringing about social change in both development and political intervention in Nepal If everyday social problems can be both represented and challenged through drama based performances then what differentiates street theatre performed in planned developments from street theatre performed within social and political movements This multi sited ethnography attempts to answer this question by following the works of Aarohan Theatre a Kathmandu based professional company performing both loktantrik natak theatre for democracy in the context of the 2005 06 popular movement and kachahari natak forum theatre for development projects The analysis then extends to the forum theatre produced by one of Aarohan s partner groups the Kamlari Natak Samuha a Tharu grassroots activist organization based in Deukhuri Valley West Nepal campaigning against indentured child labour

Nepal in Transition Sebastian von Einsiedel, David M. Malone, Suman Pradhan, 2012-03-12 This volume analyzes the context dynamics and key players shaping Nepal s ongoing peace process

Nepal Axel Michaels, 2024 Covers the history of Nepal from prehistoric times and the period of the Licchavi dynasty through more recent developments such as the rise of the republic the first elections challenged by the Maoist insurgency 1996 2006 and the royal massacre in 2001 Nationalism and Ethnicity in a Hindu Kingdom D. Gellner, J. Pfaff-Czarnecka, J. Whelpton, 2012-12-06 With its systematic coverage of different groups this book demonstrates how similar trends of ethnic formation are affecting all parts of Nepal Yet within the boundaries of a single culturally diverse state very different forms of ethnicity have emerged This is a truly thematic collection with a well defined focus on the important contemporary topics of ethnic identity and nationalism The importance of the theme is self evident in a world attempting to come to grips with such problems in virtually all modern states Anyone with an interest in contemporary Nepal should study this volume Nepal is the only officially Hindu kingdom in the world and remains so in spite of a revolution or people s movement in 1990 which overthrew the partyless Panchayat regime and instituted a multiparty constitutional monarchy Since November 1994 it has also had an elected Communist government the first of its kind in South Asia This volume takes a long term view of the various processes of ethnic and national development that have been displayed both before and after 1990 It brings together twelve carefully chosen ethnographic and historical chapters covering all of the major ethnic groups and regions of Nepal Routledge Handbook of South Asian Religions Knut A. Jacobsen, 2020-11-29 The Routledge Handbook of South Asian Religions presents critical research overviews and case studies on religion in historical South Asia in the seven nation states of contemporary South Asia India Pakistan Bangladesh Nepal Bhutan Sri Lanka and the Maldives and in the South Asian diaspora Chapters by an international set of experts analyse formative developments roots changes and transformations religious practices and ideas identities relations territorialisation and globalisation in historical and contemporary South Asia The Handbook is divided into two parts which first analyse historical South Asian religions and their developments and second contemporary South Asia religions that are influenced by both religious pluralism and their close connection to nation states and their ideological power Contributors argue that religion has been used as a tool for creating nations as well as majorities within those nations in South Asia despite their enormous diversity in particular religious diversity The Handbook explores these diversities and tensions historical developments and the present situation across religious traditions by utilising an array of approaches and from the point of view of various academic disciplines Drawing together a remarkable collection of leading and emerging scholars this handbook is an invaluable research tool and will be of interest to researchers and students in the fields of Asian religion religion in context and South Asian religions Government and Politics in South Asia, Student Economy Edition Robert Oberst, 2018-04-27 This book describes the countries of South Asia and examines the reason for their successes and failures It addresses the interrelationships among the states in the region and their roles in the international system and discusses the political development of the region Political Instability in Nepal , 1999 Reference to post 1990 period papers presented at a seminar held on July 5 6 1998
