Political Paul Justice Democracy And Kingship In A Hellenistic Framework:

The Political Paul Bruno Blumenfeld, 2003-11-01 The Political Paul presents Paul as a political thinker Many studies claiming Paul for Greek Hellenism discuss the influence upon him of various aspects of Hellenistic culture but strangely neglect Hellenistic political philosophy with its roots in Classical antiquity The Political Paul explores this dimension of Paul's thought within the general context of Hellenistic political reflection to focus on the intriguing body of literature known as the Pythagorean pseudepigrapha These researches support the highly original argument that Christianity has foundations in Hellenistic kingship theories Paul constructs a political theory for Christianity He conceives it as a polis basileia system politics proper and divine rule each with its own dikaiosyne this the study re evaluates as a political concept The Political Paul Bruno Blumenfeld, 2003 The Political Paul presents Paul as a political thinker Many studies claiming Paul for Greek Hellenism discuss the influence upon him of various aspects of Hellenistic culture but strangely neglect Hellenistic political philosophy with its roots in Classical antiquity The Political Paul explores this dimension of Paul's thought within the general context of Hellenistic political reflection to focus on the intriguing body of literature known as the Pythagorean pseudepigrapha These researches support the highly original argument that Christianity has foundations in Hellenistic kingship theories The Politics of Inheritance in Romans Mark Forman, 2011-04-21 Mark Forman explores the extent to which Paul's concept of inheritance in Romans and its associated imagery logic and arguments served to evoke socio political expectations that were different to those which prevailed in contemporary Roman imperial discourse Forman explores how Paul deploys the idea of inheritance in Romans and analyses the sources which inform and overlap with this concept Coins literature and architecture are all examined in order to understand the purpose hopes and expectations of first century society This book contributes to recent studies covering Paul and politics by arguing that Paul's concept of inheritance subverts and challenges first century Roman ideologies Paul and his Theology Stanley E. Porter, 2006-11-01 Does Paul have a theology If so what is it or rather what is it on various topics that he and the early Church confronted This volume moves beyond the traditional discussion of whether Paul had a center to his theology to raise questions regarding his perspective on a number of important theological issues These issues include his gentile mission the concepts of faith grace and the law reconciliation the temple eschatology miracles gender and Paul's trinitarian tendencies This collection of essays addresses topics of current interest in the study of Paul's theology not to arrive at the center of his thought but to understand what factors helped to center his thinking on a variety of important theological concerns Paul and the Roman Imperial Order Richard A. Horsley, 2004-01-01 The five articles and Simon Price's response at the core of this book were originally papers delivered in a session of the Paul and Politics Group at the 2000 SBL Annual Meeting There are a number of special features that make this a special combination of articles on Paul in what is turning out to be a highly suggestive new perspective and context the ancient Roman imperial order First these articles are all informed by and respond in some way to the ground breaking work of Simon Price on the Roman imperial cult in Greek cities some of the very cities in which Paul carried out his mission Invited as a special guest of the SBL for the 2000 Annual Meeting Price was the respondent to these papers and interaction with him has aided the authors in their revisions The articles bring a rich variety of fresh perspectives to issues of the relation of Paul and the Roman imperial order including postcolonial theory political anthropological theory James C Scott postcolonial theory and feminist theory along with the new perspective on the imperial cult represented by Price This collection of articles thus stands at the cutting edge of new scholarship on Paul s mission and letters in his political and cultural context Contributors for this book include Robert Jewett Abraham Smith Neil Elliott Rollin A Ramsaran Efrain Agosto Erik Heen Jennifer Wright Knust and Simon R F Price Richard A Horsley is Distinguished Professor of Liberal Arts and the Study of Religion at the University of Massachusetts Boston and the author of Paul and Politics Ekklesia Israel Imperium Interpretation and Paul and Empire Religion and Power in Roman Imperial Society Good Works in 1 Peter Travis B. Williams, 2014-10-08 Drawing on recent insights from postcolonial theory and social psychology Travis B Williams seeks to diagnose the social strategy of good works in 1 Peter by examining how the persistent admonition to do good is intended to be an appropriate response to social conflict Challenging the modern consensus which interprets the epistle s good works language as an attempt to accommodate Greco Roman society and thereby to lessen social hostility the author demonstrates that the exhortation to do good envisages a pattern of conduct which stands opposed to popular values The Petrine author appropriates terminology that was commonly associated with wealth and social privilege and reinscribes it with a new meaning in order to provide his marginalized readers with an alternative vision of reality one in which the honor and approval so valued in society is finally available to them The good works theme thus articulates a competing discourse which challenges dominant social structures and the hegemonic ideology which underlies them Bowing before Christ - Nodding to the State? Dorothea H. Bertschmann, 2014-07-31 Does the apostle Paul sponsor political conservatism A growing number of scholars dispute this perception arguing that Paul s political imagery and in particular the confession that Jesus Christ is Lord directly challenge the proud Roman emperor This book critically engages these proposals seeking to point out with greater precision the function of political imagery within the Pauline narrative Dorothea H Bertschmann starts by conversing with the works of John Howard Yoder and Oliver O Donovan two modern political ethicists and theologians She argues that both thinkers in all their distinctive emphases wrestle with a similar difficulty How can Christ the Lord be meaningfully related to earthly lords without betraying the otherness of Christ s Lordship But how does Paul deal with this problem In order to answer this question Bertschmann offers a close reading of two key texts Philippians 2 5 11 and Romans 13 1 7 She argues that despite the many faceted political imagery of the Christ hymn Paul does nothing in his explicit narrative to engage existing rulers positively or negatively with the message of Christ s rule Paul s focus is entirely on the church which he seeks to construct as a community under authority While there is no emperor in the Christ hymn there is no

Christ in Paul's political admonition of Romans 13 Paul deliberately keeps political rule at the periphery of God's salvific actions in Christ while not totally disconnecting it from the overall divine act This strategy has its limitations but also the potential to offer fresh impulses in theological deliberations about church and state Paul's Interlocutor in Romans 2 Runar Thorsteinsson, 2015-12-22 Thorsteinsson's study of Romans poses a thoroughly argued challenge to Pauline scholarship His argument has the potential of invalidating the reading of Romans 2 that has contributed to a perception of Paul as utterly negative towards his fellow Jews and first century Judaism Among matters of scholarly dispute is the function and identity of Paul's interlocutors in chapter 2 of Romans Scholars agree universally that the individual addressed in 2:17-29 is a Jew but with respect to the identity of the interlocutor of 2:1-5 there is no consensus The majority of scholars hold that the interlocutor is a Jew throughout the chapter A weighty minority argues that the individual addressed in 2:1-5 is a Gentile and that there is a shift of interlocutor in 2:17 In his investigation into the pros and cons of these positions Thorsteinsson endeavors to challenge both majority and minority Basic to his approach is to allow the larger context and framework of the letter to be of help in assessing the function and identity of Paul's partner's in dialogue Thus the epistolary structure and setting of Romans the relationship between Paul and his audience the identity of the audience and the dialogical style of the letter are used to ascertain the function and identity of Paul's interlocutors in Romans 2 By engaging an imaginary interlocutor Paul utilizes a well established epistolary technique in Greco-Roman antiquity Thorsteinsson concludes that Paul wrote Romans to a particular group of people in a specific contemporaneous situation The letter's message arose out of Paul's missionary obligation to proclaim God's good news to Gentiles in Rome The minority view that Paul's interlocutor in 2:1-5 is a Gentile is combined with the majority opinion that there is but one interlocutor throughout the chapter In sum the common opinion that Romans 2 contains Paul's piercing critique of his fellow Jew should be rejected The individual censured in the chapter is not a Jew but a Gentile who claims to be a Jew Paul against the Nations Neil Elliott, 2023-11-10 In these essays some of them never published before Neil Elliott presents an understanding of Romans at odds with the traditional Protestant understanding a treatise on justification by faith or the New Perspective Paul's argument with Jewish ethnocentrism The letter that emerges here is an urgent response to a historical situation Paul engages what would quickly become the supersessionist norm in gentile Christianity shaped by the Roman construal of subject peoples Gathered here for the first time these studies rely on rhetorical criticism broad attention to Roman imperial ideology and postcolonial criticism to argue for a strikingly new perspective on Romans Paul Within Judaism Mark D. Nanos, Magnus Zetterholm, 2015 These chapters explore a number of issues in the contemporary study of Paul raised by questioning what it means to read Paul from within Judaism rather than supposing that he left the practice and promotion of living Jewishly behind after his discovery of Jesus as Christ Messiah This is a different question to those which have driven the New Perspective over the last thirty years which still operates from many traditional assumptions about Paul's motives and behavior viewing them as inconsistent with and critical of Judaism
