Political Science Looking To The Future Volume 2 Comparative Politics Policy And International Relations:

The SAGE Handbook of European Foreign Policy Knud Erik Jorgensen, Aasne Kalland Aarstad, Edith Drieskens, Katie Laatikainen, Ben Tonra, 2015-04-30 During the last two decades the study of European foreign policy has experienced remarkable growth presumably reflecting a more significant international role of the European Union The Union has significantly expanded its policy portfolio and though empty symbolic politics still exists the Union's international relations have become more substantial and its foreign policy more focused European foreign policy has become a dynamic policy area being adapted to changing challenges and environments such as the Arab Spring new emerging economies powers the crisis of multilateralism and much more The SAGE Handbook of European Foreign Policy Two Volume set is a major reference work for Foreign Policy Programmes around the world The Handbook is designed to be accessible to graduate and postgraduate students in a wide variety of disciplines across the humanities and social sciences Both volumes are structured to address areas of critical concern to scholars at the cutting edge of all major dimensions of foreign policy The volumes are composed of original chapters written specifically to the following themes Research traditions and historical experience Theoretical perspectives EU actors State actors Societal actors The politics of European foreign policy Bilateral relations Relations with multilateral institutions Individual policies Transnational challenges The Handbook will be an essential reference for both advanced students and scholars

The Battle for Asia Mark T. Berger, 2004 This book is a history of the Asian region from 1945 to the present day which delineates the various ideological battles over Asia's development

Reflections on Learning, Life and Work Maureen Ryan, 2012-10-26 This book records the stories of doctoral study experiences of the twenty two writers These research degree experiences are embedded in the lives and careers of the writers and the twenty two distinctive projects draw from those individual lives and careers The authors write about meeting the continuing demands of older and younger family members and of their struggles with ill health and work place demands while working through their studies There is also the joy of coming to see themselves and being seen as research scholars and supporting and celebrating with others as they move through candidature proposals and ethics applications to graduation Apart from the stories that bring the writers to their particular projects and that colour their individual journeys storying methodology is most often selected for the research all of which is undertaken within the arts humanities and education Phenomenology narrative ethnography are central to most of the studies and the detailed accounts of each research topic methods and outcomes locate each of the research projects in rich bodies of knowledge Valued writers and readers in these fields Mary Beattie and Elaine Martin have read each reflection and provided in turn a foreword and an afterword which bookend the volume and further enrich these reflections on learning life and work

The Domestic Sources of European Foreign Policy Omar Serrano, 2025-10-01 This timely study considers the challenges of developing a foreign policy for a union of 27 states while taking national political processes into account Serrano analyses the relevance of domestic political processes for the EU's common policies and examines the democratic deficit in the EU foreign policy thereby highlighting what is unique about it and reflecting on its possible evolution As the EU continues to face difficulties in formulating common policies this volume offers a unique insight into the complexities of enhancing the EU's common policies by assessing domestic political debates and the role of actors who legitimise or constrain support for common policies

Paths to State Repression Christian Davenport, 2000 This work seeks to improve our understanding of why states use political repression highlighting its relationship to dissent and mass protest The authors draw upon a variety of political economic contexts methodological approaches and geographic locales Forthcoming Books Rose Army, 2004 Political Science William J. Crotty, 1991 In this volume the study of legislatures has traditionally been a central preoccupation of political scientists Legislatures provide good laboratories for testing theories and methodologies of significance in the discipline and more broadly for contributing to an understanding of how representative government works From Bundesrepublik to Deutschland Michael G. Huelshoff, Andrei S. Markovits, Simon Reich, 1993 Analyzes Germany's new role in world politics The New World of Politics Neal Riemer, Douglas Simon, Douglas W. Simon, 1997-03 In this fourth edition Neal Riemer and Douglas W. Simon again seek to introduce students to the challenging discipline of political science by highlighting six cardinal features The editors strongly believe that their unique and comprehensive approach employing those six features can best equip students of political science to stay abreast of the ever changing and ever challenging world of politics First and most important Riemer and Simon affirm the importance of addressing the three main concerns of political science political and philosophy and ethics empirical behavioral political science and public policy Second the authors reaffirm their normative preference for politics as a civilizing enterprise one that enables people in the political community live better to grow robustly in mind and spirit and to find creative fulfillment The fourth cardinal feature requires to recognize realistically the ever changing nature of politics and the tasks of assessing and responding to changing values The sixth cardinal feature of The New World of Politics is understanding the importance of keeping the future in mind not only the immediate future but the long range future This book seeks to introduce students to political science as a discipline intimately involved with ethics empirical social scientific inquiry and public policy Neal Riemer and Douglas W. Simon are endeavoring to help students respond to those future problems with understanding and wisdom A Collegiate Press book

The Ideology of the Extreme Right Cas Mudde, 2002 This book provides a comprehensive and detailed analysis of the five main parties of the extreme right in the Netherlands Centrumdemocraten Centruumpartij Belgium Vlaams Blok and Germany Die Republikaner Deutsche Volksunion Using primary research including internal party documents it concludes that rather than right wing and extremist the core ideology of these parties is xenophobic nationalist including also a mix of law and order and welfare chauvinism The author's research and conclusions have broader implications for the study of the extreme right phenomenon and party ideology in general
