David Campbell, Michael Dillon

Political Subject Of Violence:

The Political Subject of Violence David Campbell, Michael Dillon, 1993 These essays examine various aspects of the violence of the relationship between modern reason and modern political violence drawing upon Nietzschean and Heideggerian themes and the work of contemporary thinkers such as Foucault Derrida and Levinas Theory of the Political Subject Sergei Prozorov, 2013-11-07 Together these two companion volumes develop an innovative theory of world politics grounded in the reinterpretation of the concepts of world and politics from an ontological perspective Theory of the Political Subject continues the project of reconstruction of political universalism begun in Ontology of World Politics Having redefined world politics in terms of the affirmation of the universal ontological axioms of freedom equality and community in an infinite multiplicity of particular situations or worlds in this book Prozorov focuses on the way this affirmation is actually practiced analysing the conditions for the emergence within a world of the subject of its radical transformation Drawing on the contemporary reassessment of the notion of the subject in continental political thought particularly the work of Alain Badiou Prozorov defines the political subject in terms of one's subtraction from the positive order of one's world the weakening of one's particular identity that makes possible one's participation in the affirmation of the universal The book proceeds with outlining the path of the political subject within its world from the point of its inception to its confrontation with ethical epistemic and other limits to its activity This account of the subjective aspect of world politics also offers new and stimulating perspectives on such key issues of political theory as the relation of politics to human nature the role of violence in politics and the conditioning of politics by philosophical or scientific knowledge Systematic and accessible these works will be key reading for all students and scholars of political science and international relations The Political Philosophy of Judith Butler Birgit Schippers, 2014-04-03 Judith Butler can justifiably be described as one of the major critical thinkers of our time While she is best known for her interventions into feminist debates on gender sexuality and feminist politics her focus in recent years has broadened to encompass some of the most pertinent topics of interest to contemporary political philosophy Drawing on Butler's deconstructive reading of the key categories and concepts of political thought Birgit Schippers expounds and advocates her challenge to the conceptual binaries that pervade modern political discourse Using examples and case studies like the West's intervention in Iraq and Afghanistan and in relation to the Israeli Palestinian conflict Schippers demonstrates how Butler's philosophically informed engagement with pressing political issues of our time elucidates our understanding of topics such as immigration and multiculturalism sovereignty or the prospect for new forms of cohabitation and citizenship beyond and across national boundaries A detailed exposition and analysis of Butler's recent ideas championing her efforts at articulating the possibilities for radical politics and ethical life in an era of global interdependence this book makes an important contribution to the emerging field of international political philosophy Research Handbook on Feminist Political Thought Mary Caputi, Patricia Moynagh, 2024-05-02

Illustrating the collective power and relevance of feminist theory today Mary Caputi and Patricia Moynagh have carefully selected a diverse international range of leading scholars and activists to critically assess key social and political challenges in the twenty first century This Research Handbook demonstrates a variety of feminist analyses that offer compelling insights into an array of topics including police brutality the carceral state racial and sexualised violence trans rights climate change and the denial of reproductive rights Postpositivist International Relations Theory Amartya

Mukhopadhyay,2023-10-16 This book discusses postpositivist theories foregrounding postpositivism against the reigning realist and positivist pluralist orthodoxies The book explicates seven theories not as disparate endeavours but as developments linked by a common thread that seeks to enunciate globalist emancipatory goals for the theoretical field and the world that these theories seek to change It focuses on the following themes feminism environmentalism or green theory the English School critical theory constructivism postmodernism and postcolonialism Additionally a separate chapter on globalization shows that while mainstream neo realist international relations theories respond hostilely to globalization and liberal pluralist theories react benignly to it postpositivist theories positively welcome it The book offers a competent meta theoretical gridwork showing on which side of the opposing disciplinary positions in the fourth debate each of the seven theories are located It is a comprehensive guide to the postpositivist restructuring of the discipline of international relations This book will be of interest to researchers and students of political science international relations history humanities and literature Political Violence and Kurds in Turkey Mehmet Orhan,2015-10-16 The Kurdish conflict is an acknowledged long standing issue in the Middle East and the emergence of radical Kurdish nationalist movements in the 20th century played a decisive role in the evolution of political violence Political Violence and Kurds in Turkey examines how this political violence impacts Kurds in contemporary Turkey and explores the circumstances that move human beings to violent acts It looks at the forms political violence takes and in which times and spaces it occurs as well as the roles played by micro and macro factors It takes a theoretical approach to violence as both producer and product of interrelations between many actors and contextualises this with studies of violence in Kurdish villages and towns The book evaluates the three levels at which political violence operates between the state and Kurdish movements among Kurdish groups and between Kurdish political organizations and Kurdish society and divides it into its different aspects and processes fragmentation segmentation signifying intra ethnic struggles between Kurdish actors mobilization the course leading the Kurdish movement to armed conflict participation the use of violence by individuals and repertoires the forms taken by political violence Offering an in depth analysis of the dynamics behind political violence and its use amongst Kurds in Turkey this book will be a key resource for students and scholars of Middle Eastern Kurdish Studies and Conflict Studies and offers new understanding and approaches to the study of political violence Geographies of Anticolonialism Andrew Davies,2019-10-09 A fresh approach to scholarship on the diverse nature of Indian anticolonial processes Brings together a varied selection of literature to explore Indian anticolonialism in new ways Offers a different perspective to geographers seeking to understand political resistance to colonialism Addresses contemporary studies that argue nationalism was joined by other political processes such as revolutionary and anarchist ideologies to shape the Indian independence movement Includes a focus on a specific anticolonial group the Pondicherry Gang and investigates their significant impact which went beyond South India Helps readers understand the diverse nature of anticolonialism which in turn prompts thinking about the various geographies produced through anticolonial activity

Radical Political Theology Clayton Crockett, 2013-10-01 In the 1960s the strict opposition between the religious and the secular began to break down blurring the distinction between political philosophy and political theology This collapse contributed to the decline of modern liberalism which supported a neutral value free space for capitalism It also deeply unsettled political religious and philosophical realms forced to confront the conceptual stakes of a return to religion Gamely intervening in a contest that defies simple resolutions Clayton Crockett conceives of the postmodern convergence of the secular and the religious as a basis for emancipatory political thought Engaging themes of sovereignty democracy potentiality law and event from a religious and political point of view Crockett articulates a theological vision that responds to our contemporary world and its theo political realities Specifically he claims we should think about God and the state in terms of potentiality rather than sovereign power Deploying new concepts such as Slavoj Žižek's idea of parallax and Catherine Malabou's notion of plasticity his argument engages with debates over the nature and status of religion ideology and messianism Tangling with the work of Derrida Deleuze Spinoza Antonio Negri Giorgio Agamben Alain Badiou John D Caputo and Catherine Keller Crockett concludes with a reconsideration of democracy as a form of political thought and religious practice underscoring its ties to modern liberal capitalism while also envisioning a more authentic democracy unconstrained by those ties

Political Responsibility for a Globalised World Ernst Wolff, 2014-04-15 The aim of this book is to reflect on the complex practice of responsibility within the context of a globalised world and contemporary means of action Levinas exploration of the ethical serves as point of entry and is shown to be seeking inter cultural political relevance through engagement with the issues of postcoloniality and humanism Yet Levinas fails to realise the ethical implications of the inevitable instrumental mediation between ethical meaning and political practice With recourse to Weber Apel and Ricoeur Ernst Wolff proposes a theory of strategic co responsibility for the uncertain global context of practice

The Reject Irving Goh, 2014-10-15 This book proposes a theory of the reject a more adequate figure than the subject for thinking friendship love community democracy the postsecular and the posthuman Through close readings of Nancy Deleuze Derrida Cixous Clement Bataille Balibar Ranciere and Badiou Goh shows how the reject has always been nascent in contemporary French thought The recent turn to animals and bare life as well as the rise of the Occupy movement he argues presents a special urgency to think the reject today Thinking the reject most importantly helps to advance our commitment to affirm others without acculturating their differences But the reject also offers Goh proposes a response finally commensurate with the radical horizon of Nancy's question of who comes after the subject
