Intermarium Marek Jan Chodakiewicz, 2017-09-08 History and collective memories influence a nation its culture and institutions hence its domestic politics and foreign policy That is the case in the Intermarium the land between the Baltic and Black Seas in Eastern Europe The area is the last unabashed rampart of Western Civilization in the East and a point of convergence of disparate cultures Marek Jan Chodakiewicz focuses on the Intermarium for several reasons Most importantly because as the inheritor of the freedom and rights stemming from the legacy of the Polish Lithuanian Ruthenian Commonwealth it is culturally and ideologically compatible with American national interests It is also a gateway to both East and West Since the Intermarium is the most stable part of the post Soviet area Chodakiewicz argues that the United States should focus on solidifying its influence there The ongoing political and economic success of the Intermarium states under American sponsorship undermines the totalitarian enemies of freedom all over the world As such the area can act as a springboard to addressing the rest of the successor states including those in the Caucasus Central Asia and the Russian Federation Intermarium has operated successfully for several centuries It is the most inclusive political concept within the framework of the Commonwealth By reintroducing the concept of the Intermarium into intellectual discourse the author highlights the autonomous and independent nature of the area This is a brilliant and innovative addition to European Studies and World Culture

Diversity and Dissent Howard Louthan, Gary B. Cohen, Franz A. J. Szabo, 2011-03-01 Early modern Central Europe was the continent's most decentralized region politically and its most diverse ethnically and culturally With the onset of the Reformation it also became Europe's most religiously divided territory and potentially its most explosive in terms of confessional conflict and war Focusing on the Holy Roman Empire and the Polish Lithuanian Commonwealth this volume examines the tremendous challenge of managing confessional diversity in Central Europe between 1500 and 1800 Addressing issues of tolerance intolerance and ecumenism each chapter explores a facet of the complex dynamic between the state and the region's Catholic Protestant Orthodox Utraquist and Jewish communities The development of religious toleration one of the most debated questions of the early modern period is examined here afresh with careful consideration of the factors and conditions that led to both confessional concord and religious violence
