representations built around the positions that either all has changed or nothing has changed the in depth case studies in this volume demonstrate how elements both of continuity and rupture with the past are present in the post uprising landscapes of Morocco Tunisia and Egypt Public policy contentious politics the process of institution making and re making and the relations of power connecting national and international economies are at the core of the comparative investigations included in the book The volume makes an important contribution to the study of North African politics and to the study of political change and stability by contrasting the different trajectories of the uprisings and by offering theoretical reflections on their meaning consequences and scope This book was originally published as a special issue of the British Journal of Middle Eastern Studies
